Constitution

of the

Neuse Baptist Association

ARTICLE I. NAME

This body shall be known as the Neuse Baptist Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association shall be to devise, recommend and promote measures of increasing the harmony and spiritual power of the cooperating churches, to assist in developing and directing their energies, resources and gifts in advancing the Redeemer's Kingdom, and to cooperate with the Baptist Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in all religious, educational, missions, Sunday School, Church Training, Brotherhood, Women's Missionary Union and other work fostered by the said convention.

The Neuse Baptist Association is a non-profit organization and no profit shall inure to any individual connected with the organization except in consideration for services rendered. In the event of dissolution of the Association, all assets would be conveyed to the churches of the Neuse Baptist Association.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Membership in the body shall be composed of all pastors and duly elected messengers of the cooperating churches.

SECTION 2. Each church shall be represented, at the annual meeting of the Association and at any special meeting during the year, by messengers who shall be duly certified, in the following ratio: Each church with a membership of not more than one hundred members (100) shall be entitled to five (5) messengers. Churches having more than one hundred (100) members shall be entitled to an additional messenger for every additional one hundred (100) members or a major fraction thereof, providing that no church shall have more than twelve (12) messengers.

SECTION 3. New churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association must make written application to the Missions Committee not later than one month prior to the last meeting of the Associational Council prior to the annual meeting of the Association, giving evidence of their faith and order, and their agreement to cooperate in the general program of the Association, the Baptist Convention of North Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Convention. The Missions Committee shall study applications and make recommendations to the Associational Council regarding same, and in turn, the Associational Council shall make its recommendations to the annual meeting of the Association for its action.

SECTION 4. All new missions and new churches should be sponsored by a local church or churches.

SECTION 5. The Association shall have power, upon given written notice of nine (9) months and by two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of messengers present and voting, to withdraw fellowship from any church that willfully departs from orthodox principles of the Christian religion as taught in the Southern Baptist churches or that fails to represent itself either by messenger or by letter at the annual session of the Association without sufficient reason or that fails to support causes fostered by the denomination at large and of this association in particular or that ceases to be missionary in practice.

SECTION 6. Any church may decline to send messengers to the Association at its pleasure. Whenever this constitutes a withdrawal of fellowship on the part of the church, the Association shall not as a body, or through a representative or representatives, seek to restrain by coercion or by law the withdrawal action of the church.

ARTICLE IV. MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The Association shall convene annually on the fourth Monday and Tuesday nights in October and may meet with different churches on the two (2) successive days.

SECTION 2. The time of the annual meetings may be changed, or special meetings called, by the Associational Council upon notice to the cooperating churches.

ARTICLE V. FISCAL YEAR

This fiscal year of the Association shall begin on January first (1st) and end on December thirty-first (31st) of each year.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The officers of the Association shall be a Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Historian, the Trustees, the Associational Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, and such others as may be authorized by the Association.

SECTION 2. All officers shall be members of churches affiliated with the Association.

SECTION 3. Nominations for Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, and Brotherhood Director shall be presented to the Associational Council at its spring meeting for approval. These nominees shall then serve as "Officers Elect" until the annual meeting of the Association, at which time they shall be considered for election by the Association. Nominees for all other officers shall be presented at the annual meeting. Any officer may be elected to succeed himself, except the Moderator, who may not serve more than two (2) years in succession. Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Associational Council.

ARTICLE VII. THE ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Associational Council shall consist of each Director of Missions, the immediate Past-Moderator, the representatives of the Denominational agencies, and two (2) lay members from each cooperative church, to be elected by the church. The names of the lay members shall be duly certified by notifying the Associational Clerk.

SECTION 2. The Officers of the Association shall serve as the Officers of the Council.

SECTION 3. The Associational Council shall act for the Association in the interim between annual sessions. It shall carry out the policies and will of the Association, and shall make reports to the Association at its annual meeting. The Associational Council also has the power to fill vacancies among the Officers and Committees of the Association that may occur during the year.

SECTION 4. Twenty (20) members of the Associational Council will constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII. ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1. The Director of Missions shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the Association and the denomination. He shall be nominated by the Missions Committee to the Associational Council, and elected by the Association at any annual session, or by the Associational Council if the next annual session of the Association is thirty (30) days or more beyond the date on which the Director of Missions is nominated.

ARTICLE IX. COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. That the Nominating Committee has the responsibility to offer nominations to the annual meeting for members and chairmen of all Standing Committees herein provided except those already named by the Constitution.

SECTION 2. The Association shall have the Standing Committees listed below, along with other committees authorized by the Association. These committees shall begin their duties at the close of the annual session, and shall make reports of their work to the Associational Council. Members of the committee shall be selected from the membership of those churches cooperating with the Association and are subject to re-election provided, that in no case, any person shall serve on the same committee longer than three (3) years in succession with the exception of the Music Committee, the Camp Committee and the Senior Citizens Committee. SECTION 3. All Committees will operate on a three (3) year rotating basis, one third (1/3) rotating off each year. In the event of odd numbered Committees, then the smaller number of Committee members will be rotated off in the first two (2) years and the greater number shall rotate off in the third (3rd) year.

ARTICLE X. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CHURCH

Each cooperating church shall send annually to the Association a report on the Associational Letter which is provided. Said reports should reach the Associational Clerk not later than October 15 of that year.

ARTICLE XI. SPECIAL DAYS

The fourth (4th) Sunday of May of each year shall be designated as "Association Day" in all churches for the purpose of receiving an offering for the Missionary activities of the Association, such as church building lots, facilities for missions, rentals, Director of Missions.

ARTICLE XII. ADOPTION OF CONSTITUTION

This Constitution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption and shall supersede any and all constitutions previously adopted.

ARTICLE XIII. AMMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

This constitution may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association provided the amendment has been presented in writing to the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws not later than September 1, and presented to the October meeting of the Associational Council, and read on two successive days of the annual meeting, and receives a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the messengers present at the second meeting.

Bylaws

"The work of the Association shall be governed by the following Bylaws."

ARTICLE I - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

SECTION 1. THE MODERATOR shall preside over the annual meeting of the Association and begin each session punctually. He shall appoint such committees as may be authorized by the Constitution, or the Association, enforce the rules, preserve order, and exercise all prerogatives of a presiding officer according to parliamentary usage, and serve as chairman of the Associational Council, and ex officio member of all standing committees.

THE COMMITTEE ON PASTOR/CHURCH RELATIONS shall be composed of five (5) members, with one (1) retired minister, two (2) active ministers, and two (2) laypersons and the Director of Missions serving as ex officio member. The members of this committee shall be elected annually by the Associational Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Director of Missions. A vacancy shall be filled by the Associational Executive Committee upon the recommendation of the Director of Missions. It shall meet as needed. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The principal function of this committee shall be to promote better relations between churches and their pastors, and advise and consult with pastors and/or church members upon their request. This committee shall also seek ways of improving communications between congregations and their ministers and help member churches find ways of easing tensions and keeping open lines of communications.

SECTION 16. THE COMMITTEE ON PROPERTIES AND EQUIPMENT shall be composed of six (6) members. The officers shall consist of a chairman and a secretary. It shall: oversee the upkeep and needs of the Associational building(s) and ground(s); periodically inspect and inventory the Associational properties and equipment; make recommendations regarding improvements, updating, maintenance, and adequate insurance coverage; develop and recommend a program of upkeep and preventive maintenance; develop and recommend policies and procedures for using Associational facilities and equipment; develop job descriptions and recommend contracting for maintenance and upkeep personnel; request and administer a maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget; and report to the Associational Council and at the Association's annual meeting.

SECTION 17. THE ASSOCIATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE shall be composed of the Associational Officers, the Department Directors, the Committee Chairmen, and the Director of Missions who will serve as chairman. This committee will assist the Director of Missions in planning, coordinating and implementing the program of the Association. They will meet on a quarterly basis or as needed.

ARTICLE III - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The officers of the Council shall be the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, and the Clerk of the Association.

SECTION 2. The Associational Council shall hold an organizational meeting within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting, and shall set up the following subcommittees, and any other deemed necessary for the proper handling of Associational business between the annual sessions:

THE CALENDAR COMMITTEE: This committee shall be composed of the officers of the Association, the President of the Ministers' Conference, and the Director of Missions. (It shall be the duty of this Committee to plan and recommend to the Associational Council at the annual session of the Association, a Calendar of Activities for the coming year. The Vice-Moderator shall serve as chairman.)

SECTION 3. The Council shall meet every other month (except July and August). The first meeting shall be held within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting. Time and places of these meetings shall be determined by the Council.

SECTION 4. The Council shall submit to the Association in annual session a full and complete Budget, Calendar of Activities, and a full and complete report of its work.

ARTICLE IV - RULES OF ORDER

The following rules shall govern deliberations in the meeting of the Association and the Associational Council.

SECTION 1. The official transaction of business in all regular meetings of the Association and the Associational Council shall be by the affirmative majority vote of the members present and voting, except in matters relating to the Constitution, the withdrawing of fellowship from any cooperating church, and the seating of messengers from those churches desiring to cooperate with the Association. In called meetings of the Associational Council, a number equal to the majority of the membership of the Associational Council and representing a majority of the cooperating churches shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

SECTION 2. A messenger wishing to speak shall rise and address the presiding officer. He shall confine himself to the question under consideration and shall avoid all personalities. No messenger shall speak more than twice on the same subject without special permission.

SECTION 3. All motions seconded shall be definitely stated by the presiding officer or at his request, read by the clerk before the vote is taken.

SECTION 4. When a question is under consideration, no other motion or proposition shall be received except a motion to adjourn, lay on the table, to amend, to commit, to postpone, to a definite time. When there are several motions, they shall have preference in the order in which they come.

SECTION 5. The general business of the Association shall be recommended by the Committee on Order of Business at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting of the Association. When adopted this report shall become the order of business for the members and cannot be changed except by the vote of the Association.

SECTION 6. All questions of order not herein provided for shall be decided by Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE V - ADOPTION OF BYLAWS

SECTION 1. These Bylaws shall take effect immediately upon their adoption, and shall supersede any and all Bylaws previously adopted.

SECTION 2. These Bylaws may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association provided the amendment has been presented in writing to the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws no later than September 1, and presented to the October meeting of the Associational Council. Passage shall be by majority vote of the messengers present and voting.

MISSIONS

Proceedings

FIRST SESSION - MONDAY EVENING

1. The 58th Annual Session of the Neuse Baptist Association was called to order by our Moderator, Rev. William Brown, at 7:00 p.m., October 27, 1986, at First Baptist of Deep Run, Deep Run, North Carolina. He welcomed everyone to the first session.

2. The session was begun with the congregation singing, "He Keeps Me Singing," led by Karen Dale, Music Minister of Spilman Baptist Church.

3. Rev. Bobby Hunter, pastor of the host church, read a devotion from Luke 2:49 and Romans 12:11 and led in prayer. He extended a welcome to the church and indicated that refreshments would be served after the session.

BUSINESS SESSION

4. The Moderator called the session to order, and on behalf of the Committee on the Order of Business, made a motion that the program as printed be approved as the Order of Business for both sessions, unless changes become necessary. The motion was seconded and approved.

5. All visitors were recognized and welcomed. The Moderator read a letter from Chowan College which expressed their appreciation of the support offered by our association. The letter was cosigned by the President and Chaplain of Chowan College.

6. The Clerk, Rev. Greg Hensley, read his summary report of the Council meetings held in 1985-86. The report was adopted as read. Registration indicated that 144 people were present with 23 pastors, 31 visitors, 73 messengers and 17 associational officers. There were 30 churches represented.

7. Rev. Bobbie Belcher, Director of Missions, recognized new pastors, new staff members and those who had changed churches within the Neuse Association.

The Calendar of Activities, prepared by Rev. Belcher, was distributed and he indicated that a more permanent calendar, with several corrections and additions, would be handed out at the December meeting.

8. The Moderator called for any Miscellaneous Business and none was introduced.

9. The congregation was led in singing, "Let Others See Jesus In You," by Karen Dale.

10. The choir from Spilman Memorial Baptist Church, led by Karen Dale, sang a selection from My Tribute entitled "Ceaseless Praise."

11. The Moderator introduced Dr. Sara Ann Hobbs, Director of the Missions Division of the Baptist State Convention, who spoke on "Missions Here." She stressed the close partnership between the state in its mission and the mission of the Neuse Association. The message was based on Mark 5:1-20, the story of Jesus' encounter with Legion. Once Jesus had healed the man who was possessed, He sent the man not to another country but to his own family and friends. This, Miss Hobbs said, was a call to State Missions. Following is a summary of Miss Hobbs' talk:

"In Luke 4 Jesus said He had come to deliver people from their captivity. We are captives of many different things: Like the the woman at the well of Sycharr, we are held captive by sin, and yet multitudes believed her testimony and were saved. There are two million of our population who haven't made a confession of faith who are held captive to sin, and they are everywhere. An emphasis must be placed on organizing new churches for new churches grow rapidly. Two examples of these are Greystone Baptist, which has increased by 200 members in two years, and Woodhaven Fellowship, which has an avergage Sunday School attendance greater than its enrollment. Miss Hobbs says we are also held captive by our lifestyle. These are the captives of circumstance - the blind, the deaf, the lame, etc. These are like the blind man by the pool of Bethesda. Someone needs to bring them to the pool. Such a person is Sally Lennon who has personally trained 500 people in literacy training in the Wilmington Association. As Jesus said in Matthew 25:40, 'when ye did it unto them, ye did it unto me.' When we help others around us, where we are, we are doing it for Jesus."

12. Doug Joyner, Vice-Moderator, called for the presentation of committee reports.

13. Rev. M. O. Sears, Chairman, Evangelism Committee, gave the report as printed in the Book of Reports. He announced that the Freddy Gage Crusade would be located in Kinston instead of Goldsboro because of a lack of suitable places in Goldsboro. Motion was made to accept the report, was seconded and carried.

14. Rev. Bill Morrow presented the Baptist Children's Home report. Motion was made to accept the report, was seconded and carried.

15. Rev. Bobbie Belcher presented his Director of Missions report. He indicated that our association was the first out of 40 or more to show an increase in all areas of missions. He shared two of his dreams: 1) a new conference room in the associational office and 2) increased funding for the Mission Center. Motion was made to accept the report, was seconded and carried.

16. Rev. Elwin Melton, Chairman, Committee on Constitution and Bylaws, introduced four new amendments to the Constitution which were to be voted on in the second session. This was read as a matter of record.

17. The congregation, led by Karen Dale, sang, "We've A Story To Tell." Karen then sang a solo entitled "Special Delivery."

18. Rev. Mauricio Vargas, a representative from the Home Mission Board who is involved in the Language Ministry field in Eastern Carolina, was introduced and he spoke on "Missions There." Mr. Vargas used as his text Numbers 13:30-31, which is the story of the 12 men sent out to scout the Promised Land. The point of his message is that Home Missions depends on a proper perspective - not to see giants but possibilities. Following is a summary of his talk:

An American shoe salesman went to South America to sell shoes but wrote back to the main office: "It's impossible! Nobody here wears shoes." But a second shoe salesman was sent and he saw tremendous possibility for the same reason, It is a matter of being "well able to overcome it." Caleb and Joshua saw the situation through the eyes of God. Mauricio saw possibilities when he was asked to help translate into Mexican the funeral of a young Mexican boy who had drowned and was buried in a church with several Mexicans in attendance. When he first went to the Montgomery Association, he was told there were no Hispanics there. But he met a single family with over 20 individuals. That single family was the beginning of his ministry in that area. A Campbell University student, William Ortega, spent two summers in a migrant ministry in Clinton and Faison. In the course of his work there were 144 professions of faith made. When Mauricio is asked why he is in North Carolina instead of some place like New York City he says there is a need right here - if one only takes the time to look. There are, he states, 100,000 Hispanics in this state. It takes on who will look at possibilities, not problems!

19. Rev. Phil McRae, pastor of Grainger Baptist, gave the benediction.

SECOND SESSION - TUESDAY EVENING

20. The Second Session of the 58th Annual Meeting of Neuse Baptist Association was held at Pineview Baptist Church, Goldsboro, North Carolina, on October 28, 1986, at 7:00 p.m.

21. Doug Beasley, Minister of Music at Adamsville Baptist Church, led the congregation in singing, "Send The Light."

22. Rev. Michael Ester, pastor of the host church, read from John 15 and led in prayer. He welcomed everyone to his church and indicated that refreshments would be served after the meeting.

23. Our Moderator welcomed us to the meeting, and declared it to be in session.

24. Rev. Tom Waits, Associational Sunday School Director, presented his report. Motion was made to accept it, was seconded and carried.

25. Mrs. Jeanette Walters, Vacation Bible School Director, presented her report. Motion was made to accept it, was seconded and carried.

26. Mrs. Lucy Pittman, W.M.U. Director, presented her report. Motion was made to accept it, was seconded and carried.

27. Jim Small, Brotherhood Director, and M. B. Jenkins, R.A. Director, brought their reports. Motion as made to accept these and the motion was seconded and passed.

28. Mrs. Fay Comer, Church Training Director, presented her report. Motion was made to accept it, was seconded and carried.

29. The congregation sang "Rescue the Perishing," led by Doug Beasley. Doug then sang a solo, "I'd Rather Have Jesus."

30. Dr. Michael Norfleet, a representative of the Foreign Mission Board and a former missionary himself, spoke on "Missions Everywhere." In his message Dr. Norfleet indicated that "Missions is not an option. You must be a witness." He said that the Foreign Mission Board was able to fill only one out of every 4 positions and emphasized that the greatest need on the mission field now is seminary-trained preachers. Currently, he stated, there were some 3,700 missionaries serving in 108 different countries. Dr. Norfleet pointed out one of the problems missionaries faced in foreign countries. Taiwan is one-third the size of North Carolina but with a population of 19 million people. Though some of the Taiwanese have been taught about Jesus the other two classes of people have been ignored with the gospel. These have grown bitter, calling Jesus the American god. They already had their gods! But Dr. Norfleet read from John 1:1, "In . . . beginning," which demonstrated that Jesus was. The point was that Jesus exists while we are created. Furthermore, according to Dr. Norfleet, the missionary must realize that Jesus is "the Word." We don't need things to reveal God. All we need is ourselves!

31. The Moderator, Rev. William Brown, called the Business Session to order.

32. Robin Chapman, Mission Center pastor, in lieu of the Missions Committee Report, presented a report by sharing what he has accomplished so far in his ministry, and what opportunities await him, and the association in this ministry.

33. Rev. Julian Mills, Chairman, Budget/Finance Committee, presented the report. Motion was made to accept, was seconded and carried.

34. Rev. Elwin Melton presented the Nominating Committee report. A motion was made to suspend the rules concerning an individual serving beyond a third term in the case of M. O. Sears, Chairman, Evangelism Committee, due to his current work involving the Freddy Gage Crusade. Motion was made to accept, was seconded and carried.

35. Rev. M. O. Sears, Chairman, Properties Committee, presented his report. The report was approved as read.

36. Rev. Ralph Kennedy, Chairman, Place and Preacher Committee, indicated the 1987 annual sessions would be held at Calvary Baptist of Goldsboro and at Immanuel Baptist in Kinston. The annual sermon would be delivered by Rev. Bill Gay with Rev. Gene Miller as the alternate speaker. Motion was made to accept and was approved.

36. Rev. Bobby Hunter, Chairman, Day Camp Committee, presented the report. It was approved as read.

37. Rev. Elwin Melton, Chairman, Constitution and Bylaws Committee, presented the report. There was some question by Rev. Graham Elmore regarding the recommendation to add a "Committee on Pastor/Church Relations" to the Constitution as written. He expressed a fear that there were too many "loose ends" and posed some questions for the committee to consider. A motion was made to adopt "as written" and the motion was passed. Rev. Paul Womack expressed disapproval of the word "employment" as used in the amendment to add a "Committee on Properties and Equipment" to the Constitution. Rev. Womack argues that we should "contract" instead of employ which would introduce legal problems. The word "employment" was replaced by "contracting for maintenance and upkeep." With this correction, the report was approved as written.

38. Rev. Ray Hodge read scripture and offered up a prayer in the memory of those who have passed away during the year. Edna Hood read the roster of our beloved dead and Roscoe

Daniel led in a closing prayer. The congregation was led in singing, "I Love To Tell The Story," by Doug Beasley.

39. Rev. Ralph Kennedy, pastor of Cabin Baptist Church, read Ephesians 6:10-24 and led in prayer. The choir from Bethel Baptist presented special music featuring "Victory In Jesus."

40. Rev. Jimmie Williams, pastor of Bethel, brought our message asking "Why are we losing the battle?" A summary of his sermon follows: "We proclaim victory in Jesus but can we proclaim victory for Jesus? We are on a team - but we're losing, and the sad truth is that it doesn't bother us. Paul prepared his people to fight principalities and powers and we must do likewise. Satan is the second most powerful being and he's working hard. We must go forth as soldiers of the Lord, but we are in danger of being court-martialed! Our armor is 1) the truth which girds our loins - Jesus is the truth! 2) the breastplate of righteousness - what condition is our heart in! 3) the sandals of preparedness - are we ready to go forth? 4) the shield of faith - how large is our shield? 5) the helmet of salvation - do we think about spiritual things? 6) the sword of the Spirit - how well do we know the Word of God? We must learn to put on the armor piece-by-piece through prayer.

41. Rev. Brantley Stevens, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, brought the recommendation printed elsewhere. A motion was made, was seconded, and was passed as read.

42. Our Moderator asked that all the new officers of the association for the coming year to come forward. They were introduced. Following this, Rev. Brown declared that following the benediction by Rev. Paul Womack, pastor of Calvary Kinston, the 58th Annual Session of the Neuse Baptist Association was concluded.

43. The Clerk indicated the number present: messengers 113, visitors 41, associational officers 13, with 31 churches represented.

Association Council Report

The first of five council meetings was held at First Baptist Church in Kinston, December 2, 1985. Organization and committee reports were heard. No business was discussed.

The second council meeting was held at Neuse Baptist Church in Kinston, February 10, 1985. Organization and committee reports were heard. The following business was approved: (1) The association agreed to participate in the new Annuity Program for Pastors. (2) Three vacancies were filled by the following: Gene Miller replaced Tom Jones on the Nominating Committee; Tom Waits replaced Rudolph Rowe on the Preacher-Placement Committee; Julian Mills replaced John Green on the Budget Finance Committee. (3) A Mission Action Budget for the Neuse Association Mission Center was voted on and approved. The budget is $12,700. (4) It was decided that a letter of congratulations be sent to Ray Hodge, newly elected President of the General Board.

The third council meeting was held at Deep Run Baptist Church, in Deep Run, April 7, 1986. Organization and committee reports were heard. The following business was approved: (1) An amount not to exceed $2,000 was to be taken from the Building Fund to pay outstanding bills. (2) The following were nominated to their positions: Rod Kerr as Chairman of Youth Activities Committee; Tom Hupp as Sunday School Director; Tom Waits as Adult Assist Leader.

The fourth council meeting was held at First Baptist Church in Pikeville, June 1, 1986. Organization and committee reports were heard. The following business was approved: (1) The migrant minister has resigned his position. (2) Money was allocated for Rev. Belcher to attend the Southern Baptist Convention in Atlanta. (3) An association-wide crusade, led by Freddy Gage Ministries, was approved with no definite location or budget set. The crusade/revival will be sponsored by the Neuse Association. (4) A Proposed budget for joint-sponsorship with the NC State Convention for a Spanish pastor, a summer youth worker and a Christian service worker for 1987, 1988 and 1989 was approved.

The last council meeting was held at Love Memorial Baptist Church in Goldsboro, October 6, 1986. Organization and committee reports were heard. Rev. Bobby Belcher introduced the new Mission Center pastor, Robin Chapman, and his wife, Edith. Robin briefly described what his ministry involved. The following business was approved: (1) The Constitution Committee recommended that a) the Pastor/Church Relations Committee be added to the constitution, b) a Property and Equipment Committee be added to the constitution and c) that the Budget-Finance Committee be changed to the Stewardship Committee and its responsibilities be broadened. These recommendations were to be voted on during the annual meeting. (2) The Budget-Finance Committee made a motion, which was passed, to allocate the amount of $60.50 and any travel expenses for the Associational Secretary to attend the Church Secretaries Seminar on November 3-5. (3) A motion was passed to take up a special offering for Pink Hill Baptist Church which was in need of financial relief. The amount of $282 was received.

Director of Missions Report

This year, 1985-86, has been a good year for Neuse Baptist Association. It has been a year of beginnings and of disappointments, but in both of these there has been progress and forward movement. Gifts from NBA churches continue to increase which enables us to reach out in missions.

We were excited about the coming of a Spanish pastor for our Mission Center. Roberto Mejia arrived in January and spent three days a week working and began services the first of April. There was real excitement in the association and things seemed to be going well, but the two handicaps of Rev. Mejia became so burdensome. The fact that Roberto knew almost no English and could not drive a car hindered his work to the point that he as well as the association became discouraged. Rev. Mejia resigned at the end of May, which meant that we did not have a program for the migrants this summer and our center was not used. This was really disheartening, but it is said that with each dark cloud, there is a silver lining.

We began contacts and talked with a young fellow named Robin Chapman. He was already involved in migrant work in Virginia for the summer, but was interested in coming to our area in September. This happened following his marriage in Texas. Robin and Edith Chapman, our new Mission Pastor and wife, are living in the Mission Center and working with the migrant camps and turkey farms. Doxology!

Another dream of mine was expressed at the annual meeting last October and it has come to pass. I dreamed of securing a computer for our association. Last January that came to pass. A TRS-80 Model III computer with printer and software was anonymously donated by a member of our association. We now have our mail list and other data on our computer and hope to utilize it further.

Our churches, for the most part, has been with pastoral leadership through the year with only a few vacancies. The committees and volunteers of the association have functioned above any year, I believe. We continue to enjoy the new home for our office on Ashe Street in Goldsboro, and concerning our new NBA Office, I have another dream!

I like to dream. This one has come about because of extreme need. In our new home, we have adequate office space, but not conference space. We need a conference room and two small rest rooms badly. I have had to have a few of the meeting of committees and activities in other facilities because there was not room. I am dreaming that our Properties Committee could do a study of the material needed to construct a 30' x 30' conference room with two small rest rooms on the back of our present building. We have over $4,000 in our building fund and with our own men doing the building, we might be able to do it for just a little more than what we now have.

A conference room of this type would allow our ministers' conferences, our committee, Seminary Extension, and many other events to take place at the office. It would double the usefulness of our present facilities.

One more dream I would like to share with you. I dream that we can fund our Mission Center and mission pastor better. I have approached one church about placing $1,000 in their budget each year for the Mission Center. We need at least five churches to do this. Then with $5,000 we can fund our part of missions in our association. How about your church this year?

Sunday School Report

During the first half of the decade of the '80s we heard so much about 8.5 by '85. Now, we are hearing about something else called "Challenge 10/90." What will this latest emphasis mean to the churches of the Neuse Baptist Association?

While our Baptist State Convention was making an all-out effort to reach and enroll 855,000 more people in Sunday School, can we share the satisfaction of knowing that we, here in the Neuse Baptist Association, did out part to insure the success of this effort?

Let's look at the record! In our 1980 report from the 35 churches reporting, we show an enrollment of 6,225 in our Sunday Schools. In the report for 1985, with 37 churches reporting, our enrollment was 6,232. With the addition during that five-year period of two churches, Pinkney with an enrollment of 82 and Calypso with an enrollment of 112, our total over-all gain was only seven.

It's so tempting for us to approach this from a negative stance and become pessimistic about any further effort to reach people for Sunday School, but that's not getting the job done. Population growth continues in the area included in the Neuse Baptist Association. With that growth, plus the areas of special ministry that we are aware of in our communities, there is an ever-growing awareness of the need for more emphasis to be placed on Christian Social Ministries.

So, not only do we have a great many new families who need to be involved in the study of God's Word, but there is in addition, the Hispanic population, the mentally retarded, inmates in the correctional units and several other areas of ministry that we have all but overlooked in the past.

You've heard before that the Sunday School is the Outreach arm of the church. In the three-pronged goal of every Sunday School: Reaching, Teaching, Winning . . . reaching is, and must always be, first. Unconcern for the lost in our communities is the initial symptom of a dying Sunday School and, indeed, a dying church!

"Every Sunday School Should Grow" must become more than the title of a song that we have laid aside and forgotten. It should be the battle cry for our time. It should be the commitment of every Baptist church in the Neuse Baptist Association and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina as we accept Challenge 10/90 as our own.

Committee on Constitution and Bylaws Report

Upon recommendation by the Committee on Pastor/Church Relations and in compliance with the Constitution and Bylaws of the association, the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws presents the following amendment in the form of additions:

1. To add "Committee on Pastor/Church Relations" to Article IX. Committees, Section 2, 0."

2. To add the following to "Article II. Composition and Duties of Committees, Section 15." "Committee on Pastor/Church Relations shall be composed of five (5) members, with one (1) retired minister, two (2) active ministers, and two (2) laypersons and the Director of Missions serving as ex officio member. The members of this committee shall be elected annually by the Associational Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Director of Missions. A vacancy shall be filled by the Associational Executive Committee upon the recommendations of the Director of Missions. It shall meet as needed. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The principal function of this committee shall be to promote better relations between churches and their pastors, and advise and consult with pastors and/or church members upon their request. This committee shall also seek ways of improving communications between congregations and their ministers and help member churches find ways of easing tensions and keeping open lines of communications."

Upon recommendation by the Committee on Properties and Equipment and in compliance with the Constitution and Bylaws of the association, the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws present the following amendments in the form of additions:

1. To add "Committee on Properties and Equipment" to Article IX. Committees, Section 2, P."

2. To add the following to "Article II. Composition and Duties of Committees, Section 16." "Committee on Properties and Equipment shall be composed of six (6) members. The officers shall consist of a chairman and a secretary. It shall: oversee the upkeep and needs of the associational building(s) and ground(s); periodically inspect and inventory the associational properties and equipment; make recommendations regarding improvements, updating, maintenance, and adequate insurance coverage; develop and recommend a program of upkeep and preventive maintenance; develop and recommend policies and procedures for using associational facilities and equipment; develop job descriptions and recommend employment of maintenance and upkeep personnel; request and administer a maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget; and report to the Associational Council and at the association's annual meeting."

Upon recommendation by the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws and in compliance with the Constitution and Bylaws of the association, the following amendment is presented:

1. To change "Article IX. Committees, Section 2, G" from "Committee on Budget-Finance" to "Committee on Stewardship."

2. To change "Article II. Composition and Duties of Committees, Section 7" from "The Committee on Budget-Finance" to "The Committee on Stewardship." "The Committee on Stewardship shall be composed of eight (8) members - one from each of the counties of Duplin, Green, Lenoir, and Wayne, and one at large, plus the Moderator, Treasurer and Director of Missions. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The committee shall hear and give consideration to requests of the Associational Council and other leaders in the associational work, and these requests are to be submitted not later than July 1st of each year. The committee shall: offer assistance to the churches in developing an understanding of the commitment to the Biblical concepts of individual and corporate stewardship; promote the challenges and opportunities of the association for which stewardship resources are needed; increase world missions understanding by promoting the Cooperative Program, the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions and Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions, the Homes and Hospital Offering, State Missions Offering and the Neuse Baptist Association Mission Offering; develop and promote a budget to accomplish the ministries of the association; administer an accounting system that assures sound procedures for collecting, safeguarding, and disbursing funds; make a financial report to the Associational Council; and have a professional audit made of the Treasurer's books and make a report to the association in its annual meeting."

Upon recommendation by the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws and in compliance with the Constitution and Bylaws of the association, the following amendment is presented:

1. To add "The Association Executive Committee" to Article IX. Committees, Section 2, Q."

2. To add the following to "Article II. Composition and Duties of Committees, Section 17." "The Associational Executive Committee shall be composed of the Associational Officers, the Department Directors, the Committee Chairmen, and the Director of Missions who will serve as chairman. This committee will assist the Director of Missions in planning, coordinating and implementing the program of the association. They will meet on a quarterly basis or as needed."

Missions Committee Report

Missions!!! Doesn't that sound exciting? Missions!!! Doesn't that cause you to want to share? Missions!!! That's for people who really care about Jesus, about the world He died to save, about people without saving knowledge of Jesus.

I suppose the great question is where is Missions? Where does it start and where does it end for me?

I believe the answer is very obvious. We must begin at our Jerusalem, Right Where We Are. To those of us in the "Neuse Association," this is our Jerusalem. There is much that needs to be done right here in our own backyard. Let's do it together and let's begin now. We are not going to be less concerned about the rest of the world but we are going to do a good job for Jesus right here. We are not going to give less of our concern or time or money or prayers to World Missions (all inclusive) but we are going to give more of all that we have and are right here.

Things are looking good and I believe and pray are going to look even better. As our churches take very seriously Our Responsibility For and Our Commitment to witness to every person in the Neuse Association by the year 2000, we must make some sacrificial decisions. The Cooperative Program is still the Life-Blood of all that we do to reach and teach a lost world for Christ. "Planned Growth in Giving" is a very strategic emphasis that we must take seriously. We cannot and must not do less where we are right now.

In Matthew 25, Jesus tells us that:

He was hungry,
He was thirsty,
He was a stranger,

He was naked,
He was sick and in prison,

And the way we respond give's evidence of whether we are really His or not. Ministry is the name of the game. Let's get at it!!!!!

Our basic needs remain the same:

1. Pray! Always our greatest need!
2. Support! Essential in every area of life. (Time, talents, treasure)
   a. We need the active support of every minister and his missionaries.
   a. Our ministers need our best support possible (of all your resources).
   c. Our Association Program. The urgency of our needs compells us to ask you to commit yourself to lead your churches to increase to five percent of your total church budget their financial support for Associational Missions.
3. Second Mile. A need for $100,000 in "Our Baptist Foundation" to provide a perpetual support base for our Association Mission Program.
   a. Why? To prove your real concern for and your commitment to an active Associational Program that ministers in the name of Jesus Christ to the spiritual needs of all people.
   b. How? Several possibilities!
      1. "You CanParticipate Plan"
         30 persons give $2.00 per week for 10 years
         50 persons give $1.00 per week for 10 years
         100 persons give .75 per week for 10 years
         100 persons give .50 per week for 10 years
      2. "Then A Month Plan"

Missions! Our Mission is to make sure everyone has heard the Good News of Jesus and had an invitation and given opportunity to respond. Missions! We Have Been Commissioned by Jesus with the great commission. Matthew 28:19-20. Mission! We must give account to God and I believe will be judged on basis of our response. Music Committee Report 1986

According to the 1985 Annual of the NBA, Music Ministry ranks second (in terms of total ongoing enrollment) among all the major church organizations, behind Sunday School alone. It connotes to us the imporatance we place on music to train, to inspire, to preach, to lead in worship, to teach. Those of us who are in leadership positions realize all too readily that music is also one of the most critiqued aspects of a church's ministries, perhaps second this time to none but the pastor's sermons!

From "Nice sound this morning," and "Weren't those preschoolers cute" to, "That solo was really meant for me to hear," and "God speaks to me through your choir's special music every Sunday, it seems!", we leaders are regularly reminded that music means something to almost eveyone. Few people could simply "take it or leave it!"

When we leaders recognize the diversity of opinions about "music in the church" within our own congregation, we must then recognize our call to speak to that diversity through what we do with our music ministry. It is a high calling. It is not a call to lead the choir, though that is a part. It is not a call to choose the hymns, though that is integral. It is not a call to be the song-leader/pianist/organist, though these are essential to what we do.

We are called to be ministers--full-time or part-time--of redeeming, reconciling, healing, saving gospel of Christ. What we do must start there and lead people there, or what we do won't go anywhere.

During 1986 the following music-related activities occurred: training event in January for Good News revivals; Adult Choir festival in May led by Ben Ramsaur, Karen Dale, Doug Beasley and Fred DeFoor; Convention-sponsored Regional Leadershop at FBC, Goldsboro and August; participation in council meetings; associational minister's choir begun during Council meeting at Deep Run.

Plan for 1987 include:

January 22 - Adult Choir Festival
March 19 - Children's Choir worker's clinic
September 28 - Music reading session led by Charles Storey, Convention Office Beginning an Associational Music Library.

Ordination Committee Report

The Neuse Baptist Association Ordination Committee received four (4) requests for examinations during this past associational year. The requests were as follows:

1. First Baptist Church, Goldsboro, requested the examination of Fred DeFoor and Steve Lucas, Associate Ministers. These examinations were held on January 10, 1986, and both were approved and recommended for ordination.

2. First Baptist Church, Snow Hill, requested an examination for Paul Womack, recently called pastor of Calvary Church, Kinston. Paul was examined on April 28, 1986, and was approved and recommended for ordination.

3. Love Memorial Baptist Church, Goldsboro, requested an examination for Danny Williams, Associate Minister. Danny was examined on June 24, 1986, and was approved and recommended for ordination.

Brotherhood Report

The Baptist Brotherhood was born on May 20, 1907. So you can see it's not a young organization. By action of the SBC 1954, the Brotherhood was assigned the responsibility for the work of the Royal Ambassadors. The Baptist Men's program has continued to grow and we can see the results of this growth in the Neuse Baptist Association. Since October 1, 1985, I have visited eight of our churches. All of these churches had a Brotherhood program going and it was a blessing to see the enthusiasm of the Baptist Men and RA Leaders within these churches. During my visits I found churches involved in mission work by having Baptist Men and RA boys going to nursing homes, helping in projects of assisting the elderly and handicapped in yard maintenance and repairs to their homes. Adamsville has a prison ministry going at the Wayne County Correctional Center and as a result of this ministry 108 inmates were saved or rededicated their lives. Most of the churches I visited were interested in the types of literature available through the Brotherhood Department and I was able to share needed information.

I attended a Brotherhood Training program at Caraway and received a number of new ideas on different programs that we can use in our association. The Baptist Men's President and I will be working on these programs in the future and hope to get our churches interested in them.

At the present time we have 24 churches with a Brotherhood, leaving 13 churches without one.

Buck Hill, Baptist Men's President, M. B. Jenkins, RA Director, and I are available to help you in any way we can to start a Brotherhood. Please don't hesitate to call on us. Video tapes and equipment may be checked out from the associational office to use for your programs.

Baptist Men's Report

Baptist Men's President, Buck Hill, reports: Assisted in dedicating Agriculture Mission Farm at Campbell University on October 4, 1985, attended State Baptist Men's Conference in Charlotte, presented program at the First Baptist Church, Fuquay Varina, NC on December 22, 1985, presented program at Winterville, NC on January 19, 1986, attended MEW in Tabor City, NC on February 7-9, 1986, attended Baptist Men's Board meeting at Camp Caraway on February 21-22, 1986, presented program to Brotherhood, Adamsville Church, March 19, 1986, planned and carried out District II, Baptist Men's fellowship for Homeland Ministries on April 5, 1986, presented program at Riverview Church, Grimesland, NC on May 4, 1986, attended Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest on May 12-13, 1986, presented program at Snow Hill Church on June 22, 1986, led Key Leadership in Kinston for Brotherhood on August 19, 1986, and in Goldsboro at Rosewood Church on August 26, 1986, attended Baptist Men's Board meeting at Camp Caraway on September 5-7, 1986, and attended National Lay-Renewal Conference in Toccoa on October 1-5, 1986.

Royal Ambassadors Report

RA Director, M. B. Jenkins, reports: The annual RA Conclave was held August 30-31, 1985, at Eagle's Nest Camp in Wayne County. The turn-out was good with six churches participating. A total of 63 persons attended for the entire session with several visitors dropping by from time to time. Future plans are to have the conclave on a better weekend since attendance was down due to the Labor Day weekend. A Brotherhood Workship was held at Kennedy Home Church on October 15, 1985. Tommy Puckett and two training specialists from the Brotherhood Specialist program came to our association to train RA and Baptist Men's officers. We had a poor turn-out, but since it was a first for our association, I considered it a success. We plan to have another workshop October 1986.

Royal Ambassador Week was November 3-9, 1985. The churches in our association observed the week by having parties and banquets and by doing special mission projects. Our first Brotherhood/RA Banquet was held at Adamsville Church on January 25, 1986. We had entertainment by "Bubbles," a clown in our association. Eddie Petit from the BSC Brotherhood Department gave the main address. After a great meal and our entertainment, we decided to make the event an annual affair.

Our association had the privilege of hosting the Crusader Congress East at Madison Avenue Church. Crusade Car Competition, Missions Fair Exhibits and a Campcraft Rodeo highlighted the fun-filled day. The largest attendance ever recorded for the Eastern Congress was attained this year at Madison Avenue. Thomas Puckett praised Thomas Green and Rod Kerr for their kind cooperation in making the congress a real success.

The Associational RA/GA/Acteen Trackmeet was held at South Lenoir High School in Deep Run, NC on April 19, 1986. Attendance was at an all-time high with a total of 243 persons registered not counting the parents and well-wishers. Sportsmanship was also very good and the guys and the girls had a good time discovering the talents that God has given them.

As RA Director, I aided several churches in establishing RA Chapters as well as helped to revitalize chapters that had disbanded or had problems with their programs. This has been a rewarding year in Royal Ambassadors and there is still a long way to go but with God's help I feel that the RA program can be a useful tool in missions education as well as a tool in reaching boys and young men for Christ.

Vacation Bible School

Mission Action best describes Vacation Bible School this year in our association. The VBS team held a three-night school at Caswell Center, Kinston for the second straight year. What a tremendous response we had from the personnel at Caswell. They really went the second mile to accommodate the Bible school there.

With the help of some mission outreach from Falling Creek, another VBS was held in our association in Dudley. The First Corinthian Holiness Church opened their doors and arms for us to help them hold their first Vacation Bible School. This was most rewarding for those of us involved with our black sisters and brothers in Christ. Faithfulness and commitment they had, and so should we, to minister to all in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Quite a few churches held Backyard Bible Clubs and Mission VBS's. I commend you all who carried Christ to others. It is really great to be a part of missions in action through Vacation Bible School!

Woman's Missionary Union Report

The 1985-86 theme was Multiply the Vision. Vision 88 is a dream -- a goal to reach two million women and girls before 1988.

A watchword to remember: "All over the world this gospel is producing fruit and growing, just as it has been doing among you since the day you heard it and understood God's grace in all its truth." (Col. 1:6 NIV)

North Carolina WMU is 100 years old. A century has been celebrated! A future is to be fulfilled!

Woman's Missionary Union of Neuse Association leads out in the promotion of missions education through the churchwide studies of home, foreign and state missions. Other important emphases include weeks of prayer for foreign, home, state and associational missions, Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer, World Hunger Day, Cooperative Program Day and Focus on WMU.

Neuse Associational WMU Council has met regularly, attended workshops and taught workshops. I went to Key Leadership Training held at Ridgecrest -- received update for coming year and in August led Key Leadership Conferences in Kinston and Goldsboro with our WMU Council taking parts.

We want to keep growing in number and organizations in each age-level group. We only have two churches without WMU.

It has taken work, prayer, giving support and teaching for women, girls, and preschoolers to be involved. Goals have been reached.

Mission Friend Director, Sheila Sandy, held a rally for Mission Friends at Spilman Church October 1985 called "Send In The Clowns" which was a great success with about 75 attending.

Girls in Action Director, Susie Jenkins, held a rally for GA's at Rivermont Church on February 15, 1986, with the theme "Bubbling Over." Several of our churches have had GA and Acteens recognition services including Emmaus Church which in September 1986, six Queens and one Queen with Scepter were recognized in a formal Acteens service. Acteens from Adamsville attended "Acteens Day at Campbell University" in October 1985. We have just secured an Acteens Director, Jean Kirk, and she reports that 12 of our churches have Acteen groups and an "Acteens Fiesta" will be at Madison Avenue Church, November 15, 1986.

Mission Action events: Christmas gift of $10 from 20 churches to Woman's Prison in Raleigh; health, first aid and infant kits made for migrants in NBA and shared with Johnston Association; clothing, food, money and volunteer work done for West Virginia people; WMU Council sent $50 to Mundo Vista to help pay for new building.

I have met quarterly with church directors. Brotherhood and WMU had an Inspirational Breakfast at Snow Hill First Church and 98 attended. Program was led by department heads of NBA and a short message by Nancy Wilkie.

Thanks to Rosewood Church for having the Annual Spring Meeting in March. Their WMU Director, Eloise Grantham, and ladies plus other host churches did a great job. Joeann Ault, Centennial Chairperson, organized a parade history of WMU which was very impressive. Three churches received recognition for achievement. Thanks to Kinston First Church for having workshops for state and NBA. Thanks to those women, pastors, and the WMU Council, and "Brother Bob" and "Sister Jean" who have been faithful and supportive during this past year. Our Associational WMU Council earned Distinguished again this year. Neuse is a great association to be a part of and North Carolina, who now leads WMU in membership, is a great state to live in! Our dream is to reach 200 new members this coming year in WMU organizations.

Lucy Pittman, Director

Evangelism Report

The Good News America Rally was held on January 13 at Madison Avenue Church. Rev. J. W. Hutchens, Director of Evangelism, North Carolina Baptist State Convention, brought the inspirational message.

Many of our pastors and lay people attended the Statewide Evangelism Conference in Greensboro, February 3-4, 1986.

Nearly all of our 37 churches participated in the Good News America Revivals of March. The results in terms of baptisms were not as spectacular as we had hoped; however, the impact upon our churches was so great that souls continued to be saved throughout the year. We believe, also, that the influence of "Good News America" sparked a desire to move toward an areawide evangelistic crusade in the fall of 1987.

Associational Key Leadership Conferences were held in First Baptist Church of Kinston on August 19 and in the Goldsboro area at Rosewood Church on August 26, 1986.

Looking toward the future, there are several opportunities available which we hope you will not miss: *A Regional Conference for pastors and staff members will meet at Carolina Barbecue in Jacksonville from 10-12:00 noon on October 23, 1986. *The first Evangelism Through the Home Conference will be held at Caraway Conference Center on November 7-8, 1986. *The Statewide Evangelism Conference at Greensboro will be held February 2-3, 1987. *The Down East Evangelism Workshop at Caswell will be May 1-2, 1987. *The Annual Evangelistic Conference for Youth will be at Greensboro, July 17, 1987.

We hope every church will experience a genuine revival in the spring of 1987. We believe that prayer, evangelistic visitation and thorough preparation is the key to successful revival.

Your commitment to Christ is an extremely important step as we make plans for the Freddy

Gage Areawide Crusade next fall. It is our prayer that every church of every denomination in our area may be enlisted in this all-out effort to reach precious souls for Christ. Please put this coming event at the top of your prayer list!

A Baptismal Record of the Neuse Baptist Association 1970-1985 was prepared and copies have been made available for your information and to further challenge you in the coming year.

Resolutions Committee Report

Whereas, God in His love and mercy through Jesus Christ our Lord, has given us the commission to love one another and through His grace has enabled us to do so in word and action, and

Whereas, the Neuse Baptist Association on October 27th at the Deep Run Baptist Church, and October 28th at the Pineview Baptist Church do hereby resolve that:

1. The messengers, visitors, and guests express to the Deep Run Baptist Church and the Pineview Baptist Church our heartfelt appreciation for their open and warm hospitality at the 58th Annual Neuse Baptist Associational Meeting.
2. We wish to express a hearty thanks to the officers and committees of our association, and that we expecially thank our Moderator, William Brown, our Vice-Moderator, Doug Joyner, our Treasurer, Elwood Hudson, and our Clerk, Greg Hensley, for their service and leadership in the association this past year. We express our thanks to the special speakers, Dr. Sara Ann Hobbs for her message on "State Missions," Rev. Mauricio Vargas for his message on "Home Missions," Dr. Michael Norfleet for his message on "Foreign Missions," and to Rev. Jimmie Williams for the Annual Sermon. We also express our thanks to all those who provided special music at each session.
3. We express our love and appreciation for our Director of Missions, Bobbie Belcher, for his love and leadership to the Neuse Baptist Association in the past year and our confidence in his leadership for the coming year as he leads us as we work together as Christians and churches for the work of Jesus Christ and the proclamation of the gospel.
4. Therefore we, the members of this association who are a part of the body of Christ, are bound together by the Spirit to set forth the Christian example, do hereby prayerfully manifest our faithfulness to the Lord in love for the coming year in our association.

Constitution

of the

Neuse Baptist Association

ARTICLE I. NAME

This body shall be known as the Neuse Baptist Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association shall be to devise, recommend and promote measures of increasing the harmony and spiritual power of the cooperating churches, to assist in developing and directing their energies, resources and gifts in advancing the Redeemer's Kingdom, and to cooperate with the Baptist Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in all religious, educational, missions, Sunday School, Church Training, Brotherhood, Women's Missionary Union and other work fostered by the said convention.

The Neuse Baptist Association is a non-profit organization and no profit shall inure to any individual connected with the organization except in consideration for services rendered. In the event of dissolution of the Association, all assets would be conveyed to the churches of the Neuse Baptist Association.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Membership in the body shall be composed of all pastors and duly elected messengers of the cooperating churches.

SECTION 2. Each church shall be represented, at the annual meeting of the Association and at any special meeting during the year, by messengers who shall be duly certified, in the following ratio: Each church with a membership of not more than one hundred members (100) shall be entitled to five (5) messengers. Churches having more than one hundred (100) members shall be entitled to an additional messenger for every additional one hundred (100) members or a major fraction thereof, providing that no church shall have more than twelve (12) messengers.

SECTION 3. New churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association must make written application to the Missions Committee not later than one month prior to the last meeting of the Associational Council prior to the annual meeting of the Association, giving evidence of their faith and order, and their agreement to cooperate in the general program of the Association, the Baptist Convention of North Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Convention. The Missions Committee shall study applications and make recommendations to the Associational Council regarding same, and in turn, the Associational Council shall make its recommendations to the annual meeting of the Association for its action.

SECTION 4. All new missions and new churches should be sponsored by a local church or churches.

SECTION 5. The Association shall have power, upon given written notice of nine (9) months and by two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of messengers present and voting, to withdraw fellowship from any church that willfully departs from orthodox principles of the Christian religion as taught in the Southern Baptist churches or that fails to represent itself either by messenger or by letter at the annual session of the Association without sufficient reason or that fails to support causes fostered by the denomination at large and of this association in particular or that ceases to be missionary in practice.

SECTION 6. Any church may decline to send messengers to the Association at its pleasure. Whenever this constitutes a withdrawal of fellowship on the part of the church, the Association shall not as a body, or through a representative or representatives, seek to restrain by coercion or by law the withdrawal action of the church.

ARTICLE IV. MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The Association shall convene annually on the fourth Monday and Tuesday nights in October and may meet with different churches on the two (2) successive days.

SECTION 2. The time of the annual meetings may be changed, or special meetings called, by the Associational Council upon notice to the cooperating churches.

ARTICLE V. FISCAL YEAR

This fiscal year of the Association shall begin on January first (1st) and end on December thirty-first (31st) of each year.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The officers of the Association shall be a Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Historian, the Trustees, the Associational Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, and such others as may be authorized by the Association.

SECTION 2. All officers shall be members of churches affiliated with the Association.

SECTION 3. Nominations for Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, and Brotherhood Director shall be presented to the Associational Council at its spring meeting for approval. These nominees shall then serve as "Officers Elect" until the annual meeting of the Association, at which time they shall be considered for election by the Association. Nominees for all other officers shall be presented at the annual meeting. Any officer may be elected to succeed himself, except the Moderator, who may not serve more than two (2) years in succession. Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Associational Council.

ARTICLE VII. THE ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Associational Council shall consist of each Director of Missions, the immediate Past-Moderator, the representatives of the Denominational agencies, and two (2) lay members from each cooperative church, to be elected by the church. The names of the lay members shall be duly certified by notifying the Associational Clerk.

SECTION 2. The Officers of the Association shall serve as the Officers of the Council.

SECTION 3. The Associational Council shall act for the Association in the interim between annual sessions. It shall carry out the policies and will of the Association, and shall make reports to the Association at its annual meeting. The Associational Council also has the power to fill vacancies among the Officers and Committees of the Association that may occur during the year.

SECTION 4. Twenty (20) members of the Associational Council will constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII. ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1. The Director of Missions shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the Association and the denomination. He shall be nominated by the Missions Committee to the Associational Council, and elected by the Association at any annual session, or by the Associational Council if the next annual session of the Association is thirty (30) days or more beyond the date on which the Director of Missions is nominated.

ARTICLE IX. COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. That the Nominating Committee has the responsibility to offer nominations to the annual meeting for members and chairmen of all Standing Committees herein provided except those already named by the Constitution.

SECTION 2. The Association shall have the Standing Committees listed below, along with other committees authorized by the Association. These committees shall begin their duties at the close of the annual session, and shall make reports of their work to the Associational Council. Members of the committee shall be selected from the membership of those churches cooperating with the Association and are subject to re-election provided, that in no case, any person shall serve on the same committee longer than three (3) years in succession with the exception of the Music Committee, the Camp Committee and the Senior Citizens Committee. SECTION 3. All Committees will operate on a three (3) year rotating basis, one third (1/3) rotating off each year. In the event of odd numbered Committees, then the smaller number of Committee members will be rotated off in the first two (2) years and the greater number shall rotate off in the third (3rd) year.

ARTICLE X. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CHURCH

Each cooperating church shall send annually to the Association a report on the Associational Letter which is provided. Said reports should reach the Associational Clerk not later than October 15 of that year.

ARTICLE XI. SPECIAL DAYS

The fourth (4th) Sunday of May of each year shall be designated as "Association Day" in all churches for the purpose of receiving an offering for the Missionary activities of the Association, such as church building lots, facilities for missions, rentals, Director of Missions.

ARTICLE XII. ADOPTION OF CONSTITUTION

This Constitution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption and shall supersede any and all constitutions previously adopted.

ARTICLE XIII. AMMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

This constitution may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association provided the amendment has been presented in writing to the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws not later than September 1, and presented to the October meeting of the Associational Council, and read on two successive days of the annual meeting, and receives a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the messengers present at the second meeting.

Bylaws

"The work of the Association shall be governed by the following Bylaws."

ARTICLE I - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

SECTION 1. THE MODERATOR shall preside over the annual meeting of the Association and begin each session punctually. He shall appoint such committees as may be authorized by the Constitution, or the Association, enforce the rules, preserve order, and exercise all prerogatives of a presiding officer according to parliamentary usage, and serve as chairman of the Associational Council, and ex officio member of all standing committees.

SECTION 2. THE VICE-MODERATOR shall discharge the duties of the Moderator in his absence and serve as chairman of the Calendar Committee.

SECTION 3. THE CLERK shall keep the records of the proceedings of the Association, superintend the printing and distribution of the minutes, keep on file the printed minutes and other important papers of the Association and shall serve as Secretary of the Associational Council. For services, the Clerk shall be paid an amount to be determined annually by the Association.

SECTION 4. THE TREASURER shall receive, safequard and disburse all funds of the Association. Disbursements shall be made by the Treasurer in accordance with the Budget adopted by the Association. Non-Budget items should be approved by the Budget Finance Committee/Associational Council. V.B.S (for pastorless churches or where special need exists)
Other assistance as the need arises

III. ASPECTS OF EMPLOYMENT

1. Responsible to Associational Council
2. Three weeks vacation with pay
3. Maximum of four weeks of denominational or church-related work outside the Association (schools of Missions, Church Community Surveys, Revivals, etc.). These to be carefully scheduled so as to avoid interference with his major associational responsibilities.
4. He shall submit a report of his work to the Associational Council at its meetings, and to the Association at its annual meeting.
5. A notice of thirty (30) days shall be given by the Director of Missions or the Association before employment is terminated.

ARTICLE II - COMPOSITION AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. THE COMMITTEE ON ORDER OF BUSINESS, consisting of five (5) members, shall prepare the program for the annual sessions. This suggested program shall be presented to the Association at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting for action. The Officers of the Association and the President of the Ministers' Conference are Ex Officio members. The Moderator shall serve as Chairman.

SECTION 2. THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS shall be composed of seven (7) members whose duties shall be to present nominations for the "Officers Elect:" to the spring meeting of the Associational Council, and to the Association for all officers and committees herein, or by the Association. They shall present nominations to the Association for the representatives of the various agencies of the State Convention. They shall also present nominations to the Associational Council to fill any vacancy which may occur during the year.

SECTION 3. THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM shall be composed of five (5) members who shall cooperate with the State Chairman of Evangelism in the promotion of approved evangelistic efforts within the Association. It shall encourage evangelism in the churches, especially where the need is apparent, and shall help provide evangelistic services in the un-churched areas within the boundaries of the Association.

SECTION 4. THE COMMITTEE ON ORDINATION shall be composed of three (3) members who shall act in an advisory capacity for churches. The committee shall assist any church which requests its services in the examination of candidates for the Christian ministry. It shall help arrange, where necessary, proper services of ordination. Churches are requested to use this committee to examine candidates only after their call to some specific work. Further, churches are requested to refrain from announcing the date of ordination until after the candidate has received approval by this committee.

SECTION 5. THE COMMITTEE ON PLACE AND PREACHER shall be composed of three (3) members, whose duty it shall be to receive or solicit invitations for the place of meeting of the annual session for the following year, and to recommend to the Association in annual session, a place or places of meeting, along with a preacher and alternate for the sermon for the following year.

SECTION 6. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS shall be composed of three (3) members and shall review all resolutions referred to it by the Association, the Associational Council, or the Planning Committee, and report suitable resolutions at the annual meeting.

SECTION 7. THE COMMITTEE ON STEWARDSHIP shall be composed of eight (8) members - one from each of the counties of Duplin, Green, Lenoir, and Wayne, and one at large, plus the Moderator, Treasurer and Director of Missions. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The committee shall hear and give consideration to requests of the Associational Council and other leaders in the Associational work, and these requests are to be submitted not later than July 1st of each year. The committee shall: offer assistance to the churches in developing an understanding of the commitment to the Biblical concepts of individual and corporate stewardship; promote the challenges and opportunities of the Association for which stewardship resources are needed; increase world missions understanding by promoting the Cooperative Program, the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions and Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions, the Homes and Hospital Offering, State Missions Offering and the Neuse Baptist Association Mission Offering; develop and promote a budget to accomplish the ministries of the Association; administer an accounting system that assures sound procedures for collecting, safeguarding, and disbursing funds; make a financial report to the Associational Council; and have a professional audit made of the Treasurer's books and make a report to the Association in its annual meeting.

SECTION 8. THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS shall be composed of five (5) members whose duties it shall be to ascertain the need of new churches within the boundaries of the Association; to recommend to the Associational Council the location of sites and the purchasing of lots for such churches and to assist the organization of such churches as might be authorized. Churches contemplating making debts on lots, buildings, improvements and/or asking for Pastor's aid, must have the recommendation of the Missions Committee and approval of the Associational Council if they expect to apply to the Baptist State Mission Board for aid in paying for the same. It shall be the duty of the Missions Committee to study the applications of churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association as to evidence of their faith and order, and their agreement to cooperate in the general program of the Association, the Baptist State Convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention.

The Committee shall then make recommendations to the Associational Council regarding same.

SECTION 9. THE COMMITTEE ON MUSIC shall be composed of three (3) members who shall cooperate with the Music Department of the State Convention and shall assist in any music program approved by the Association. The Chairman shall also serve as Associational Music Director.

SECTION 10. THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN LIFE shall be composed of three (3) members who shall work with local and State Officials in every phase of promoting civic righteousness.

SECTION 11. THE COMMITTEE ON CAMP ACTIVITIES shall be composed of three (3) members. The Chairman shall serve as Camp Director. The duties of the committee shall be to plan and execute the summer camp.

SECTION 12. THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS shall be composed of three (3) members who shall receive all proposed changes thereto and, upon study of this or other observations, making recommendations to the Association on all Constitution and Bylaw changes.

SECTION 13. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS consisting of three (3) members shall plan for our beloved dead a memorial service to be conducted during the annual session of the Association.

SECTION 14. THE COMMITTEE ON SENIOR CITIZENS shall consist of five (5) members and shall plan a program of ministry for Senior Citizens on the Associational level.

SECTION 15. THE COMMITTEE ON PASTOR/CHURCH RELATIONS shall be composed of five (5) members, with one (1) retired minister, two (2) active ministers, and two (2) laypersons and the Director of Missions serving as ex officio member. The members of this committee shall be elected annually by the Associational Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Director of Missions. A vacancy shall be filled by the Associational Executive Committee upon the recommendation of the Director of Missions. It shall meet as needed. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The principal function of this committee shall be to promote better relations between churches and their pastors, and advise and consult with pastors and/or church members upon their request. This committee shall also seek ways of improving communications between congregations and their ministers and help member churches find ways of easing tensions and keeping open lines of communications.

SECTION 16. THE COMMITTEE ON PROPERTIES AND EQUIPMENT shall be composed of six (6) members. The officers shall consist of a chairman and a secretary. It shall: oversee the upkeep and needs of the Associational building(s) and ground(s); periodically inspect and inventory the Associational properties and equipment; make recommendations regarding improvements, updating, maintenance, and adequate insurance coverage; develop and recommend a program of upkeep and preventive maintenance; develop and recommend policies and procedures for using Associational facilities and equipment; develop job descriptions and recommend contracting for maintenance and upkeep personnel; request and administer a maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget; and report to the Associational Council and at the Association's annual meeting.

SECTION 17. THE ASSOCIATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE shall be composed of the Associational Officers, the Department Directors, the Committee Chairmen, and the Director of Missions who will serve as chairman. This committee will assist the Director of Missions in planning, coordinating and implementing the program of the Association. They will meet on a quarterly basis or as needed.

ARTICLE III - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The officers of the Council shall be the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, and the Clerk of the Association.

SECTION 2. The Associational Council shall hold an organizational meeting within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting, and shall set up the following subcommittees, and any other deemed necessary for the proper handling of Associational business between the annual sessions:

THE CALENDAR COMMITTEE: This committee shall be composed of the officers of the Association, the President of the Ministers' Conference, and the Director of Missions. (It shall be the duty of this Committee to plan and recommend to the Associational Council at the annual session of the Association, a Calendar of Activities for the coming year. The Vice-Moderator shall serve as chairman.)

SECTION 3. The Council shall meet every other month (except July and August). The first meeting shall be held within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting. Time and places of these meetings shall be determined by the Council.

SECTION 4. The Council shall submit to the Association in annual session a full and complete Budget, Calendar of Activities, and a full and complete report of its work.

ARTICLE IV - RULES OF ORDER

The following rules shall govern deliberations in the meeting of the Association and the Associational Council.

SECTION 1. The official transaction of business in all regular meetings of the Association and the Associational Council shall be by the affirmative majority vote of the members present and voting, except in matters relating to the Constitution, the withdrawing of fellowship from any cooperating church, and the seating of messengers from those churches desiring to cooperate with the Association. In called meetings of the Associational Council, a number equal to the majority of the membership of the Associational Council and representing a majority of the cooperating churches shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

SECTION 2. A messenger wishing to speak shall rise and address the presiding officer. He shall confine himself to the question under consideration and shall avoid all personalities. No messenger shall speak more than twice on the same subject without special permission.

SECTION 3. All motions seconded shall be definitely stated by the presiding officer or at his request, read by the clerk before the vote is taken.

SECTION 4. When a question is under consideration, no other motion or proposition shall be received except a motion to adjourn, lay on the table, to amend, to commit, to postpone, to a definite time. When there are several motions, they shall have preference in the order in which they come.

SECTION 5. The general business of the Association shall be recommended by the Committee on Order of Business at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting of the Association. When adopted this report shall become the order of business for the members and cannot be changed except by the vote of the Association.

SECTION 6. All questions of order not herein provided for shall be decided by Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE V - ADOPTION OF BYLAWS

SECTION 1. These Bylaws shall take effect immediately upon their adoption, and shall supersede any and all Bylaws previously adopted.

SECTION 2. These Bylaws may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association provided the amendment has been presented in writing to the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws no later than September 1, and presented to the October meeting of the Associational Council. Passage shall be by majority vote of the messengers present and voting.

Proceedings

FIRST SESSION - MONDAY EVENING

1. The 59th Annual Session of the Neuse Baptist Association was called to order by the Moderator, Rev. William Brown, at 7:00 p.m., October 26, 1987, at Calvary Baptist Church, Goldsboro, North Carolina.

2. The session began with Doug Beasley, Associational Music Director, leading the congregation in singing, "Send the Light".

3. In the absence of the pastor, E.D. Eddins, Mr. A.W. Hill, member of the host church, read Luke 10:25-37 and led in prayer.

4. Mr. Hill extended a welcome to those present and let it be known a nursery was available should it be needed. We were also advised that refreshments would be served in the Fellowship Hall following this session.

BUSINESS SESSION

5. The Moderator, on behalf of the Committee on the Order of Business, declared that the program, as printed, would be followed as the Order of Business for both sessions unless changes became necessary. It had earlier been noted the pastor of the host church was unable to be with us. Rev. Brown then read a letter from Chowan College wishing us well and praying that God's Spirit would guide all our actions and expressing gratitude for our love, concern, and support towards their efforts at Christian higher education.

6. Mr. Brown asked if there were any visitors from outside the Association other than the ones on the program. There were none.

7. The Director of Missions, Rev. Bobbie H. Belcher, presented the Calendar of Activities for 1988 and made a motion it be accepted. Motion seconded and carried.

8. Mr. Belcher recognized all the new pastors and new church staff members in the Association.

9. To Rev. Bill Brown, leaving the office of Moderator after two years, Mr. Belcher presented a Certificate of Recognition. For nine years as Treasurer of Neuse Association, Mr. Belcher presented a Certificate of Recognition to Mr. Elwood Hudson.

10. In the absence of the Clerk, Mrs. Ellen Hawley, Mrs. Joeann Ault read the Summary of the Associational Council Meetings as printed in the Book of Reports. With one correction noted, Mrs. Ault made a motion the report be accepted. Motion seconded and carried.

11. At 7:25 p.m. the Moderator reported the number registered was 140.

12. The congregation was led in singing "Rescue the Perishing" by Doug Beasley.

13. Rev. Brown introduced the first speaker of the evening, Rev. Richard Everett, Director of Personal Evangelism at the Baptist State Convention, who would speak following a musical selection.

14. The pastor of Fremont Baptist Church, Rev. Lynn Peters, and his wife, Rosemary, sang a duet, "We Shall Behold Him". Their daughter, Angila, signed it as they sang.

15. Rev. Everett, asking us to raise our hands and keep them up as long as we agreed with him, proceeded to review the "Articles of Faith". He was pleased to note not one hand was lowered until he finished. "Discipleship" being his subject, Mr. Everett referred to the Scriptures where our Lord warned against a false profession of faith. Mr. Everett asked how a person would feel if, after working and doing what he thought were great things for the Lord, He would say to the individual, "I never knew you."

"I am not troubled about what Baptists believe," Rev. Everett declared, "but how Baptists behave."

In referring to the parable of the two builders, Rev. Everett said each of us determines what we will be. We each build our own house.

The greatest need of God's people is to repent. "Do we really understand what repentance is?" he asked.

When we sin it effects the mind most of all. Our thinking has to be changed to become like the thinking of Jesus.

We live in the house we build, we cannot run away from ourselves.

We have problems today because the church refuses to be obedient to God.

Every house will be tested by the storm. The foundation of a Christian's life should not be built just on his BELIEFS about Jesus, but on the way he BEHAVES about the teachings of Jesus.

"The most recent experience you have had with Jesus Christ is what your Christian walk is based upon," said Mr. Everett.

A Christian is one who DOES Christianity. Salvation is a way of being under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Discipleship is not how many things we do FOR God, but how many things we let God do THROUGH us. Disciples spend time with the Father and do His will.

Mr. Everett closed with the statement, "Behaviour WITH beliefs is Discipleship."

REPORTS

16. Mr. Doug Joyner, Vice Moderator, called for the committee reports.

17. Rev. M.O. Sears, Chairman, Evangelism Committee, gave the report as printed in the Book of Reports. Mr. Sears regretted to note that the association showed 44 less baptisms this year than last. He called attention to several events planned for the next year.

18. Rev. Bill Morrow, Director of Kennedy Baptist Children's Homes, advised us of the fact that there was literature on the table in the vestibule that would inform us of all services offered by the Baptist Children's Homes. He said that all though the offering for the Baptist Homes and Hospital did not reach it's goal this year, he is encouraged and appreciated all who supported it. He discussed two new programs started this year, one for "troubled girls" and one for "adoptable children".

He went on to say that the main purpose of the children's homes is to help hurting children and broken families, to mend them and bring them back together.

Mr. Morrow expressed his thanks for the prayers and monetary support through the years. He extended an invitation to anyone, who would care to, to come for a visit. He did ask that a person call ahead and schedule a time when someoe would be available to act as a guide.

19. Presenting his report as printed in the Book of Reports, the Director of Missions called attention to the comments about the "Military Task Force". He expressed the hope to broaden the bases of this ministry. Also, Mr. Belcher asked the association to consider the possibility of establishing a Black Southern Baptist Church in Kinston. There is a retired black preacher interested in helping.

Mr. Belcher thanked the churches for the support of Associational Mission Offering. One of his dreams is to pay off the $16,000 debt on the associational office. He pointed out that not having to pay the interest on the loan would amount to a considerable savings.

In closing he said he was looking forward to continuing to serve as Neuse Baptist Associational Missions Director.

20. Rev. Lacy Oliver, Chairman, Missions Committee, presented his report as printed in the Book of Reports. He expressed disappointment that not much headway was made this year in beginning new work. He was pleased that the ET FUND, established for Neuse Baptist Association by the Baptist Foundation of the North Carolina State Convention, was being supported.

21. Rev. Robin Chapman, pastor at Neuse Baptist Mission Center, said that besides the work done in Wayne County, folks had been reached in Lenoir and Green Counties as well. He reported that they had ministered to people from nine different countries. In closing, he thanked everyone for their help and prayers.

22. Because Rev. Ray Hodge, Chairman, Memorials Committee, could not be present, Mr. Roscoe Daniel, member of the committee, and Mrs. Zora Melton, presented the report.

Mrs. Melton read Psalm 90 and had prayer. Mr. Daniel read a list of six things we do when loved ones die and read the names of the deceased. The congregation stood for silent prayer followed by a closing prayer by Mr. Daniel.

23. At this time Doug Beasley led the congregation in singing, "It It Well With My Soul".

24. A duet was sung by Doug Beasley and Mrs. Karen Dale, Minister of Music at Spilman Baptist Church, Kinston, North Carolina. The selection was, "When I Think of the Cross". They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Jolene Beasley.

25. Mr. R.A. Hill introduced the second speaker of the evening, Rev. Daniel Langford, Brotherhood Director of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

26. Speaking on the subject of "Sharing", Rev. Langford said, "If we continue to 'share' the Gospel as we are doing now, by the year 2000 only five percent of the population will be Christians." One-half of North Carolina is unchurched today, he said.

He asked the question, "Why Share?" then continued:

1. We need to identify one mistake, and that is, that only the person hired to stand in the pulpit is to preach. Every Christian is called to preach. If the world is to be won to Christ, it will have to be done in the work place, the schools, the places of entertainment, in the market, anywhere we come in contact with the lost.

2. We must find new ways of reaching out where the people are and bringing them into the church. "Do Southern Baptists care enough to pray for a lost world?", he asked.

3. We must commit ourselves to the task of winning the lost. Many times we don't understand what our mission is. Mr. Langford shared the experience of a man who was a contractor and had sat in church for 30 years wishing he could do something for the Lord. One day he was asked to go to West Virginia to supervise the building of a church, then and there he realized he was capable to do a service to the Lord. Now he spends much of his time going from one area to another helping to build churches. "Nurses, carpenters, bulldozer drivers, well diggers, everybody has a mission and they need to find their nitch", Mr. Langford said.

Mr. Langford referred to the time God had Moses throw down his rod and empowered it so that Moses' rod was capable of greater things than anyone else's. We were urged, by Mr. Langford, to let go and yield ourselves to God. Throw down our rod, so to speak, so that we too can become empowered by God and thereby able to fulfill our mission of "sharing" the Gospel.

27. The total attendance for the first session was reported by Mrs. Ault to be 146.

28. The Benediction was given by Rev. Bill Haskins, pastor of Seven Springs Baptist Church.

SECOND SESSION - TUESDAY NIGHT

29. The Second Session of the 59th Annual Meeting of Neuse Baptist Association was held at Snow Hill First Baptist Church, Snow Hill, North Carolina, on October 27, 1987 at 7:00 p.m., and opened with the hymn "Send a Great Revival" sung by the congregation and led by Doug Beasley, Associational Music Director.

30. Rev. Bill Brown, pastor of the host church and Moderator of the association, read scripture, Psalm 133, and offered prayer. He extended a cordial welcome to everyone and invited everyone to remain for refreshments and fellowship at the close of the meeting. At this time, Rev. Brown declared the meeting to be in session.

31. Rev. Tom Waits, Associational Sunday School Director, presented his report. Motion was made to accept it, was seconded and carried.

32. Mrs. Jeanette Walters, Vacation Bible School Director, gave her report. Motion was made to accept the report, it was seconded and carried.

33. Our W.M.U. Director, Mrs. Lucy Pittman, presented her report. Motion was made to accept it; it was seconded and carried.

34. Mr. Jim Small, Brotherhood Director, and Mr. M.B. Jenkins, R.A. Director, presented their report. Motion was made to accept it, was seconded and carried.

35. Rev. Brown expressed his appreciation for these fine reports and praised each one for a job well done.

36. Vice Moderator Doug Joyner expressed his thanks for such fine reports and then asked Music Director Doug Beasley to come forward and lead the congregation in singing "Our Best."

37. Choral worship was presented by a group of N.A.B.S. who sang "He Keeps Me Singing."

38. The Director of Missions introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Dewey Hobbs who is the Director of the Pastoral Care Department of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He will be speaking on "Caring." In his message, Mr. Hobbs indicated the entire purpose of the Hospital and the medical school is to render the very best services possible to the care of anyone who enters the doors. He spoke about the new "special care units." The buildings hopefuly will be completed in about 18 months to two years, such as the clinical building of new offices for doctors, the new Inpatient Tower, new operating rooms, intensive care unit, special care unit for heart and cancer patients, kidney specialties and children's needs. An air care helicopter has been provided. His statement to these units was, "we're seeking to provide facilities that will enable the best care possible in today's world with expanding needs." In his message, Mr. Hobbs invited us to a closer look, to go with him through a typical day of the hospital chaplains, the doctors, and the nurses. Each story related was sad but represented the deep concern, love, and care one receives who enters our Baptist hospital. Over each door is written, "Come unto me all you that are hurting and burdened thereby and through the committed hands and hearts that are here, I will meet you and provide that which is appropriate for our journey." Mr. Hobbs' entire message was "Tender Loving Care."

39. The Associational Clerk, Mrs. Ellen Hawley, gave the registration report of 137 in attendance with 22 pastors, 14 associational officers, 21 visitors and 80 messengers. There were 29 churches represented. The clerk recognized all church clerks present for their outstanding work.

40. Rev. Brown called the business session to order.

41. Rev. Julian Mills, Stewardship Committee Chairman, presented the 1988 budget for the Neuse Baptist Mission Center and the Neuse Baptist Association. A motion was made to adopt the report, it was seconded and carried.

42. The Nominating Committee report was given by the chairman, Rev. Marvin Willis, for the coming year. A motion was made to accept it, it was seconded and carried.

43. Rev. Ralph Kennedy presented the Place and Preacher Committee report. The Annual Meeting will be held at the Falling Creek Baptist Church on October 24, 1988, and at Immanuel Baptist Church on October 25, 1988. Rev. Graham Elmore of Trinity Baptist Church will be the speaker, and Brantley Stevens of New Hope Baptist Church the alternate speaker. Motion was made to accept this report, was seconded and carried.

44. The moderator asked for other matters of miscellaneous business.

45. Rev. Tom Waits of Properties and Equipment Committee asked for support and help from all the churches in providing the needs of maintenance for the property and equipment of the Association.

46. Rev. Lacy Oliver reminded everyone that Dr. Leon Smith, who is Vice President of the State Convention, is now a candidate for President of the convention.

47. During the worship hour, Rev. Graham Elmore read from Matthew 25:31-46 and led in prayer.

48. The choir from Glen Raven Church presented special music featuring "Oh, Lord, Dear Lord, Make Calvary Real To Me" and "The Upper Room."

49. Our Annual Sermon was by Rev. Gene Miller, pastor of Glen Raven Church, who read from II Kings 7:1-5, called attention to verse 3 - "Why sit we here til we die." Rev. Miller used the message in this scripture as a parallel to the way people are today. We hear great messages from God called men and women but we refuse to respond. He also reminded us of the many, many lost people all over the world and especially here in Wayne and surrounding counties, but yet, we do not answer the Lord's command to spread the Gospel and we seemingly do not care. We need to be about "the Lord's business." All through the message, he kept referring to the question, "Why sit we here till we die?" as a source of encouragement to be about bigger and better things. Stop doing for God, but let God do great and mighty things through us. The challenge Rev. Miller presented to us was that we go out into the world and claim the victory for God, to rid ourselves of apathy, indifference, unconcern and complacency.

50. Rev. Tom Waits, Resolutions Committee chairman, asked Dr. Michael Cogdill to present the resolutions he had submitted to the committee. The resolution was adopted by motion made, seconded and carried. Mr. Waits also presented another resolution which was also adopted.

51. The moderator asked all officers of the association for the coming year to come forward. They were introduced. Following this, the gavel was presented to our new moderator, Mr. Doug Joyner, who declared that after the benediction by Rev. Lynn Peters, pastor of Fremont Baptist Church, the 59th Annual Session of the Neuse Baptist Association would be concluded.

Associational Council Report

The first of five council meetings was held at Adamsville Church in Goldsboro, December 1, 1986. Organization and committee reports were heard.

Rev. Marvin Willis made a motion and was passed that the Nomination Committee Report for the new Properties Committee be accepted as follows: Rev. Paul Womack, chairman (3 years); Rev. Tom Waits (3 years); Raymond Ricks (2 years); Buck Hill (2 years); and Rev. M.O. Sears (1 year).

Rev. Belcher, DOM, stated in his report that a contribution had been made to Pink Hill Church by the Neuse Association Churches. He also introduced Rev. Bill Haskings as new pastor of Seven Springs Baptist Church.

The second meeting was held at Jordans Chapel Church, February 9, 1987. Organization and committee reports were heard. The following business was approved: 1) Motion made by Rev. M.O. Sears to use money from Evangelism funds with the idea of it being paid back, for the Freddie Gage Crusade. 2) Motion made by Rev. Lacy Oliver that the association seek $1,200 in financial aid from the convention for Pink Hill Church and their pastor. 3) Rev. Brantley Stevens made motions to pay the increased hospitalization rates for Director of Missions and that one of two plans be adopted to purchase a new copier. Plan (1) was adopted to purchase rather than (2) lease copier from Gray and Creech.

A proposed budget for the Neuse Baptist Association Mission Center was introduced for the year 1988, and that May 24, 1987 be recognized as Associational Missions Offering Sunday.

Moderator Rev. Bill Brown made two announcements in his closing remarks 1) Robin Chapman would be ordained February 15, 1987, in Love Memorial Church and 2) Fred DeFoor, NBA Music Director, would be leaving for Columbia, South Carolina on March 1, 1987.

The third council meeting was held April 6, 1987, at Emmaus Church. After organization and committee reports were heard, the following business was approved. Glen Raven Church donated their church bus to the association to be used by the Mission Center and other purposes if needed. Also the bus would need to be insured at a cost of $529. After some debate it was decided the churches would be responsible for special bus fund. Rev. Bobbie Belcher, DOM, was allowed a week to further recuperate fro a recent hospital stay.

The fourth council meeting met June 1, 1987, at Bethel Church. Organization and committee reports were heard. The following business was approved. Rev. Bobbie Belcher stated in his report that the Mission Center bus insurance and a tent are paid in full.

Moderator Bill Brown read a letter of resignation from Associational Clerk Rev. Greg Hensley. A letter of resignation from Constitution and Bylaws Committee member Rev. Bill Gay was also read. Rev. Ray Hodge made a motion that the clerk write a letter of recommendation for Rev. Gay and Rev. Hensley and mail to their respective new associations. A storage building for the Mission Center, built by men of Love Memorial Church, was delivered June 1, 1987. The motion was made by Vice Moderator Doug Joyner and seconded by Jim Small that Ellen Hawley be elected to fill the unexpired term of Rev. Greg Hensley as clerk. Motion carried. Motion was made by Rev. Bill Haskins and passed that the association implement and support a "Cliffs of the Neuse State Park Summer Resort Ministry." Rev. Haskins volunteered to serve as coordinator. Motion made by Rev. Tom Waits, seconded by Rev. Bill Haskins, and carried, that the Stewardship Committee look into the Annuity Program for Robin Chapman. Motion was made by Rev Gene Miller, seconded by Russell Ault, to look for ways to shorten AC meetings.

A request from Stewardship chairman Rev. Julian Mills was that each church increase their gifts to Associational Missions by one percent next year.

The last council meeting was Monday, October 5, 1987, at Rosewood Baptist Church. Organization and committee reports were heard. The following business was approved: 1) to adopt a Cooperative Agreement to receive funding for Rev. Robin Chapman, Mission Center Pastor/ CCM Director.

Rev. Bill Brown expressed appreciation to Vice Moderator Douglas Joyner for his help and cooperation and praised the association for the progress made over the past few years.

Rev. Daniel Benfield, new pastor of Falling Creek, was present and Rev. Lynn Peters, new pastor of Fremont Church, led the prayer of benediction.

Respectfully submitted,
Ellen Hawley, Clerk

Director of Missions Report

A report concerns events, items of interest and involvement of the association for the past year. It has been a good year in many ways. 1986-87 saw some new directions for the mission outreach of Neuse Baptist Association.

First we had two pastors, the Southern Baptist Chaplain from SJAFB and I, participate in a six month "Military Task Force" in order to develop a military strategy in reaching and helping over 300,000 men and women in the Armed Forces in our state. That has been accomplished and the paper has been submitted to the State Convention and to the Home Mission Board for evaluation. The title of the paper is "Ministry to the Military." A copy is in the NBA office if you are interested in reading it.

Our Mission Center continues to reach out to the Migrants and Hispanics in our area. Robin Chapman and his wife, Edith, are laboring long and hard in this difficult area of ministry. It was my privilege to participate in the ordination of Robin on February 15, 1987 at Love Memorial Church. It was also my privilege to witness a worship service at Love Memorial Church where Robin baptized six adult Hispanics into the Kingdom of God. Robin also preached in Spanish and English that night. It was a very moving service both for the migrants and for the people of Love Church.

Our finances this year have been good and I want to thank you for your increased interest and support of the Neuse Baptist Mission endeavors. I would also like to thank the many churches that have participated in gathering food, clothing, health and infant kits, and many other things for the Mission Center. I would like to encourage each church to strive to contribute a minimum of four percent of undesignated offerings to Associational Missions. If you will, my, what God could do with you and me with the funds that would be available.

I took the largest group of Keyleaders ever to Ridgecrest in May and we had a very good time of training. As a matter of fact, through our group meeting there, we changed the Keyleadership Conference in our association to a one night type session with the same eight conferences taught twice that night. We tried it this year and will evaluate it and see if any changes are needed for 1988.

I still do a lot of dreaming. God has blessed our association especially when we have visions and dreams and are willing to step out on faith. I would like to see our association pay off the remaining indebtedness on our office building. This would mean more of our funds could go for misison outreach. We owe only about $16,000 and with each church helping, this could be accomplished, I believe, in a short period of time. Can you imagine the interest that would be saved if we would do this. It could also mean a step toward a more efficient Associational Center Building that could fill our needs for space and involvement in the future.

The Associational Mission Sunday and offering this year were somewhat disappointing. It is because some of our churches gave an extra $1,000 that we are able to continue with our Mission Center and mission pastor through 1988. It will take a better effort in 1988 to continue this program in the future. We are looking at making some changes in the effort for 1988 that might help. You will hear more about this later.

I appreciate serving as your Director of Missions and pray that God will use me more in helping our churches. We had a rash of resignations in the last summer, but are working to fill each vacancy.

Sunday School Report

Where has the time gone? It doesn't seem possible that we are once again drawing near the time for annual reporting. Our Sunday School emphasis for this year has been focused primarily on the Challenge 10/90 Growth Campaign, held in September, that involved 13 of our churches in studying and working toward numerical growth as well as planning for better Bible teaching.

We were also involved in other activities such as the Training School held this year at New Hope Baptist Church and some of us attended the "Church Growth Through the Sunday School Conference" held in Clinton earlier in the year. Yet, throughout the year there appeared to be a lack of excitement and expectancy in every phase of our associational Sunday School work. For the most part, our 37 churches have failed to take full advantage of the best tool we have for church growth. Although every one of our churches has a Sunday School there is a wide difference between a church having a Sunday School and a church using a Sunday School. For Sunday School is truly the "reaching" arm of every Baptist church and churches who use this organization as it lends itself to be used will experience growth, both numerically and spiritually.

Arthur Flake wrote something back in 1922 that everyone of our Baptist Churches needs to reconsider today. He said, "Building a great Sunday School is not dependent upon the school's location." That's true! People will not voluntarily attend our Sunday Schools in large numbers. They never have. They never will. Remember, they do not come; they must be brought.

Most of our churches do not experience Sunday School growth and the total, overall growth of the church because they make no real effort to bring it about. Consider your own church for a moment. If you were to enroll every resident member in Sunday School how much would it increase your enrollment; 20 percent, 30 percent, or perhaps even 50 percent?

Whether your church is in a rural setting or located in the center of the city, it can grow and, indeed, it must grow, if we are to be about our Father's business of reaching people for our Lord Jesus Christ!

Respectfully submitted,
Tom Waits, ASSISTeam Leader

Constitution and Bylaws Committee Report

The Constitution and Bylaws Committee does not have any recommendations to present to the association this year. If there are changes, updating or new items to be added to the association's Constitution and Bylaws, please convey this to the Director of Missions or to the chairman of the committee early in the associational year so proper consideration and action may be taken.

Missions Committee Report

When you hear the word MISSIONS, what goes through your mind? Generally we think money! The Cooperative Program, Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions, Annie Armstrong Offering for Home Missions, North Carolina State Mission Offering or maybe even a "Week of Prayer" and an offering for Associational Missions! All of these are GOOD thoughts about missions and we hope things YOU have put into practice to UNDERGIRD MISSION SUPPORT.

There are some other thoughts that go through our minds as we hear the word MISSIONS. We think of our time, talents and our energies and are forced to ask ourselves the question "How are we personally involved" in sharing Jesus Christ and His message of redeeming love. While we wait, our world goes RUSHING to an eternal hell with no knowledge of God's redeeming love provided through Jesus Christ. Each of us MUST become PERSONNALLY INVOLVED in the mission of the church.

We love the story about the man who was about to be baptized and made the church wait for him to go get his wallet so it could be baptized with him. We mention this so that you will know that we are not minimizing mission support.

There is one area of mission responsibility that Neuse Association is really neglecting. We are NOT reaching enough of OUR YOUTH for MISSIONARY SERVICE. Also the ones who feel led are not being encouraged and/or nurtured as they should. We, therefore, recommend that a GROUP be organized for all youth committed to FULL-TIME CHURCH-RELATED VOCATIONS for fellowship and sharing. We suggest the group be named "TORCH-BEARERS" and pray that we shall encourage them to let their torches (lives) burn bright for MISSIONS both here and now and wherever God chooses to use them.

This year Bob Watson of our Baptist State Convention staff spoke to our pastors and pointed out " projected population growth" for our geographical area. He pointed out specific areas where new work should be started, some as soon as possible. We hope our Missions Committee will be encouraged to actively search for new areas where land might be purchased for new work to begin.

An endowment trust fund, ET FUND, has been set up for Neuse Association by the Baptist Foundation of the North Carolina State Convention. Several families are contributing already, which in return will provide perpetual funds for associational missions. One family has it written in their will and another contributes a small monthly amount - two examples of ways to participate.

Missions! Our mission is "make sure everyone has heard the Good News of Jesus and had an invitation and given opportunity to respond." Missions! We have been commissioned by Jesus with the great commission, Matt. 28:19, 20. Missions! We must give account to God and I believe will be judged on basis of our response. "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. But he that doeth the will of my Father which is in Heaven." Matthew 7:21.

Mission Center Report

We have had a full, exciting year as missionaries to the Hispanics of the NBA area. We arrived on the field in the middle of September 1986. At that time there were about six weeks of the migrant season left. We spent that time getting to know the migrants and the area. In November, we began to meet with a small group for Bible Study and worship on Sunday afternoons. Sunday morning was reserved as a time to speak in the churches of the NBA. We have spoken to 26 of the association's churches so far. Through the winter and spring the group continued to grow and mature. In June, six were baptized in a bilingual service at Love Memorial Church.

In May the migrant season brought many more people to our services. Many of our churches participated by bringing refreshments to be served after the services. Churches also became more involved in the Church and Community Ministries (CCM) aspect of the Mission Center's activities. They helped by providing food, clothes, health kits, snack packs, sewing kits, "Use Me" books, first aid kits and other useful items. A storage building was provided by Love Memorial and has been in use all summer. Through contributions we were able to buy a used army tent to hold services in. Glen Raven Church donated their church bus which was helpful in providing transportation to and from church at the Mission Center.

During the summer two mission groups; one, Acteens from Alabama and one, youth from Gastonia, North Carolina, came to devote a week of their time to serving in Neuse Association. They were hosted by Falling Creek and Love Memorial. They held Backyard Bible Clubs, did manual labor and helped in all the activities of the Mission Center.

As we come to the close of the 1986-87 year, we would like to thank the individuals and churches of Neuse Association who have shared their time and talent and resources to make this a successful year.

Music Report

During the years 1985 and 1986, 22 out of 37 churches in our association had an increase in their music ministry enrollment and attendance. Our Lord Jesus Christ is magnified through our music and it is exciting to see growth in so many of our churches continuing into 1987.

This year we are trying to reach the smaller church that has a limited music ministry. While being careful not to influence the individual churches' philosophy we are sharing ideas and music that has been successful in our own church situations.

On March 19, a Children's Choir Worker Clinic was held in Adamsville Church. State approved music worker, Sandy Rushing from Wilmington, was the clinician. There were 20 children's choir directors present and excitement mounted as Sandy shared ideas and techniques that have been successful in many churches.

Our Associational Music Reading Clinic with our state music secretary, Charles Story, was rescheduled for November 16, 1987. Our churches are excited about this event also, for it will be a great help in finding appropriate music. Ministers of Music of Neuse Baptist Association met at Adamsville on October 25 and formed a choir to sing at associational meetings and functions.

Upcoming plans for 1988 include: Senior Adult Dinner and Songfest which will be co-sponsored by the N.A.B.S,; - Volunteer/Part-time Music Director Workshop, February 25; - Children's Choir Worker Clinic, February 25; - Adult Choir Festival, March 17.

We praise the Lord for what he is going to do through our music next year in our association.

Doug Beasley, Music Chairman

Ordination Committee Report

The Neuse Baptist Association Ordination Committee received one (1) request for examination during this past associational year. The request was as follows:

1. Love Memorial Baptist Church, Goldsboro, requested an examination for Robin Chapman, our Mission Center Minister. Robin was examined by our committee plus other participating ministers. Robin was unanimously and enthusiastically approved for ordination. The ordination service was held later at Love Memorial Baptist Church.

Brotherhood Report

The Baptist Brotherhood was born on May 20, 1907, so you can see it is not a young organization. By action of the Southern Baptist Convention in 1954, the Brotherhood was assigned the responsibility for the work of the Royal Ambassadors. The Baptist Men's program has continued to grow and we can see the results of this growth in the Neuse Baptist Association. Since October 1, 1986, I have visited 7 of our churches. All of these churches had a Brotherhood program going and a lot of enthusiasm was being shown in the Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador programs. During my visits I found churches involved in mission work by having Baptist Men and RA boys ministering to nursing homes, helping in projects of assisting the elderly and handicapped in yard maintenance and repairs to their homes. Adamsville Baptist Men are holding prison services at Wayne Correctional Center the third Thursday each month and as a result of this ministry, souls are being saved and inmates are rededicating their lives at each service. Some of the churches that I visited were interested in the different types of literature available through the Brotherhood Department, BSC, and I was able to share with them and give necessary forms for ordering materials. I advised them that materials may be ordered by telephone, toll free by calling, 1-800-238-5917.

I attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May 1987 and received information concerning the NEW Brotherhood materials being implemented on October 1,1987. A training program for Brotherhood Leaders was held at Kennedy Home in October 1986 and was well attended. We still have a number of our churches without a Brotherhood program. The Baptist Men's President, RA Director and myself are available to help you in any way we can. Please don't hesitate to call on us.

If you have not started a Brotherhood program in your church, I encourage you to start thinking about it and let us help you. If you are looking for a program to present at a Brotherhood meeting, the Associational Office has current Foreign Mission and Home Mission video tapes with updated, interesting information and news. They are available for you to use just by calling and reserving a date. Equipment can be checked out likewise. Also, the NBA office has a complete set of the NEW Brotherhood materials that you can review and determine the ones you would be interested in.

BAPTIST MEN REPORT

With the help of the Baptist Men of Spilman Memorial and Neuse Churches, we built a fence at the Agriculture Mission Farm at Campbell University. I attended Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May 1987; presented programs at Emmaus, Falling Creek, Rivermont and Adamsville Baptist Churches during the year. I assisted with the Brotherhood Training Program held at Kennedy Home Church. I attended the Baptist Men's Board meeting at Camp Caraway in February 1987. I attended Baptist Men's Board meeting at Caswell (North Carolina Baptist Assembly) in September 1987. I also assisted the Brotherhood Director throughout the year.

ROYAL AMBASSADOR REPORT

This year was a very meaningful one in the Royal Ambassador program of our association. A record number of boys participated in the program and the training of church leadership was also accomplished in more churches. In keeping with the suggestions of the Brotherhood Commission, I organized an Associational Royal Ambassador Committee. The committee was directed by me and I feel that it will be a vital and necessary part of Brotherhood work in the Neuse Association.

The Annual RA Conclave at Eagle's Nest was cancelled because of inclement weather. There was a good program slated and it will be used next year. In October we held our annual training session for all Brotherhood Departments. The Royal Ambassador workshop was very well received and we had two areas of concentration: Crusaders and Pioneers. One of these was taught by a specialist provided by the Baptist State Convention and the other was taught by the RA Director.

Royal Ambassador Week was observed by the churches of our association in the month of November. Various activities were executed in observance of this week of recognition for RA's.

On January 31, 1987, the Annual Brotherhood Recognition Banquet was held at Vermillions Buffet in Kinston. Approximately 50 persons were present. Entertainment was provided by Richard and Mitch Poteat of Neuse Church. A good time was had by all.

In February the Associational Car Competition/Missions Fair was held at Madison Avenue Baptist Church. Catagories of competition were Grades 1-2, 3-4, 5-6. In order to race the car that the boy and dad made, there had to be a Missions Fair exhibit entry. Winners were: Grades 1-2, Ethan Sellers of Goldsboro First; Grades 3-4, Neil Hill of Spilman; and Grades 5-6, Matthew Garrett of Spilman. The boys were eligible to attend the State Congress at Winston-Salem.

The Associational RA/GA/Acteen Trackmeet was held at South Lenoir High School in Deep Run. Pioneer boys were eligible to attend the State Trackmeet at Gardner-Webb College in May. Many thanks are to be extended to Coach Jimmy Smith of Deep Run Church, also a coach at South Lenior High School.

Woman's Missionary Union Report

Woman's Missionary Union theme for the year 1986-87 was "Gifted to Serve; Called to Act." This emphasis was to challenge and equip church members to identify and use their gifts in ministry and witness. The watchword: "Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in the various forms." (I Peter 4:10 NIV)

WMU of Neuse Association accepted the call to act and has been busy promoting missions education in the churches by growth in membership, mission studies, mission support and mission action. A goal was set to reach 200 new members by October 1, 1987. Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, Annie Armstrong Easter Offering and State Missions Offering were promoted. World Hunger received more money this year than usual. This too is a great cause and a great mission.

The Associational WMU Council has met regularly this year. The council earned Distinguished, having reached all goals on the achievement guide - this being the fourth year of recognition.

There are two churches, Pikeville and Adamsville, who earned Standard level of achievement this year. Congratulations!

A Mission Study Institute was planned by Baptist Women Director Nancy Wilkie and was held on September 25, 1986 at Kennedy Home Church - 15 attended.

A joint WMU and Brotherhood Prayer Retreat was held at North Carolina Baptist Assembly Fort Caswell on October 24-26, 1986. Thanks to Buck Hill for getting Harry and Betty Dent from Columbia, South Carolina as retreat leaders and for giving them a most gracious love gift. May God bless Buck in all he does for sharing and caring for others in his Baptist Men's work.

An association-wide observance of the Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer was held at Kennedy Home, November 3, 1986. An inspirational program was presented by Baptist Women from the different churches. An offering of $100 was taken and sent to the women's division of the Baptist World Alliance.

Association-wide WMU mission action project collected $255 and during December mailed it to the Women's Correctional Center in Raleigh. (Each church was asked to give $10.) We always receive a nice thank you note from the women there for our support and love. A "Thank Offering" of $50 was sent to the WMU, SBC in Birmingham, Alabama to help pay off the debt on their new building by 1988. We gave Robin Chapman, Mission Center Pastor, a check for $25 at our Annual Session to assist him in his work with the migrants.

Mary Knott, Assistant WMU Director, attended Key Leadership at Ridgecrest. WMU did not have a conference in the associational Key Leadership this year since we devote a longer time on another night just for WMU officers and leader training. All WMU Council members attended the regional workshop held at Kinston First Baptist Church, August 9, 1987. WMU Leadership Workshop was September 4, 1987, at Kennedy Home with 9 separate conferences held and 78 people in attendance. Twenty churches were represented and bookstore supplies were on hand to see and buy.

Mission Friends rally was March 21, 1987 at Kennedy Home - theme was "My World and Me" (58 present from 5 churches). Girls in Action Rally was held February 28, 1987 at New Hope Church - theme "Cooking for Missions" (39 present). Acteens had an "Acteen Fiesta" at Madison Avenue Church, Goldsboro on November 15, 1986 with 70 present from 11 churches. I attended 2 rallies, missed the GA Rally due to husband's illness. Thanks to each director for their leadership and support and well-planned rallies.

I have attended and given reports at all AC meetings. A Prayer Breakfast was held January 16, 1987 at the Kinston First Baptist Church with 135 attending. Special music included a handbell solo and guest speaker was Gene Miller. Thanks to Mary Knot for helping with the unfinished details.

Two of our Associational WMU Council members, Jean Kirk and Kathryn Waits, attended the State WMU Convention, March 27-28 at Ridgecrest. On April 2, 1987, Neuse Association WMU Annual Spring Meeting was held at LaGrange First Church. The theme was "Gifted to Serve, Called to Act." Guest speaker was retired missionary to Nigeria, Carol Leigh Humphries. Installation service for Associational WMU Council was led by Rev. Bill Brown and Rev. Bobbie H. Belcher. Amy Ramsaur was in charge of the special music, LaGrange church won the banner for having the most members present. Oved 20 churches were represented and 117 present.

The migrant ministry has been on everyone's heart to help when Robin and Edith needed them. We have a Mission Action Director this year, Ann White. She is busy at work planning and seeking ways for joint efforts to help people.

Let us be "Laborers Together with God." WMU is so very important (mission education for women, girls and preschoolers)!

Thanks for your prayers and letting me serve you as WMU Director.

Vacation Bible School Report

Thanks to Barbara and Gene Warrick and a few others from Falling Creek, for coordinating another VBS at First Corinthian Church in Dudley.

We had a great week August 17-21, 1987. The climate was warm but the study of God's word was greatly received. Mr. Warrick challenged the adults to be BOLD in their Christian faith and witness. We can use a lesson in that through this whole association. Enrollment was 40 with an average attendance of 27.

Another VBS at Caswell Center, Kinston, took place September 21-23, 1987. Usually held in June, this date was chosed to better accommodate the folks there. What a blessing to be involved in sharing God's word with some very special people. We had about 50 each of the three nights for our third VBS at Caswell. The new chapel is wonderfully beautiful and people of Neuse Association and North Carolina can be proud of that.

To all those from the Kinston and Goldsboro churches who participated in this great mission school, I thank you.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeanette Walters, VBS Director

Evangelism Committee Report

Along with other associational leaders, I attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest, May 11-13, 1986. Plans were made for Neuse Associational Key Leadership Conference to be held at Spilman Memorial, Kinston on September 1. The Evangelism Conference (one of eight different conferences) was well attended and three different areas of evangelism outreach for NBA were emphasized by three different individuals.

The most outstanding event of the year was the Freddie Gage "GO TELL" Crusade held in Grainger Stadium at Kinston on August 23-27. The Associational Evangelism Committee met several times laying the ground work and selecting crusade committees. However, in the interest of enlisting other churches from various denominations, the crusade leadership was reorganized on a non-denominational basis. From four to six thousand people attended each evening and there were in excess of 514 professions of faith in Christ and 1,600 other decisions. The expense budget of over $30,000 was raised by the middle of the crusade. An excellent choir of over 200 provided special music. Over 300 counselors were trained before the crusade began. These counselors will continue to be a blessing to our community as they introduce others to Christ. It is our hope that the number of baptisms in the association will be considerably more than last year, when all the reports are in.

One of the opportunities for all of our people to get into an atmosphere of real evangelism each year is to attend our state-wide Evangelistic Crusade at Greensboro during February. Another opportunity that has just come into being is a Down East Evangelism Conference to be held at Caswell Assembly each year. Watch for announcements and make plans to take a large group from your church to these events.

One of the excellent meetings our convention is providing for all who will make reservations and attend is the Christian Study and Fellowship Week at Mars Hill College. This meeting is held around the Fourth of July.

Our Lord has commanded every Christian to be a faithful witness. Let us join our prayers and concerted efforts to reach the thousands who are lost in Neuse Association and the untold millions around the world.

If we are to reach the world for Christ by the year 2000, it will take no less than sacrificial prayer, going and support on the part of each one of us.

Respectfully submitted,
M.O. Sears, Chairman, Earl Lassiter,
Al Wright, Marvin Willis, Paul Womack, Bill Haskins

Resolution Committee Report

Resolution No. 1

IN APPRECIATION OF SOUTHEASTERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Whereas, in 1950 with broad vision and deep commitment, Southern Baptists started their newest venture in theological education; namely, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, North Carolina; and

Whereas, the quality of theological education within the Southern Baptist Convention has been greatly enhanced by the addition of Southeastern Seminary to the other great theological schools of learning; and enhanced by even further the dedicated and committed faculty and administration who have served the mission of our Lord at Southeastern; and

Whereas, our entire Convention has been enriched by those called by God and theologically prepared at Southeastern, and whereas North Carolina and the bordering States have been undergirded by those who have served as student pastors and by professors who have served as Bible Study teachers and as Interim pastors; and

Whereas, our own Neuse Baptist Association has experienced the richness of leadership from those professors and graduates who have ministered in our churches through preaching and teaching; and

Whereas, theological education at Southeastern Seminary has been characterized by the centrality of the Bible as the inspired Word of God, by academic freedom, and led by competent, caring, and committed Christian faculty;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we the Neuse Baptist Association in our Fifty-ninth annual session meeting at First Baptist Church, Snow Hill, North Carolina, October 27, 1987, express our deepest appreciation to the past and present Administration and Faculty of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary for their commitment to the Christian faith as expressed in their dedication to the way of life as revealed in Jesus Christ, our Lord; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we commend the Administration and Faculty for their adherence to the Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention as evidence in their commitment to free and responsible theological education, and in keeping the Bible, the inspired and authoritative Word of God, at the center of their curriculum; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED we in the Fifty-ninth annual session of this Associational meeting commit ourselves to deeper and more fervent prayer for the Administration, Faculty, and Students as they continue their journey in faith for deeper comprehension of and commitment to God's will and purpose; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we give special thanks to God for the fresh and invigorating influence which Southeastern Baptist Seminary has had in our Associational life and ministry, and that we commit ourselves to giving constructive support in Christian love to Southeastern Seminary; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we send a copy of these resolutions to the President, Dean of Faculty, Chairman of the Trustees of Southeastern, to the Biblical Recorder, and that a copy of them be made permanent in our Associational Records.

Resolution No. 2

Whereas, the Neuse Baptist Association has met for its 59th Annual Meeting on October 26 and 27, 1987, and has found inspiration, information and Christian Fellowship in that experience:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That we express our sincere appreciation to Calvary Baptist Church, Goldsboro, their pastor, Rev. E.D. Eddins and the members for being such gracious hosts for the Monday evening session, and further that we express appreciation to First Baptist Church, Snow Hill, their pastor, Rev. William Brown, and the members for being such gracious hosts for the Tuesday evening session.

2. That we further express our sincere appreciation to those responsible for planning both of these sessions, giving ample time for both inspiration and business.

3. That we express our appreciation to our Director of Missions, Bobby Belcher, for his capable leadership throughout the year and to our Moderator, Rev. William Brown, and our Vice Moderator, Doug Joyner, for the splendid way in which they conducted both sessions of the annual meeting.

Day Camp Report

The Neuse Baptist Association Day Camp was scheduled to be held July 13-17 at Eagle's Nest. There were many obstacles to overcome in getting ready for this event: materials to select and secure, publicity, facilities to rent, forms to print and distribute, transportation to be arranged, refreshments to be purchased, and the camp had to be staffed.

All of this was routine, except for staff. There were those who are involved in many aspects of associational work who were willing to do still more, and many thanks go out to them. But, a handful could not handle an ever-growing and expanding populace. We had to cancel due to lack of involvement from adults; there were plenty of kids. Also the large majority of camper registrations came after the deadline date.

Decisions for Christ were made last year and many visible seeds planted. I hope we have not done what Jesus forbade: "Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me..."

I plead for your support of the Day Camp and of the new director another year.

Respectfully submitted,
Bobby Hunter, Director

Auditor's Report

We have examined the financial records of the Neuse Baptist Association for the period from January 1, 1986, through December 31, 1986, and have prepared the accompanying statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances, except that no verification was made beyond their records.

In our opinion, with the exception stated in the preceding paragraph, the accompanying statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements presently fairly the cash position for the period then ended.

Constitution

of the

ARTICLE I. NAME

This body shall be known as the Neuse Baptist Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association shall be to devise, recommend and promote measures of increasing the harmony and spiritual power of the cooperating churches, to assist in developing and directing their energies, resources and gifts in advancing the Redeemer's Kingdom, and to cooperate with the Baptist Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in all religious, educational, missions, Sunday School, Church Training, Brotherhood, Women's Missionary Union and other work fostered by the said convention.

The Neuse Baptist Association is a non-profit organization and no profit shall inure to any individual connected with the organization except in consideration for services rendered. In the event of dissolution of the Association, all assets would be conveyed to the churches of the Neuse Baptist Association.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Membership in the body shall be composed of all pastors and duly elected messengers of the cooperating churches.

SECTION 2. Each church shall be represented, at the annual meeting of the Association and at any special meeting during the year, by messengers who shall be duly certified, in the following ratio: Each church with a membership of not more than one hundred members (100) shall be entitled to five (5) messengers. Churches having more than one hundred (100) members shall be entitled to an additional messenger for every additional one hundred (100) members or a major fraction thereof, providing that no church shall have more than twelve (12) messengers.

SECTION 3. New churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association must make written application to the Missions Committee not later than one month prior to the last meeting of the Associational Council prior to the annual meeting of the Association, giving evidence of their faith and order, and their agreement to cooperate in the general program of the Association, the Baptist Convention of North Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Convention. The Missions Committee shall study applications and make recommendations to the Associational Council regarding same, and in turn, the Associational Council shall make its recommendations to the annual meeting of the Association for its action.

SECTION 4. All new missions and new churches should be sponsored by a local church or churches.

SECTION 5. The Association shall have power, upon given written notice of nine (9) months and by two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of messengers present and voting, to withdraw fellowship from any church that willfully departs from orthodox principles of the Christian religion as taught in the Southern Baptist churches or that fails to represent itself either by messenger or by letter at the annual session of the Association without sufficient reason or that fails to support causes fostered by the denomination at large and of this association in particular or that ceases to be missionary in practice.

SECTION 6. Any church may decline to send messengers to the Association at its pleasure. Whenever this constitutes a withdrawal of fellowship on the part of the church, the Association shall not as a body, or through a representative or representatives, seek to restrain by coercion or by law the withdrawal action of the church.

ARTICLE IV. MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The Association shall convene annually on the fourth Monday and Tuesday nights in October and may meet with different churches on the two (2) successive days.

SECTION 2. The time of the annual meetings may be changed, or special meetings called, by the Associational Council upon notice to the cooperating churches.

ARTICLE V. FISCAL YEAR

This fiscal year of the Association shall begin on January first (1st) and end on December thirty-first (31st) of each year.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The officers of the Association shall be a Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Historian, the Trustees, the Associational Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, and such others as may be authorized by the Association.

SECTION 2. All officers shall be members of churches affiliated with the Association.

SECTION 3. Nominations for Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, and Brotherhood Director shall be presented to the Associational Council at its spring meeting for approval. These nominees shall then serve as "Officers Elect" until the annual meeting of the Association, at which time they shall be considered for election by the Association. Nominees for all other officers shall be presented at the annual meeting. Any officer may be elected to succeed himself, except the Moderator, who may not serve more than two (2) years in succession. Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Associational Council.

ARTICLE VII. THE ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Associational Council shall consist of each Director of Missions, the immediate Past-Moderator, the representatives of the Denominational agencies, and two (2) lay members from each cooperative church, to be elected by the church. The names of the lay members shall be duly certified by notifying the Associational Clerk.

SECTION 2. The Officers of the Association shall serve as the Officers of the Council.

SECTION 3. The Associational Council shall act for the Association in the interim between annual sessions. It shall carry out the policies and will of the Association, and shall make reports to the Association at its annual meeting. The Associational Council also has the power to fill vacancies among the Officers and Committees of the Association that may occur during the year.

SECTION 4. Twenty (20) members of the Associational Council will constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII. ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1. The Director of Missions shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the Association and the denomination. He shall be nominated by the Missions Committee to the Associational Council, and elected by the Association at any annual session, or by the Associational Council if the next annual session of the Association is thirty (30) days or more beyond the date on which the Director of Missions is nominated.

ARTICLE IX. COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. That the Nominating Committee has the responsibility to offer nominations to the annual meeting for members and chairmen of all Standing Committees herein provided except those already named by the Constitution.

SECTION 2. The Association shall have the Standing Committees listed below, along with other committees authorized by the Association. These committees shall begin their duties at the close of the annual session, and shall make reports of their work to the Associational Council. Members of the committee shall be selected from the membership of those churches cooperating with the Association and are subject to re-election provided, that in no case, any person shall serve on the same committee longer than three (3) years in succession with the exception of the Music Committee, the Camp Committee and the Senior Citizens Committee. SECTION 3. All Committees will operate on a three (3) year rotating basis, one third (1/3) rotating off each year. In the event of odd numbered Committees, then the smaller number of Committee members will be rotated off in the first two (2) years and the greater number shall rotate off in the third (3rd) year.

ARTICLE X. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CHURCH

Each cooperating church shall send annually to the Association a report on the Associational Letter which is provided. Said reports should reach the Associational Clerk not later than October 15 of that year.

ARTICLE XI. SPECIAL DAYS

The fourth (4th) Sunday of May of each year shall be designated as "Association Day" in all churches for the purpose of receiving an offering for the Missionary activities of the Association, such as church building lots, facilities for missions, rentals, Director of Missions.

ARTICLE XII. ADOPTION OF CONSTITUTION

This Constitution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption and shall supersede any and all constitutions previously adopted.

ARTICLE XIII. AMMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

This constitution may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association provided the amendment has been presented in writing to the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws not later than September 1, and presented to the October meeting of the Associational Council, and read on two successive days of the annual meeting, and receives a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the messengers present at the second meeting.

Bylaws

"The work of the Association shall be governed by the following Bylaws."

ARTICLE I - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

SECTION 1. THE MODERATOR shall preside over the annual meeting of the Association and begin each session punctually. He shall appoint such committees as may be authorized by the Constitution, or the Association, enforce the rules, preserve order, and exercise all prerogatives of a presiding officer according to parliamentary usage, and serve as chairman of the Associational Council, and ex officio member of all standing committees.

SECTION 2. THE VICE-MODERATOR shall discharge the duties of the Moderator in his absence and serve as chairman of the Calendar Committee.

SECTION 3. THE CLERK shall keep the records of the proceedings of the Association, superintend the printing and distribution of the minutes, keep on file the printed minutes and other important papers of the Association and shall serve as Secretary of the Associational Council. For services, the Clerk shall be paid an amount to be determined annually by the Association.

They shall also present nominations to the Associational Council to fill any vacancy which may occur during the year.

SECTION 3. THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM shall be composed of five (5) members who shall cooperate with the State Chairman of Evangelism in the promotion of approved evangelistic efforts within the Association. It shall encourage evangelism in the churches, especially where the need is apparent, and shall help provide evangelistic services in the un-churched areas within the boundaries of the Association.

SECTION 4. THE COMMITTEE ON ORDINATION shall be composed of three (3) members who shall act in an advisory capacity for churches. The committee shall assist any church which requests its services in the examination of candidates for the Christian ministry. It shall help arrange, where necessary, proper services of ordination. Churches are requested to use this committee to examine candidates only after their call to some specific work. Further, churches are requested to refrain from announcing the date of ordination until after the candidate has received approval by this committee.

SECTION 5. THE COMMITTEE ON PLACE AND PREACHER shall be composed of three (3) members, whose duty it shall be to receive or solicit invitations for the place of meeting of the annual session for the following year, and to recommend to the Association in annual session, a place or places of meeting, along with a preacher and alternate for the sermon for the following year.

SECTION 6. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS shall be composed of three (3) members and shall review all resolutions referred to it by the Association, the Associational Council, or the Planning Committee, and report suitable resolutions at the annual meeting.

SECTION 7. THE COMMITTEE ON STEWARDSHIP shall be composed of eight (8) members - one from each of the counties of Duplin, Green, Lenoir, and Wayne, and one at large, plus the Moderator, Treasurer and Director of Missions. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The committee shall hear and give consideration to requests of the Associational Council and other leaders in the Associational work, and these requests are to be submitted not later than July 1st of each year. The committee shall: offer assistance to the churches in developing an understanding of the commitment to the Biblical concepts of individual and corporate stewardship; promote the challenges and opportunities of the Association for which stewardship resources are needed; increase world missions understanding by promoting the Cooperative Program, the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions and Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions, the Homes and Hospital Offering, State Missions Offering and the Neuse Baptist Association Mission Offering; develop and promote a budget to accomplish the ministries of the Association; administer an accounting system that assures sound procedures for collecting, safeguarding, and disbursing funds; make a financial report to the Associational Council; and have a professional audit made of the Treasurer's books and make a report to the Association in its annual meeting.

SECTION 8. THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS shall be composed of five (5) members whose duties it shall be to ascertain the need of new churches within the boundaries of the Association; to recommend to the Associational Council the location of sites and the purchasing of lots for such churches and to assist the organization of such churches as might be authorized. Churches contemplating making debts on lots, buildings, improvements and/or asking for Pastor's aid, must have the recommendation of the Missions Committee and approval of the Associational Council if they expect to apply to the Baptist State Mission Board for aid in paying for the same. It shall be the duty of the Missions Committee to study the applications of churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association as to evidence of their faith and order, and their agreement to cooperate in the general program of the Association, the Baptist State Convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention.

The Committee shall then make recommendations to the Associational Council regarding same.

SECTION 9. THE COMMITTEE ON MUSIC shall be composed of three (3) members who shall cooperate with the Music Department of the State Convention and shall assist in any music program approved by the Association. The Chairman shall also serve as Associational Music Director.

SECTION 10. THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN LIFE shall be composed of three (3) members who shall work with local and State Officials in every phase of promoting civic righteousness.

SECTION 11. THE COMMITTEE ON CAMP ACTIVITIES shall be composed of three (3) members. The Chairman shall serve as Camp Director. The duties of the committee shall be to plan and execute the summer camp.

SECTION 12. THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS shall be composed of three (3) members who shall receive all proposed changes thereto and, upon study of this or other observations, making recommendations to the Association on all Constitution and Bylaw changes.

SECTION 13. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS consisting of three (3) members shall plan for our beloved dead a memorial service to be conducted during the annual session of the Association.

SECTION 14. THE COMMITTEE ON SENIOR CITIZENS shall consist of five (5) members and shall plan a program of ministry for Senior Citizens on the Associational level.

SECTION 15. THE COMMITTEE ON PASTOR/CHURCH RELATIONS shall be composed of five (5) members, with one (1) retired minister, two (2) active ministers, and two (2) laypersons and the Director of Missions serving as ex officio member. The members of this committee shall be elected annually by the Associational Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Director of Missions. A vacancy shall be filled by the Associational Executive Committee upon the recommendation of the Director of Missions. It shall meet as needed. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The principal function of this committee shall be to promote better relations between churches and their pastors, and advise and consult with pastors and/or church members upon their request. This committee shall also seek ways of improving communications between congregations and their ministers and help member churches find ways of easing tensions and keeping open lines of communications.

SECTION 16. THE COMMITTEE ON PROPERTIES AND EQUIPMENT shall be composed of six (6) members. The officers shall consist of a chairman and a secretary. It shall: oversee the upkeep and needs of the Associational building(s) and ground(s); periodically inspect and inventory the Associational properties and equipment; make recommendations regarding improvements, updating, maintenance, and adequate insurance coverage; develop and recommend a program of upkeep and preventive maintenance; develop and recommend policies and procedures for using Associational facilities and equipment; develop job descriptions and recommend contracting for maintenance and upkeep personnel; request and administer a maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget; and report to the Associational Council and at the Association's annual meeting.

SECTION 17. THE ASSOCIATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE shall be composed of the Associational Officers, the Department Directors, the Committee Chairmen, and the Director of Missions who will serve as chairman. This committee will assist the Director of Missions in planning, coordinating and implementing the program of the Association. They will meet on a quarterly basis or as needed.

ARTICLE III - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The officers of the Council shall be the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, and the Clerk of the Association.

SECTION 2. The Associational Council shall hold an organizational meeting within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting, and shall set up the following subcommittees, and any other deemed necessary for the proper handling of Associational business between the annual sessions:

THE CALENDAR COMMITTEE: This committee shall be composed of the officers of the Association, the President of the Ministers' Conference, and the Director of Missions. (It shall be the duty of this Committee to plan and recommend to the Associational Council at the annual session of the Association, a Calendar of Activities for the coming year. The Vice-Moderator shall serve as chairman.)

SECTION 3. The Council shall meet every other month (except July and August). The first meeting shall be held within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting. Time and places of these meetings shall be determined by the Council.

SECTION 4. The Council shall submit to the Association in annual session a full and complete Budget, Calendar of Activities, and a full and complete report of its work.

ARTICLE IV - RULES OF ORDER

The following rules shall govern deliberations in the meeting of the Association and the Associational Council.

SECTION 1. The official transaction of business in all regular meetings of the Association and the Associational Council shall be by the affirmative majority vote of the members present and voting, except in matters relating to the Constitution, the withdrawing of fellowship from any cooperating church, and the seating of messengers from those churches desiring to cooperate with the Association. In called meetings of the Associational Council, a number equal to the majority of the membership of the Associational Council and representing a majority of the cooperating churches shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

SECTION 2. A messenger wishing to speak shall rise and address the presiding officer. He shall confine himself to the question under consideration and shall avoid all personalities. No messenger shall speak more than twice on the same subject without special permission.

SECTION 3. All motions seconded shall be definitely stated by the presiding officer or at his request, read by the clerk before the vote is taken.

SECTION 4. When a question is under consideration, no other motion or proposition shall be received except a motion to adjourn, lay on the table, to amend, to commit, to postpone, to a definite time. When there are several motions, they shall have preference in the order in which they come.

SECTION 5. The general business of the Association shall be recommended by the Committee on Order of Business at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting of the Association. When adopted this report shall become the order of business for the members and cannot be changed except by the vote of the Association.

SECTION 6. All questions of order not herein provided for shall be decided by Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE V - ADOPTION OF BYLAWS

SECTION 1. These Bylaws shall take effect immediately upon their adoption, and shall supersede any and all Bylaws previously adopted.

SECTION 2. These Bylaws may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association provided the amendment has been presented in writing to the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws no later than September 1, and presented to the October meeting of the Associational Council. Passage shall be by majority vote of the messengers present and voting.

Proceedings

FIRST SESSION - MONDAY EVENING

1. The 60th Annual Session of the Neuse Baptist Association was called to order by Moderator, Douglas Joyner, at 7:00 p.m., October 23, 1988, at Falling Creek Baptist Church, Goldsboro, North Carolina.

2. To open the session, Doug Beasley, Associational Music Director, led the congregation in singing "Send a Great Revival."

3. Pastor of the host church, Rev. Daniel Benfield, read scripture and led in prayer.

4. Rev. Benfield extended a welcome to those present. He also invited everyone to stay for refreshments and fellowship following this session.

BUSINESS SESSION

5. On behalf of the Committee on the Order of Business, the Moderator declared the program, as printed would be followed as the Order of Business for both sessions unless changes became necessary.

6. Mr. Joyner asked if there were any visitors outside the association other than those on the program. There were none.

7. The Clerk, Mrs. Ellen Hawley, made motion that those present constitute this 60th Session of Neuse Baptist Association. Seconded and carried.

8. The Calendar of Activities for 1989 was presented by Director of Missions, Rev. Bobbie H. Belcher, and made a motion it be accepted as printed with one correction, NABS meeting on 10/19/89. Motion seconded and carried.

9. Rev. Belcher recognized all new pastors and new staff members in the association.

10. The Clerk presented the summary of the Associational Council Meetings as printed in the Book of Reports. Motion made that it be accepted as printed. Motion seconded and carried.

11. Moderator asked for other miscellaneous business.

12. At this time Rev. Belcher recognized Mrs. Jean Kirk, Associational Secretary, who has served in this area for the past 10 years. His remarks concerning her performance, valuable asset to this association, very dependable. Jean was presented a plaque and a check for $100.

13. Moderator commented at this time on behalf of the association and made these remarks. Jean is invaluable, tremendous, dedicated, good, faithful. She does all that is asked of her and then some. She goes more than the second mile. What better tribute could be made to a person than made tonight by Rev. Belcher and Mr. Joyner.

14. As Clerk, I would like to add, Jean being the person she really is, deserves all this and more. She really is a tremendous person.

15. Doug Beasley led the congregation in singing "Set My Soul Afire."

16. Due to Doug Beasley's laryngitis, Mrs. Elaine Johnson, member of Adamsville Church, sang "People Need the Lord" as special music, in place of duet by Doug and Jolene Beasley as printed in the programs.

17. Later in the session, Mrs. Joeann Ault presented special music, "Do You Really Care." What a beautiful way these two ladies have to spread God's message through song.

18. Moderator introduced the first speaker of the evening, Dr. Roy Smith, Executive Director/Treasurer of NC Baptist State Convention. He spoke on the theme: "Missionary at Heart," from the state convention perspective. Dr. Smith expressed his appreciation for the opportunity to come and speak. He stated that the association is the most important part in Baptist life other than the congregation. It's closest to the churches. The association is the first extension of the churches concern in the ministry of evangelism and outreach. It's here that we learn fellowship, missions and missions involved. Dr. Smith reminisced his involvement of his early years with associational work. He used Acts 13:1-4 as background for his message.

He asked the question, "Who is a missionary? Simply put, one who is sent or goes out on a mission." He stated missions started in the heart of God long before the missions of Paul and Barnabas. God began the process of Christian missions and in the fullness of time and throughout the life of Jesus, God's Son, God's missionary to the world, who acknowledged this by stating, "The Father hath sent me." "The Son of Man hath come to seek and to save that which was lost." "The Son of Man hath come not to be ministered to but to minister."

Dr. Smith's message was encouragement to all of us to reach out and be about the needs around us, to be the missionaries we have been called to be. Get missions and churches started. He expressed disappointment that NC Baptists have let so many opportunities slip through their hands and did not plant the kind of churches we believe to be New Testament kind of churches. He is a loving and concerned person who wants the very best for North Carolina Baptists. He stated that God has given us the greatest opportunity the world has ever had, the doors are open wider today than they have been in a long, long time or may be in the near future even. As "Missionaries at Heart" we need to be "missionaries in practice" to do God's will and accomplish His will in our lives.

19. Following Dr. Smith's message, Moderator Joyner asked the committee chairpersons to come forward to present their reports and that the reports be accepted as printed in the "Book of Reports" as information unless there is a motion that we do otherwise.

(a) EVANGELISM, Rev. Bill Haskins, stated some churches have had some outstanding reports in evangelism. He recognized the churches who had outstanding baptismal records in 1988: Adamsville, Rosewood, Snow Hill First, and Fremont. Rev. Haskins challenged all the pastors and laymen through the "Year of the Laity" and said every church can double their baptisms in the next year by scheduling a "Lay Evangelism School." He reported that dates of January 12, 19, and 24, 1989, have been set by the Evangelism Dept. of the BSC for training our Steering Committee for the 1990 simultaneous revivals "Here's Hope." If we are to be effective in reaching the lost and unchurched, we need to be involved now and take full advantage of every opportunity for the excitement in store for 1989-1990. A motion was made, seconded and carried to accept the three dates.

(b) BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES, Rev. Bill Morrow, Director at Kennedy Home, thanked the people who took the time and cared enough to give to the support of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. He stated most of the children have not had church experience and he feels as the other staff members of the homes feel that the theme "missionary at heart" has been the theme of B.C.H. for a long time. The main purpose of the children's homes is to help children from broken homes and who need the love and care that others can give. The staff seeks to demonstrate Christianity and to teach and share the love of God in Christ Jesus. They also share with the parents. He stated that through the preaching of Rev. M.O. Sears, as guest minister at Kennedy Home Church, they had recently experienced real revival and what a great blessing it was and effects are continuing. Rev. Morrow invited anyone who would like, to come for a visit.

(c) DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS, Rev. Bobbie Belcher, presented his report. 1) Asking that any one wishing to go to Sao Paulo, Brazil, pick up a card, fill it out and return it to him. 2) Also the Associational Historian, Mrs. Joeann Ault, asked him to urge each church to get their church history in to her as soon as possible. Also a picture of the church. 3) Last December 1987, the association voted NBA to look into and secure the papers for incorporation. He and Senator Henson Barnes have worked on this and have a copy of the papers for anyone who wishes to look over. 4) Rev. Belcher called everyone's attention to the statistical report as printed in the Book of Reports. 5) Made mention of the area of survey work being carried on in one area of Kinston. 6) He's interested in getting some new work started in the Goldsboro and Kinston area, where there is such great need. 7) Rev. Belcher is very excited about his trip to Sao Paulo, Brazil in March 1988. 8) The World Missions Conference in the spring of 1988 was very good, with 18 churches participating and 17 missionaries sharing with us. 9) This has been a very good year financially, probably the best ever. 10) One major change made was the loss of our migrant pastor, Rev. Robin Chapman, and the gain of our Church and Community Ministries Director, Mrs. Jeanette Walters. She will be working with the migrant program along with the other missions in NBA. 11) Three of D.O.M.'s dreams: First - that we have a good Week of Prayer for Association Missions, October 23-30, 1988, with a good missions offering on October 30. Second - that we begin considering more space for association office. Third - that we become "church planters" and begin new work. Rev. Belcher thanked everyone for all that has been done this past year. He had no recommendations.

(d) MISSIONS COMMITTEE, Chairman Rev. M.O. Sears, 1) recognized Rev. Eugene Warrick for his work in the association with migrant missions. 2) Added his encouragement for a worthy offering October 30 for Associational Missions. 3) Stated further that NBA has moved forward, as suggested by the BSC, and changing the status of "Missions Committee" to a "Council" with representatives from all organizations and three members at large working together providing a greater emphasis on missions. 4) Rev. Sears stated, missions is our main business and we should get involved and follow our Savior who went about doing good. At this time he asked that Jeanette Walters come forward and give a report on what has been done in her area of work since May. Jeanette reported 1) Ministered to 13 camps. 2) Approximately 25 professions of faith made. 3) First annual "pig picking" held on September 17, at Mission Center. Her husband, Larry, cooked the pig and "picked" it. Very good job, Larry! 4) Jeanette thanked everyone who became involved in any way. 5) Two Backyard Bible Clubs associated with our military had four professions of faith. 6) Stated a workshop coming up November 3, in Greenville for pastors and laypersons. 7) We have three state institutions in this association and two private institutions and we have a great opportunity to minister. She shared some of her experiences during these past six months and feels the opportunities we have in missions is "missions at heart" and "missions in practice."

(e) Rev. Eugene Warrick made a few comments concerning his work this summer and thanked everyone for allowing him to do this work and for the support he received.

20. Clerk's report on registration was given for the first session to be 139 registered with 25 churches represented.

21. Rev. Emulon Parker presented the Memorial Service reading from I Thessalonians 4:13-18. After remarks Rev. Parker asked Rev. Johnny Sasser to come forward and offer the memorial prayer.

22. Doug Beasley led the congregation in singing the hymn, "When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder."

23. Director of Missions introduced the second speaker of the evening, Dr. Richard Crapps, Director of Missions of South Roanoke Association, who spoke on the theme "Missionary at Heart" from the association's perspective. He stated it is a joy to say in a small way what Christ can do when we get serious about missions using the resources we have. None of us is left out of the challenge. When we commit ourselves to do something together in the name of the Kingdom, it becomes something as mighty as God wants it to be. The basis of his message was a challenge to all of us to get out and do something for Christ. He used John 4:1-27 as scripture background. Dr. Crapps mentioned several areas of work and the results that have taken place during his service in Eastern North Carolina. He stated he was looking forward to the day when people go all the way with their commitment to serve God. Miracles can happen when people get serious and become involved and it's time people of Eastern North Carolina get serious about God's people and become involved for God's Kingdom and watch the changes and miracles God can perform. In closing he asked the questions "What will you do?" "Do you really care about God's people, the lost and unchurched?"

24. Rev. Vernon Braswell, pastor of Rosewood Baptist Church, gave the benediction.

SECOND SESSION

25. The second session of the 60th Annual Session of NBA was called to order by Moderator Doug Joyner, was held in Immanuel Baptist Church (new building in new location), Kinston, NC, October 25, 1988. Opened with the hymn, "We've a Story to Tell," led by Doug Beasley.

26. Rev. Harold Burton welcomed everyone and asked that all who could, stay for refreshments and fellowship following the meeting. Rev. Burton, host pastor, read from I John 4:7-21, and led in prayer. He recognized all pastors and wives present and introduced his wife and three children.

27. Moderator Joyner, asked that the following organization chairpersons come forward to present their reports. (1) SUNDAY SCHOOL, Director Tom Waits stated the emphasis this year has been "Touch Lives--Change People." January Bible Study Clinic held in Calvary Goldsboro Church. Held four "Growth Spiral Workshops" involving 50 pastors and SS leaders and held one in the Little River Association at Lillington. A basic ASSISTeam was organized in March. The team stands ready to assist any church where needed, with the new emphasis, "Gather the People That They May Hear." This team is made up of trained, experienced people willing to help when and where the call for help comes. (2) VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL, Jeanette Walters stated it was a good year, even though enrollment was down, professions of faith and missions giving were up from last year. She reported that she will not be working in this area anymore, but, Larry Whicker will be serving as VBS Director. She asked that all VBS and Backyard Bible Clubs be reported and make sure they are correct. (3) WMU, Lucy Pittman reported this being the Centennial Year of WMU, a celebration was held in Richmond, Virginia, May 13-14, 1988, with more than 11 thousand women attending. A celebration to remember. She thanked her leaders for their dedication and fine work. Nancy Wilkie represented NBA in the parade at Richmond, carrying the winning associational banner from the Spring Meeting in March at Madison Avenue Baptist Church (made by Trinity Church). The WMU Council was asked to go to West Virginia to teach a region of nine associations the new WMU manuals. Lucy stated this has been a very good year for WMU. (4) BROTHERHOOD, Jim Small called attention to his report in the Book of Reports. His prayer is, a lot more will be accomplished this next year. Striving to start a Baptist Men's Council and there is a need for three additional Brotherhood leaders to serve on this council to help outline a program beginning the first of the year. There are lives being saved and coming to know Christ. He strongly urged men of the association to get involved. (5) ROYAL AMBASSADORS, Director M.B. Jenkins stated a workshop was taught by state leaders. Brotherhood Annual Banquet was January 30, 1988. "Counselor of the Year" award was presented to Mrs. Marie Hill. It was a very productive year. M.B. thanked everyone who took part in this year's activities.

28. Doug Beasley led the congregation in singing the hymn "Send the Light."

29. Gary Chadwick, Youth Director of Adamsville Baptist, sang a solo, "Friend."

30. Director of Missions introduced Dr. Tom Denton, who is pastor of First Baptist Church in New Bern, North Carolina, who spoke on the theme "Missionary at Heart" from the church's perspective. Dr. Denton read scripture from Matthew 16:13-18. This scripture indicates that Christ has established upon the kind of faith and affirmation that Simon Peter has made. "His church," this church, is everlasting. It is eternal. One based upon faith in Jesus Christ. Dr. Denton asked when will we accept and respect this kind of church? He spoke of four models of churches; 1) the castle church - one that is big, super. A temptation of arrogance, pride to say the only way to do church, is the way this church does. Yet the mission of this church is to reach out and minister in a way a lot of other churches cannot. 2) community church - A church most of us are familiar with and feel most comfortable. One that has all the organizations functioning. This also has a mission. To join with other churches to send missionaries throughout the world. To do the things that can best be accomplished by working together. 3) cellular church - where a small group comes together in the name of Christ, where Christ is present. The mission for this church is to meet the personal needs and provide indepth opportunity for growth. 4) converging church - the coming together from different directions and perspectives, reaching the same point or goal.

People going out as individuals to incarnate the Life of Jesus Christ and the ministry and mission of the church. Dr. Denton stated the mission of any church is to proclaim that "Jesus Christ is Lord," wherever we are. As both our speakers for the first session, Dr. Denton encouraged us to be "Missionaries at Heart." He stated all Christians are missionaries and we must be about following Jesus's command, to go out and spread the gospel.

31. CLERK'S REPORT - registration, 122 representing 26 churches.

32. Moderator Joyner asked that organizational chairpersons come forward to present their reports. (1) STEWARDSHIP - Rev. Elwin Melton presented the proposed budget explaining the increase of $4,500 over '87 budget. He asked that each church consider giving a minimum of three percent of its undesignated offerings which would meet this increase. Motion carried. Moderator asked for any questions or discussion. Rev. Lacy Oliver asked that an amendment be made to the motion: Change the secretary salary from $10,400 to $12,000 and raise the annuity to 10 percent of salary which would be from $1,000 to $1,200. This amendment was accepted along with the additional increase of $100 in F.I.C.A. that would be needed as pointed out by Russell Ault. The Budget and Amendment were unanimously accepted.

33. Rev. Melton presented the Mission Center Proposed Budget. A change as pointed out in this budget. F.I.C.A. matching fund from $500 to $950. Accepted.

34. These increases made a difference in total NBA Budget from $71,800 to $73,600. Mission Center Budget from $16,872 to $17,322.

35. The total increase of the Mission Center is due to status of full-time employment of CCM Director, Jeanette Walters, beginning January 1, 1989.

36. It was pointed out that the CCM salary of $12,000 (provided from HMB and BSC) will be reduced by $1,000 per year beginning in 1990, until the base salary of $8,000 is reached.

37. NOMINATING - Rev. Brantley Stevens presented the report as listed in the Book of Reports with one addition: Rev. Lynn Peters, Seminary Extension Director. Rev. Stevens made a motion that this committee report be accepted along with the one addition. Accepted.

38. PLACE AND PREACHER - Rev. Johnny Sasser presented this report. D.O.M. to preach the Annual Sermon. First Session, Monday, October 23, 1989, at Seven Springs Baptist Church, and Second Session, October 24, 1989, at Spilman Memorial Baptist Church in Kinston. Alternate for Annual Sermon, Rev. Frank Sandy. Rev. Sasser moved that this report be accepted. Motion carried.

39. There was no miscellaneous business.

40. Rev. Brantley Stevens, pastor of New Hope, read scripture from Luke 14:16-35 and offered prayer.

41. Before Ben Ramsaur sang he made some statements worthy of printing. 1) The songs he chose were challenges. 2) He saw in this group, people of different ages, from large, medium and small churches, of all constituency, but joined together as one unit. The Body of Christ, serving as one unit, Neuse Baptist Association. United in the name of Christ. 3) Ben praised Rev. Belcher but stated it isn't he for whom we're united, but Jesus Christ. 4) We have a National Convention (SBC) that is hurting and grieving. This also grieves us. His wish is that we could take the unity and the diversity of this congregation and share it with SBC. Ben sang a medley, "Do You Really Care," "Ninety and Nine," and "Spread His Love." Both music specials tonight were beautiful.

42. The Annual Sermon was delivered by Rev. Graham Elmore, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, Goldsboro, who was introduced by Moderator Joyner. Rev. Elmore based his message on the scripture previously read by Rev. Stevens. He stated two areas of a church's duty 1) To get people into the church and, 2) Get these people on down the road. It's harder to get people to stay involved and to keep on keeping on. Throughout Southern Baptists today we have the most hungry, beautiful, disappointed, satisfied and frustrated people in the world. Due to these adjectives, Rev. Elmore asked, "Is there no fruit?" 2) That we bear our cross and follow Jesus. 3) Go out and be bold in our witness to others, of the love of Jesus Christ. He also spoke on the theme "Missionary at Heart" and "Missionary in Practice." His message was one of encouragement to each of us to go out and spread the Gospel of the saving grace of Jesus Christ. In closing, he asked, "Are we ready to make some adjustments that are needed if we are to be missionaries at heart?"

43. At this time our D.O.M. recognized the Associational Officers present. Doug Joyner, Moderator; Rev. Lacy Oliver, Vice-Moderator; Russell Ault, Treasurer; and Ellen Hawley, Clerk. Our Assistant Treasurer, Elwood Hudson and Historian, Joeann Ault were absent.

44. Rev. Tom Waits presented these resolutions: 1) That this 60th Annual Session of the NBA meeting on October 25, 1988, express appreciation to the pastors and members of Falling Creek Baptist Church and Immanuel Baptist Church for being such gracious hosts to us this year. 2) That we further express our sincere appreciation to our Moderator, Doug Joyner, for his skill in presiding over these sessions and to all those who were responsible for planning the program and giving ample time for inspirational messages as well as the business. These resolutions were adopted.

45. Rev. Roger Carlson, pastor of Glen Raven, led in the prayer of benediction.

Respectfully submitted,
Ellen Hawley, NBA Clerk

Associational Council Report

Fremont Baptist Church hosted the first of five AC meetings on December 7, 1987. Organization and committee reports were given. It was stated in the Stewardship Report that 1987 had been the best year ever in the Neuse Association. Rev. M.O. Sears, Missions Committee Chairman, presented the recommendation that 1) we participate in the five-year partnership with Sao Paulo, Brazil; 2) we send our D.O.M. as our Association Coordinator at a cost of $1,200; 3) funds be raised by seeking individuals to contribute or ask the churches. This was made into a motion and passed.

Two recommendations made by Executive Committee and presented by Rev. Belcher that we 1) change Week of Prayer and Associational Offering Sunday to the last week in October; 2) that the Association be incorporated and steps be taken immediately to get this done as soon as possible and also every church be informed as to how they can become incorporated. Recommendations accepted.

Dr. Mike Cogdill stated a request had been made of Kinston First Church requesting an examination for Bob Fulkerson, Minister of Education at Kinston First, on December 15, 1987.

The second AC meeting was held in Madison Avenue Baptist Church on February 1, 1988. Reports were heard from each organization and committee.

Rev. M.O. Sears read a letter of resignation from Rev. Robin Chapman, Mission Center Pastor.

It was stated that M.B. Jenkins, Associational R.A. Director, would be going with our D.O.M. to Sao Paulo, Brazil, leaving on March 6, 1988.

Motion was made that NBA sponsor a Southern Baptist work in a black community of Kinston. Motion passed.

Rev. Bill Haskins encouraged all churches to participate in Lay Evangelism Training School, March 15-17, 1988.

Rev. Belcher 1) explained World Missions Conference and encouraged all churches to attend the "rally" on April 23, at Adamsville, to hear and meet the 18 missionaries; 2) introduced Rev. James Buchanan, new pastor of Calypso; 3) stated new pastor, Rev. Joe Pryor, will begin his pastorate at La Grange, February 21, 1988; 4) urged all churches to participate in the feasibility study in Kinston; 5) a Military Awareness Conference was held at the Officer's Club at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base.

Calypso Church served as host to the third AC meeting April 4, 1988. After reports were given from organizations and committee chairperson, the following business was approved.

Software for computer and a projector be purchased for association use. That Eugene Warrick assist in the Migrant Ministry on a voluntary basis for six months (April through September) with the association providing an expense allowance.

The fourth AC meeting was in Union Church, June 4, 1988. All committee chairpersons presented their reports. 1) All churches were urged to schedule a "Lay Evangelism School." 2) Begin now to schedule an evangelist for "Here's Hope Campaign" scheduled March 1990. 3) Place special emphasis on "Year of the Laity." 4) Stated that the convention recommends that the Missions Committee status be discarded and function as a council made up of all the component programs. Jeanette Walters gave detailed description of her work with the association. A letter of resignation from associational duties was read by Dr. Mike Cogdill. He had accepted a position as Chairman of the Department of Religion and Philosophy at Campbell University and therefore would be moving out of the association.

The fifth and last AC meeting of the associational year was held in the new Rivermont Baptist Church, Kinston, October 3, 1988.

Organization and committee chairpersons gave their reports. It was during this time that a recommendation was submitted by the Missions Committee that 1) we establish an Associational Missions Development Council to take the place of our existing Missions Committee; 2) that we try it for one year and report back to the association before making constitutional changes; 3) that the present committee members serve on this council. Motion was presented by our D.O.M., in absence (away in revival) of Missions Chairman, Rev. M.O. Sears. Motion carried.

Director of Missions Report

It would seem that 1987-88 was a year of transition. We have had twelve (12) of the churches of Neuse Baptist Association change pastors. At the time of the writing of this report we still have four (4) churches searching for a new pastor. We have also had some staff changes. We had a change on the associational staff. We lost Robin Chapman and gained Jeanette Walters. Jeanette will work in a different capacity with the association. She is a Church and Community Ministries Director and will be commissioned by the Home Mission Board in January 1989. At that time she will become a full-time team member of NBA. She will be working in the migrant area, but also in many other areas of missions within the association. She has already proven a real asset in the area of missions and mission involvement.

We had a very good World Missions Conference during the spring of 1988. We had 18 of our churches participate and we had 17 missionaries here to share with us. I was very disappointed in the number of churches who desired to share with our missionaries concerning their work. Hopefully, when we have our next World Missions Conference, which will be in 1993, we might have all of our churches get involved and enjoy rubbing shoulders with the missionaries from all over the world.

We began some survey work in the association looking for possibilities to start some new work. We have several areas in Kinston and in Goldsboro mapped out. We need those who would be willing to take a census and to begin some Outreach Bible Studies. We have set a goal for 1989 of having two new work starts, one in Kinston and one in Goldsboro. We are now searching for a church in each area to be the sponsor of this work. We are excited about the possibility of beginning new churches.

I had the opportunity to attend a Director of Missions Update Conference at the Sunday School Board in Nashville, Tennessee, in April of this year and it was extremely interesting and helpful. We were exposed to all the new material that will be coming from the Board in the next few years. I also got to meet the department heads and the President of the Sunday School Board, Dr. Lloyd Elder.

My trip to Sao Paulo, Brazil in March, as part of the planning group for our partnership, was exciting and inspirational. I am in hopes that many of our people will be able to participate during the next four years. Make sure you fill out a card that you are interested and get it to the associational office.

I participated in a World Missions Conference as a missionary up in Hendersonville, North Carolina area and really enjoyed the experience. The mountain air and the warm friendly folks there made my stay a good one. We had several decisions for Christ during the week.

We had to discontinue our Day Camp because of lack of interest and the inability to provide transportation. The transportation issue came about because of new insurance rulings and the lack of a vehicle. We are still looking at the possibility of doing something in this area in the future. The committee at this time does not know exactly the form our NBA camp will take. We are promoting Camp Caraway for the boys and Mundo Vista for the girls.

We have had a good year financially. As a matter of fact, this might turn out to be the best year. We won't know that until the books are closed on December 31, 1988. Some of the churches have increased their percentage giving and we have more churches giving on a regular basis. We have had several churches making special gifts to the migrant work this year and that will continue, I hope, for the new year. We are in hopes that each church might adopt a minimum of four percent and reach toward five percent for associational missions. We have several that are giving five percent now. Doxology.

Now my dreams. Oh, yes, I have some: (1) That we could have a good Week of Prayer for Associational Missions, October 23-30, 1988, and a good Missions Offering on October 30. If we do, it might help fulfill one of my dreams, that of some transportation, maybe a van, a 15-passenger type. We need this for the migrant work, for committees, for Keyleadership, etc. etc. (2) My second dream is that we might begin thinking about more space for the associational office. We need office and conference space badly. (3) Thirdly, that we could become "Church Planters" and begin some new work. We need a new work in both Goldsboro and Kinston.

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

February 15, 1988

Executive Committee
Goldsboro, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

We have reviewed the accompanying Balance Sheet of NEUSE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION as of December 31, 1987, and the related Statement of Support and Revenue, Expenditures, and Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended, in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. All information included in these financial statements is the representation of the Executive Committee.

A review consists principally of inquiries of personnel and analytical procedures applied to financial data. It is substantially less in scope than an examination in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Respectfully submitted,
Pittman, Casey, Price & Co., P.A.

NOTE: The CCM Director will begin on a full-time basis as of January 1, 1989. We have secured additional funding from the HMB and the State Convention to make this possible. But it will mean that NBA Churches will be responsible for $5,322 of the total fund package. We were also informed by Neal Peyton of the BSC that our $12,000 will be reduced $1,000 per year, beginning in 1990, until the base amount of $8,000 is reached.

Sunday School Report

The emphasis for 1987-88 has been "Touch Lives...Change People." Our work here in the Neuse Baptist Association has been aimed at turning this phrase into reality through our schedule of activities and training opportunities.

The January Bible Study Clinic was held on November 2 at Calvary Baptist Church, Goldsboro. A video tape produced by BTN on the study of Malachi greatly enhanced our review of the adult study materials. In addition we held four Growth Spiral Workshops here in our association involving 50 pastors and Sunday School leaders from 13 churches and one was held on February 25 in the Little River Association, in Lillington.

The ASSISTeam Director and some of the newly selected team members attended the Regional Vacation Bible School Clinic in Jacksonville and were involved in the association clinics which were held on May 3 and 4.

A basic ASSISTeam was organized in March. On Monday, April 11, we held an ASSISTeam Training Conference at Kennedy Home Baptist Church under the leadership of James Hartsell, a state approved worker in Associational Sunday School work. During the year the team held two planning meetings.

Our Associational Sunday School Training School was held on September 12 and 13, at Adamsville Baptist Church. We had conferences for all four age divisions as well as for general officers, and we enrolled 110 pastors and Sunday School leaders from 18 churches. Of those who attended, 59 were qualified to receive credit through the Church Study Course Awards.

Now, our team, organized and trained, stands ready to respond to the needs of your Sunday School as we enter the new year with a new emphasis, "Gather the People That They May Hear." The Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team (ASSIST) is made up of those who are both trained and experienced, and their willingness to help whenever the call for help comes in is reflected in their willingness to serve on the team.

Tom Waits ..... ASSISTeam Director
Danny Benfield ..... Teaching Improvement Training Director
Kathryn Waits ..... Outreach Director
Janet Long ..... Adult Director
Bob Fulkerson ..... Youth Director

Missions Committee Report

The Missions Committee of the Neuse Baptist Association met several times during the year to discuss, evaluate and update our associational program. We were fortunate to obtain Mrs. Jeanette Walters on a part-time basis, beginning May 1, 1988, to work in the area of Church and Community Ministries (CCM). Her separate report follows this committee report. The association plans in the near future to employ her full-time as Director of Church and Community Ministries.

We are also pleased to have Rev. Gene Warrick assist in the Migrant Ministry area on a voluntary basis with the association providing an expense allowance. The Missions Committee is now in the process of preparing some job guidelines for those who will work in this area in the future.

During the State Key Leadership Conference, May 9-11, 1988, at Ridgecrest we were introduced to a new concept in relation to this work. Our State Convention recommends that the Missions Committee be advanced to the status of an associational council having representation from the other organizations of the association. The new council would be called "The Associational Missions Development Council." Some associations are going immediately to this new concept while others are trying it out for a year before acting upon it. We recommend the latter, with any constitutional conflict waived for one year before the association considers its adoption. It appears that this change will lay the groundwork for a much wider and more effective program of associational missions.

Neuse Baptist Association, under the able leadership of our Director of Missions and with the cooperation of many of our churches, is reaching out to help meet many of the more pressing needs. However, when we look at the total needs, we are "just scratching the surface." With the cooperation and support of still more of our churches we can become involved in many other areas that need our attention. Missions is our main business and it should begin at home. We challenge you to get involved and follow our Saviour who went about doing good.

M.O. Sears, Chairman,

Church and Community Ministries Report

Since May 1, 1988, there has been much going on in Neuse Baptist Association. I have spoken in 16 of our churches thus far, some more than once and am grateful to have had that opportunity.

I have attended meetings and or met with 15 different agencies and organizations in our counties up to now. My travels (average 1,000 miles a month) have equaled out to some 6,000 miles since May.

MIGRANT MINISTRY — At least nine different camps have been reached this season. Some 242 copies of scripture were given out, 25 professions of faith were made and the Lord continues to bless in this work. At least 200 health kits were distributed. Two (2) Backyard Bible Clubs were also held in camps.

There has been a great team of workers in Migrant Ministry this past summer but we have been small in number. Many churches have provided food, clothing, health kits, infant kits, snack packs, "use me" books, refreshments, blankets, etc. and I say a great big THANK YOU. However, God has given many of you talents and time to work in this and other areas. Please respond to His call. Put your HEART and HANDS in NBA missions work. Let's accomplish much more for the Kingdom here in our HOME MISSIONS FIELD.

MILITARY MINISTRY — Two (2) Backyard Bible Clubs were held with four professions of faith on Seymour Johnson Air Force Base this summer. We plan to have more of these next year on and off the base.

Thank you for your continued support as we work as a Mission Team in NBA.

Respectfully submitted,
Helping Hands in Christ

Evangelism Committee Report

The past year began with the follow-up of the Freddie Gage Crusade with the report of churches who had baptized and extended membership to many who had made decisions. In addition, feasibility studies have begun in Kinston and Goldsboro with the view of identifying areas where mission churches may be begun. Surveys have been conducted and survey teams are being organized in Kinston and Goldsboro to continue these surveys. We are also asking Baptists to open their homes for weekly Bible studies for a seven-week period. This will help us to reach the unchurched in their area.

Two great emphases were the center of the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest this year. First, the "Year of the Laity" begins on October 1, 1988, and continues through September 30, 1989. All lay persons are encouraged to seek training through a Lay Evangelism School during the year and also to commit to active witnessing during the year. Secondly, plans were discussed to prepare for the "Here's Hope" revivals of 1990. These ideas were well received in our association at the August 30, Key Leadership Conference. In addition, plans were announced to have a Lay-Evangelism Retreat May 12-13, 1989.

A LES was conducted March 14-17, 1988, in which 10 of our pastors were certified to present Lay Evangelism Schools throughout our association during the next two years again to prepare our churches for the "Here's Hope" revivals of 1990.

If we are able to be effective in our association in reaching the lost and unchurched, we need everyone to get involved now so your church can take full advantage of the excitement in store for 1989 and 1990.

Woman's Missionary Union Report

WMU had an exciting year throughout the universe celebrating a century of missions education and involvement. The national centennial celebration was held in Richmond, Virginia, May 13-14, 1988.

Over 11,000 women attended the wonderfully planned Centennial Celebration. We had over 30 women from Neuse Association to attend. The chartered bus trip was fun and lots of good fellowship shown. One extra highlight for our group was taking a tour of the Foreign Mission Board. The programs were just breathtaking and all the bouquets, speeches, dramas, music, costumes, parades, supper in the park, greeting women from different states, having pictures made, was a weekend to remember.

Days of the past to remember how missions education helped women, girls and preschoolers to serve our Lord through missions -- "The leaders who spoke the word of God to us. Now, we must consider the outcome of their lives, and imitate their faith." We leave a century of yesterday--as a second century woman we have a "future to fulfill!" God is calling us to missions.

The churches in NBA have worked hard to meet centennial achievement goals. Centennial quilts and WMU banners have been made. Prayer retreats held, birthday parties given and the history of WMU taught. Trinity Church received the honor of having their banner chosen, from those in NBA, to be carried in the Centennial parade in Richmond, Virginia. Nancy Wilkie had the privilege of representing us as she walked, carrying the banner, in the parade.

The Associational WMU Council has met regularly this year. For five years we have earned "distinguished" as a council by reaching certain goals on the achievement guide.

The council has attended all workshops offered by the state WMU leaders. The annual, regional workshop was held at the Kinston First Baptist Church on August 8, 1988. We held our NBA workshop on September 8, at Snow Hill Church with 82 in attendance and 16 of our churches represented.

Our mission action project was, again this year, helping the Women's Correctional Center in Raleigh. Each church was asked to give $10 to help with Christmas presents and other needed items for the women. We received a big thank you from them.

Our council urged all churches to promote goals for Foreign, Home, State and World Hunger Offerings. Baptist Women observed World Day of Prayer and sent the offering to the BW World Alliance. The council planned a Centennial Prayer Retreat held at LaGrange Church, led by Nancy Wilkie and Joeann Ault. Good attendance. History of WMU was taught by Nancy Wilkie for all churches who could attend. The council planned a joint prayer breakfast with Brotherhood with the theme: "Celebrate in 88." Al Wright, Adamsville pastor, was guest speaker and 135 attended. It was held at Holiday Inn at Kinston.

Our Annual WMU Spring Meeting was held March 24, 1988, at Madison Avenue, in Goldsboro. Thanks to Mary Smith, WMU Director of Madison Avenue, and all host churches for a well-planned covered dish meal, birthday cake and other desserts. We had a short business meeting. Rosewood and Madison Avenue were recognized for reaching "standard" on the achievement guide. Banners were judged. Age-level directors gave reports. Special music was by Pastor Thomas Greene, then Dr. Helen Falls, from Richmond, gave the missionary message covering much of the history of WMU. Paul Womack, pastor of Calvary Kinston, installed the WMU officers for the coming year. Madison Avenue won the honor for the most in attendance from their church. Almost 200 were at the meeting.

Age-level directors have been active in the work of Baptist Young Women, Acteens, Girls in Action and Mission Friends. Association-wide events have been held and mission study books have been taught. Visits have been made to the churches having special programs. New organizations have been started for BW, BYW, Acteens, Girls in Action and Mission Friends in some of the churches. Sandy Bottom, Union, Falling Creek and Goldsboro First have promoted their WMU work and more, I'm sure, but have not reported their growth.

The WMU Council was asked to go to West Virginia to teach a region of nine associations the new WMU manuals. The workshop was held at Freedom Church in Nutter Fort, West Virginia. We stayed at a motel overnight, courtesy of West VA Convention. Conferences began on Friday night after Nancy Wilkie taught a part of the mission book. Saturday morning the book was finished and conferences were over by 12 noon. Spilman Memorial Church van was used for the trip and Lindey Speight was our driver. We had a wonderful trip.

May God bless us always to go tell, teach, give and pray. We must be in the picture ready to serve.

Thank you for your prayers and for letting me serve as your WMU Director.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucy Pittman

Music Report

It is exciting to see our NBA churches with growing music programs. I am hearing and seeing great things in the churches that I visit and it is a thrill to see the commitment and growth.

Music in the church can be a powerful evangelistic force and can speak to the heart in a unique way. It is my prayer that our music leaders in the NBA will seek to win the lost through the medium of music.

Our Associational Music Reading Clinic last November, with State Music Secretary Charles Storey, was very helpful and informative. The churches that attended received many ideas and learned great new music.

Those who attended our Children's Choir Worker Clinic in February, received very valuable ideas. Carol Greer, Minister of Music at First Baptist in Whiteville and a state approved clinician, led the workshop.

Our Adult Choir Workshop for choir members, directors and accompanists was held at First Baptist Church, LaGrange, in March. Leaders were Ben Ramsaur, Steve Gibson and myself. Ben and I worked with the directors and choir members while Steve had a very good session with the accompanists.

We are looking forward to our Associational Adult Choir Festival at First Baptist Church in Kinston on the fifth Sunday, October 30, 1988.

It has been a joy to serve as your music director for these past two years. May God continue to bless the NBA and may many people come to know Christ as Savior and Lord from our prayers and hard work.

Respectfully submitted,
Doug Beasley

Brotherhood Report

It is a pleasure to share with you some of the things that are going on within the Brotherhood of the Neuse Baptist Association. This past year, 1987-88, I have visited a number of our churches that had a Brotherhood program going and a lot of enthusiasm is being shown in the Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador programs. During my visit I found churches involved in mission work by having Baptist Men and RA boys ministering to nursing homes and helping in projects of assisting the elderly and handicapped in yard maintenance and repairs to their homes. Adamsville men are holding prison services at Wayne Correctional Center the third Thursday each month and as a result of this ministry, souls are being saved and inmates are rededicating their lives at each service. A Brotherhood Workshop, led by representatives from NC Baptist Men was held at Kennedy Home Church in October 1987 with 48 Baptist Men and RA leaders in attendance.

I attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest, and by sharing with other Brotherhood Directors from other associations what we are doing in our association, and getting their input on what they are doing, I received a number of ideas that I would like to see us implement in our Brotherhood program. I never realized that the Baptist Men of NC had as many projects going on as they do in our state and overseas. It is my prayer that some of these projects can be implemented in NBA during the new year.

I attended a Brotherhood Training program at Caraway and received a number of new ideas on different programs that we can use in our association. The Baptist Men's President, Buck Hill, and I will be working on these programs in the future and hope to get our churches interested in them. At the present time we have 24 churches with a Brotherhood, leaving 12 churches without one.

Buck Hill, M.B. Jenkins (RA Director) and I are available to help you in any way we can to start a Brotherhood. Please don't hesitate to call on us. Video tapes and equipment may be checked out from the NBA office to use for your programs. Material is available for you to get Baptist Men or Royal Ambassadors, or Baptist Young Men started in your church. This free packet can be ordered from NC Baptist Men, P.O. Box 1107, Cary, NC 27512-1107.

BAPTIST MEN REPORT

This past year, 1987-88, I assisted the Brotherhood Director, in visiting churches, within the association, and speaking at one of our churches. I assisted one of our churches in helping them to get a set of materials for starting a Brotherhood program. With the help of some men from the association we worked on the farm at Buies Creek and helped the NC Baptist Men with the annual field day at the Agriculture Farm.

On the state level I was invited to attend the conference on World Hunger and looking at the year 2000. I was asked to serve on the Steering Committee for the National Fellowship Agriculture Missions. I attended two Baptist Men's board meetings, attended school for Baptist Men specialist training and helped with several workshops. I was invited and spoke at several churches in other associations for Baptist Men's Day emphasis. Wherever I go I emphasize that I am from the Neuse Baptist Association and Spilman Memorial Church. I wish our association of churches would give me more opportunities to help them with their Brotherhood/Baptist Men's program.

I am available to help our churches in any way that I can and may be reached at 527-4696 or 523-2962.

ROYAL AMBASSADOR REPORT

In October of this year, we held our annual training session for Brotherhood leaders. The workshop was taught by state leaders and specialists from across the state. These leaders shared: 1. how to begin new work, 2. how to improve existing work, 3. how to implement mission activities, and 4. how to be an effective leader. Many leaders from our association were present at the meeting and said they would implement the information that they were taught. Our annual Brotherhood banquet was held at Spilman Memorial Baptist Church on January 30, 1988. There were approximately 70 persons present. We enjoyed good food and a great message presented by our guest speaker, Dr. Richard Crapps, Director of Missions of the South Roanoke Association. After the message we presented the "Counselor of the Year" award to Mrs. Marie Hill from Seven Springs Church. A good time was had by all.

On February 12, 1988, our RA Car Competition/Mission Fair was held. The event was hosted by First Church of Goldsboro. We had 50 entries in the event. Mission Fairs were judged by our Director of Missions, Rev. Bobbie Belcher and the pastors who were at the event. The winners were eligible to attend the State Congress where the cars and missions projects competed. At the state event three churches represented NBA. This was the first year that we held the track meet for the High School Baptist Young Men to participate in. The event was very well accepted in the association and I felt it was a success. The attendance was approximately 90 persons which included GA's, Acteens, and RA's. The only regret is that the boys did not attend the State Meet at Gardner-Webb College.

In conclusion, the year was a very productive one in our association. We had a great training session, a good track meet and a good banquet. These events were a success due to the cooperation of the churches and by large the RA Committee of the association consisting of Joe and Jan Strickland, John Russ, Danny and Linda Sellers, Jimmy Russell, Neil Kendrick and Susie Jenkins.

Respectfully submitted,
Jim Small, Brotherhood Director
Buck Hill, Baptist Men Director
M.B. Jenkins, RA Director

Vacation Bible School

It was a great VBS year in professions of faith and missions giving. Enrollments were down, however, from last year. Let's remember to utilize those records of prospects. Reach out to them and affirm continually those new Christians in the church.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeanette Walters
Retiring VBS Director

Sao Paulo-North Carolina Partnership Report

On March 6-15, 1988, your Director of Missions, Bobbie Belcher, and Associational RA Director, M.B. Jenkins, represented Neuse Association as they joined with a team from across North Carolina on a pilot mission trip to Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Kennedy Home Church was the setting for the Association-wide Partnership (slide) Presentation, April 21, 1988. Ernie Grigsby from South Roanoke Association, narrated the slides and M.B. and the DOM gave comments about their experiences and had maps and artifacts on display.

Since that date, both have been invited into several of our churches to share their slides and experiences. M.B. and Mr. Belcher will still be happy to share with your church or smaller groups about this mission opportunity for NBA.

The following paragraphs contain an explanation of the partnership followed by "general information" and a "prayer list" of churches from the Vale Do Ribeira Association.

The Sao Paulo/North Carolina Partnership centers around the Sao Paulo State Convention's Adensamento Project of establishing 1,000 new churches in the state over the 10-year period of 1983-1992.

The partnership with North Carolina will span the five years from 1988-1992. North Carolinians will go to Sao Paulo to assist the Brazilian Baptists in achieving this goal. This assistance will take many forms including the following:

1. Evangelistic revivals held in native churches
2. House to house evangelism
3. Training programs for Sunday School, evangelism, families, Bible studies, conferences, etc.
4. Witnessing to all social classes
5. Human need projects
6. Testimony, music
7. Construction projects
8. Prayer

The list goes on as far as our imagination and God's leadership will take us.

The five-year partnership will link associations in NC with associations in the state of Sao Paulo to accomplish the above mentioned goals. Sao Paulo has 31 associations who have been paired up with the 79 associations in NC. The Neuse Association has joined forces with two other neighboring associations (South Roanoke and New River) to work with the Vale Do Ribeira Association in Southern Sao Paulo. (By the way, Sao Paulo is the name of a large city in the state of Sao Paulo, Brazil. Note that NBA will be ministering to the southern part of the state of Sao Paulo.) Together we are seeking God's leadership as volunteers make themselves available to begin ministering to our brothers and sisters in Christ in this far away country.

The "goal" of the Adensamento Project has been set at establishing 1,000 new churches in that state. Churches are "people" gathered together in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and for this reason the Partnership has been given the nickname of "a people partnership," finding people, loving them, and introducing them to Jesus.

If you are interested in going to Sao Paulo with a team or helping to support someone who can go, please call the associational office at (919) 778-6600.

Constitution

of the

ARTICLE I. NAME

This body shall be known as the Neuse Baptist Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association shall be to devise, recommend and promote measures of increasing the harmony and spiritual power of the cooperating churches, to assist in developing and directing their energies, resources and gifts in advancing the Redeemer's Kingdom, and to cooperate with the Baptist Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in all religious, educational, missions, Sunday School, Church Training, Brotherhood, Women's Missionary Union and other work fostered by the said convention.

The Neuse Baptist Association is a non-profit organization and no profit shall inure to any individual connected with the organization except in consideration for services rendered. In the event of dissolution of the Association, all assets would be conveyed to the churches of the Neuse Baptist Association.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Membership in the body shall be composed of all pastors and duly elected messengers of the cooperating churches.

SECTION 2. Each church shall be represented, at the annual meeting of the Association and at any special meeting during the year, by messengers who shall be duly certified, in the following ratio: Each church with a membership of not more than one hundred members (100) shall be entitled to five (5) messengers. Churches having more than one hundred (100) members shall be entitled to an additional messenger for every additional one hundred (100) members or a major fraction thereof, providing that no church shall have more than twelve (12) messengers.

SECTION 3. New churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association must make written application to the Missions Committee not later than one month prior to the last meeting of the Associational Council prior to the annual meeting of the Association, giving evidence of their faith and order, and their agreement to cooperate in the general program of the Association, the Baptist Convention of North Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Convention. The Missions Committee shall study applications and make recommendations to the Associational Council regarding same, and in turn, the Associational Council shall make its recommendations to the annual meeting of the Association for its action.

SECTION 4. All new missions and new churches should be sponsored by a local church or churches.

SECTION 5. The Association shall have power, upon given written notice of nine (9) months and by two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of messengers present and voting, to withdraw fellowship from any church that willfully departs from orthodox principles of the Christian religion as taught in the Southern Baptist churches or that fails to represent itself either by messenger or by letter at the annual session of the Association without sufficient reason or that fails to support causes fostered by the denomination at large and of this association in particular or that ceases to be missionary in practice.

SECTION 6. Any church may decline to send messengers to the Association at its pleasure. Whenever this constitutes a withdrawal of fellowship on the part of the church, the Association shall not as a body, or through a representative or representatives, seek to restrain by coercion or by law the withdrawal action of the church.

ARTICLE IV. MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The Association shall convene annually on the fourth Monday and Tuesday nights in October and may meet with different churches on the two (2) successive days.

SECTION 2. The time of the annual meetings may be changed, or special meetings called, by the Associational Council upon notice to the cooperating churches.

ARTICLE V. FISCAL YEAR

This fiscal year of the Association shall begin on January first (1st) and end on December thirty-first (31st) of each year.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The officers of the Association shall be a Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Historian, the Trustees, the Associational Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, and such others as may be authorized by the Association.

SECTION 2. All officers shall be members of churches affiliated with the Association.

SECTION 3. Nominations for Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, and Brotherhood Director shall be presented to the Associational Council at its spring meeting for approval. These nominees shall then serve as "Officers Elect" until the annual meeting of the Association, at which time they shall be considered for election by the Association. Nominees for all other officers shall be presented at the annual meeting. Any officer may be elected to succeed himself, except the Moderator, who may not serve more than two (2) years in succession. Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Associational Council.

ARTICLE VII. THE ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Associational Council shall consist of each Director of Missions, the immediate Past-Moderator, the representatives of the Denominational agencies, and two (2) lay members from each cooperative church, to be elected by the church. The names of the lay members shall be duly certified by notifying the Associational Clerk.

SECTION 2. The Officers of the Association shall serve as the Officers of the Council.

SECTION 3. The Associational Council shall act for the Association in the interim between annual sessions. It shall carry out the policies and will of the Association, and shall make reports to the Association at its annual meeting. The Associational Council also has the power to fill vacancies among the Officers and Committees of the Association that may occur during the year.

SECTION 4. Twenty (20) members of the Associational Council will constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII. ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1. The Director of Missions shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the Association and denomination. When it becomes necessary to fill the office of Director of Missions, the Nominating Committee shall name a specified committee of five members for the approval of the Associational Council, whose purpose will be to fill this vacancy.

This committee shall bring one person at a time before the Associational Council for consideration, and no nomination shall be made except that of the special committee. Election shall be made by ballot, with an affirmative vote of three-fourths vote of those present and voting necessary for a call. Should the one recommended by the committee fail to receive three-fourths vote, the committee will be instructed to seek out another nominee for the office of Director of Missions.

ARTICLE IX. COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. That the Nominating Committee has the responsibility to offer nominations to the annual meeting for members and chairmen of all Standing Committees herein provided except those already named by the Constitution.

SECTION 2. The Association shall have the Standing Committees listed below, along with other committees authorized by the Association. These committees shall begin their duties at the close of the annual session, and shall make reports of their work to the Associational Council. Members of the committee shall be selected from the membership of those churches cooperating with the Association and are subject to re-election provided, that in no case, any person shall serve on the same committee longer than three (3) years in succession with the exception of the Music Committee and the Senior Citizens Committee. The Moderator and Director of Missions shall be considered ex officio members of all Standing Committees.

4. He shall submit a report of his work to the Associational Council at its meetings, and to the Association at its annual meeting.
5. A notice of thirty (30) days shall be given by the Director of Missions or the Association before employment is terminated.

ARTICLE II - COMPOSITION AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. THE COMMITTEE ON ORDER OF BUSINESS, consisting of five (5) members, shall prepare the program for the annual sessions. This suggested program shall be presented to the Association at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting for action. The Officers of the Association and the President of the Ministers' Conference are Ex Officio members. The Moderator shall serve as Chairman.

SECTION 2. THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS shall be composed of seven (7) members whose duties shall be to present nominations for the "Officers Elect:" to the spring meeting of the Associational Council, and to the Association for all officers and committees herein, or by the Association. They shall present nominations to the Association for the representatives of the various agencies of the State Convention. They shall also present nominations to the Associational Council to fill any vacancy which may occur during the year.

SECTION 3. THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM shall be composed of five (5) members who shall cooperate with the State Chairman of Evangelism in the promotion of approved evangelistic efforts within the Association. It shall encourage evangelism in the churches, especially where the need is apparent, and shall help provide evangelistic services in the un-churched areas within the boundaries of the Association.

SECTION 4. THE COMMITTEE ON ORDINATION shall be composed of three (3) members who shall act in an advisory capacity for churches. The committee shall assist any church which requests its services in the examination of candidates for the Christian ministry. It shall help arrange, where necessary, proper services of ordination. Churches are requested to use this committee to examine candidates only after their call to some specific work. Further, churches are requested to refrain from announcing the date of ordination until after the candidate has received approval by this committee.

SECTION 5. THE COMMITTEE ON PLACE AND PREACHER shall be composed of three (3) members, whose duty it shall be to receive or solicit invitations for the place of meeting of the annual session for the following year, and to recommend to the Association in annual session, a place or places of meeting, along with a preacher and alternate for the sermon for the following year.

SECTION 6. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS shall be composed of three (3) members and shall review all resolutions referred to it by the Association, the Associational Council, or the Planning Committee, and report suitable resolutions at the annual meeting.

SECTION 7. THE COMMITTEE ON STEWARDSHIP shall be composed of eight (8) members - one from each of the counties of Duplin, Green, Lenoir, and Wayne, and one at large, plus the Moderator, Treasurer and Director of Missions. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The committee shall hear and give consideration to requests of the Associational Council and other leaders in the Associational work, and these requests are to be submitted not later than July 1st of each year. The committee shall: offer assistance to the churches in developing an understanding of the commitment to the Biblical concepts of individual and corporate stewardship; promote the challenges and opportunities of the Association for which stewardship resources are needed; increase world missions understanding by promoting the Cooperative Program, the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions and Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions, the Homes and Hospital Offering, State Missions Offering and the Neuse Baptist Association Mission Offering; develop and promote a budget to accomplish the ministries of the Association; administer an accounting system that assures sound procedures for collecting, safeguarding, and disbursing funds; make a financial report to the Associational Council; and have a professional audit made of the Treasurer's books and make a report to the Association in its annual meeting.

SECTION 8. THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION shall be composed of five (5) members whose duties it shall be to ascertain the need of new churches within the boundaries of the Association; to recommend to the Associational Council the location of sites and the purchasing of lots for such churches and to assist the organization of such churches as might be authorized. Churches contemplating making debts on lots, buildings, improvements and/or asking for Pastor's aid, must have the recommendation of the Church Extension Committee and approval of the Associational Council if they expect to apply to the Baptist State Mission Board for aid in paying for the same. It shall be the duty of the Church Extension Committee to study the applications of new churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association as to evidence of their faith and order, and their agreement to cooperate in the general program of the Association, the Baptist State Convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention.

SECTION 9. THE COMMITTEE ON MUSIC shall be composed of three (3) members who shall cooperate with the Music Department of the State Convention and shall assist in any music program approved by the Association. The Chairman shall also serve as Associational Music Director.

SECTION 10. THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN LIFE shall be composed of three (3) members who shall work with local and State Officials in every phase of promoting civic righteousness.

SECTION 11. THE COMMITTEE ON CAMP ACTIVITIES shall be composed of three (3) members. The Chairman shall serve as Camp Director. The duties of the committee shall be to plan and execute the summer camp.

SECTION 11. THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS shall be composed of three (3) members who shall receive all proposed changes thereto and, upon study of this or other observations, making recommendations to the Association on all Constitution and Bylaw changes.

SECTION 12. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS consisting of three (3) members shall plan for our beloved dead a memorial service to be conducted during the annual session of the Association.

SECTION 13. THE COMMITTEE ON SENIOR CITIZENS shall consist of five (5) members and shall plan a program of ministry for Senior Citizens on the Associational level.

SECTION 14. THE COMMITTEE ON PASTOR/CHURCH RELATIONS shall be composed of five (5) members, with one (1) retired minister, two (2) active ministers, and two (2) laypersons and the Director of Missions serving as ex officio member. The members of this committee shall be elected annually by the Associational Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Director of Missions. A vacancy shall be filled by the Associational Executive Committee upon the recommendation of the Director of Missions. It shall meet as needed. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The principal function of this committee shall be to promote better relations between churches and their pastors, and advise and consult with pastors and/or church members upon their request. The committee shall also seek ways of improving communications between congregations and their ministers and help member churches find ways of easing tensions and keeping open lines of communication.

SECTION 15. THE COMMITTEE ON PROPERTIES AND EQUIPMENT shall be composed of six (6) members. The officers shall consist of a chairman and a secretary. It shall: oversee the upkeep and needs of the Associational building(s) and ground(s); periodically inspect and inventory the Associational properties and equipment; make recommendations regarding improvements, updating, maintenance, and adequate insurance coverage; develop and recommend a program of upkeep and preventive maintenance; develop and recommend policies and procedures for using Associational facilities and equipment; develop job descriptions and recommend contracting for maintenance and upkeep personnel; request and administer a maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget; and report to the Associational Council and at the Association's annual meeting.

SECTION 16. THE ASSOCIATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE shall be composed of the Associational Officers, the Department Directors, the Committee Chairmen, and the Director of Missions who will serve as chairman. This committee will assist the Director of Missions in planning, coordinating and implementing the program of the Association. They will meet on a quarterly basis or as needed.

SECTION 17. COMMITTEE ON SCHOLARSHIPS shall be composed of three (3) members, one of whom shall be the Director of Missions. The remaining two members shall be nominated by the Association Nominating Committee and be elected annually with other associational leaders. Serving as ex officio members will be the Executive Director of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation and Russell and Joeann Ault, or their direct descendants, so long as they desire to serve in such capacity. The chairperson shall be elected from the two-at-large members of the committee.

The committee shall be diligent in fulfilling requirements of the guidelines established for the Russell and Joeann Ault Scholarship Trust, which includes the soliciting of prospective recipients.

SECTION 18. COMMITTEE ON PERSONNEL shall be composed of three members plus the Director of Missions, Moderator, and Treasurer. The task of this committee is to implement the personnel policies of the Association; to recommend changes in these policies when needed; to establish job descriptions for all staff positions; to review staff salary structure annually and make recommendations to the Stewardship Committee prior to the adoption of the annual Associational Budget. This committee also should serve in helping foster good staff relations. When vacancies occur this committee will function as a search committee in consultation with appropriate committees of the Association. They will, when ready, present a staff person to the Association for employment.

SECTION 19. ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL shall be composed of three at-large members, plus the Church and Community Ministries Director; the chairperson of all component programs; a representative of the Brotherhood (Mission Action Leader); Woman's Missionary Union (Mission Action Leader); and Sunday School (Outreach Leader). The chairperson shall be elected from the at-large members.

The council shall have component programs (i.e. Migrant, Prisons, Language, Mentally Handicapped, Military, etc.) as the Association may from time to time deem necessary to carry out the work of the Associational Missions Development Council. If from time to time the need arises for a component program, the Associational Missions Development Council shall have authority to establish such component program and appoint a chairperson as needed until the next council meeting of the Association at which time said program shall be presented for approval.

The at-large members of the Associational Missions Development Council shall be nominated by the Associational Nominating Committee and elected annually by the Association when it elects its other program leaders.

Ex officio members of the Associational Missions Development Council include the Director of Missions, Moderator, and other Associational staff members with related assignments.

Associational Missions Development Council has five missions performance tasks: They are to (1) call churches to be on mission; (2) provide resources and services to churches and leaders; (3) train, develop and encourage church and Associational workers; (4) provide opportunities for working together in missions, ministry, growth and evangelism; (5) establish and maintain appropriate communications and relationships with the community and the denomination.

ARTICLE III - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The officers of the Council shall be the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, and the Clerk of the Association.

SECTION 2. The Associational Council shall hold an organizational meeting within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting, and shall set up the following subcommittees, and any other deemed necessary for the proper handling of Associational business between the annual sessions:

THE CALENDAR COMMITTEE: This committee shall be composed of the officers of the Association, the President of the Ministers' Conference, and the Director of Missions. (It shall be the duty of this Committee to plan and recommend to the Associational Council at the annual session of the Association, a Calendar of Activities for the coming year. The Vice-Moderator shall serve as chairman.)

SECTION 3. The Council shall meet every other month (except July and August). The first meeting shall be held within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting. Time and places of these meetings shall be determined by the Council.

SECTION 4. The Council shall submit to the Association in annual session a full and complete Budget, Calendar of Activities, and a full and complete report of its work.

ARTICLE IV - RULES OF ORDER

The following rules shall govern deliberations in the meeting of the Association and the Associational Council.

SECTION 1. The official transaction of business in all regular meetings of the Association and the Associational Council shall be by the affirmative majority vote of the members present and voting, except in matters relating to the Constitution, the withdrawing of fellowship from any cooperating church, and the seating of messengers from those churches desiring to cooperate with the Association. In called meetings of the Associational Council, a number equal to the majority of the membership of the Associational Council and representing a majority of the cooperating churches shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

SECTION 2. A messenger wishing to speak shall rise and address the presiding officer. He shall confine himself to the question under consideration and shall avoid all personalities. No messenger shall speak more than twice on the same subject without special permission.

SECTION 3. All motions seconded shall be definitely stated by the presiding officer or at his request, read by the clerk before the vote is taken.

SECTION 4. When a question is under consideration, no other motion or proposition shall be received except a motion to adjourn, lay on the table, to amend, to commit, to postpone, to a definite time. When there are several motions, they shall have preference in the order in which they come.

SECTION 5. The general business of the Association shall be recommended by the Committee on Order of Business at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting of the Association. When adopted this report shall become the order of business for the members and cannot be changed except by the vote of the Association.

SECTION 6. All questions of order not herein provided for shall be decided by Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE V - ADOPTION OF BYLAWS

SECTION 1. These Bylaws shall take effect immediately upon their adoption, and shall supersede any and all Bylaws previously adopted.

SECTION 2. These Bylaws may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association provided the amendment has been presented in writing to the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws no later than September 1, and presented to the October meeting of the Associational Council. Passage shall be by majority vote of the messengers present and voting.

Associational Council Report

The Neuse Baptist Association held its first of five Council Meetings December 5, 1988, in First Baptist Church, Goldsboro. Organization and committee reports were given. The following recommendations were made during the meeting: 1) Rev. Tom Waits asked that $300 be taken from the $1,300 that was refunded to the association from the State Missions Offering to purchase an overhead projector. 2) That $627.90 be used for an electronic typewriter from these same monies. Made in motion form, the two requests accepted and passed.

D.O.M., Rev. Bobbie Belcher, gave his report. 1) Stated Calypso Baptist Church had been voted into the Eastern Association. 2) Five "agreements" dealt with a Military Ministry; (a) minister to single and young marrieds on S.J.A.F. Base, $500; (b) Annual Military Appreciation Banquet, $600; (c) work with family support directors of S.J.A.F. Base in caring for deployed military person's family members, $500; (d) develop a Military Needs Awareness Program for the churches, $350; (e) land for a serviceman's center, $800. 3) Church and Community Ministries, three requests: (a) salary supplement for C.C.M., $11,000; (b) summer bilingual migrant worker, $500; (c) ministry with food, clothing and materials to migrants, $1,000. 4) Stated C.C.M. Director is to be commissioned as Home Missionary in April 1989.

Rev. Lacy Oliver stated the Cooperative Program is the lifeline of everything we do as Southern Baptists.

Rev. Tommy Tripp made motion to send $300 to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. All requests and motions carried.

Snow Hill Baptist Church hosted the second council meeting February 13, 1989. Reports were heard from each organization and committee.

The following requests and motions were made and carried. 1) Approximately $1,000 from Building Fund for materials to renovate garage at N.B.A. Office. 2) Request that Richard Poteat replace Rev. Bill Morrow as Children's Home Representative. 3) Jay Sauls to unexpired term of Mack Styron on Christian Life Commission. 4) Dr. Aubrey Jones to unexpired term of Rev. Bill Morrow on Ordination Committee. 5) That the budget be amended to cover insurance $34.46 per month on C.C.M. Director. 6) Motion for Moderator to be authorized to appoint a three-member Personnel Committee to design policies and job descriptions for associational staff. 7) That the association go on record as opposing the proposed N.C. State Lottery. 8) Rev. Lacy Oliver made recommendation through the Missions Committee of the General Board, (a) that we put our money where our mouth is, "to support all the work we do through the Cooperative Program;" (b) encouraged tithing, stated that "where your treasure is, there your heart is also."

The third A.C. Meeting was in LaGrange First Baptist Church on April 3, 1989. Organization and committee chairpersons made reports. Rev. Johnny Sasser asked for extended time to complete guidelines and policies for N.B.A. Staff - granted.

D.O.M. report: Rev. Bobbie Belcher 1) extended sympathy from entire association to Mr. Earl Reynolds in the death of his wife, Velna; 2) to Rev. J.D. Eddins and two daughters in the loss of wife/mother due to an auto accident.

The fourth A.C. Meeting was in Sandy Bottom Baptist Church, June 5, 1989. After reports were made by organization and committee chairpersons the following business was approved. 1) Rev. Lynn Peters asked for four people to train as an "Associational Church Training Team," (a) Children Church Training, (b) Youth Church Training, (c) Preschool Church Training and (d) Adult Church Training. 2) Due to changes in Church Training a motion will be presented at S.B.C. in Las Vegas to change the name of "Church Training" to "Discipleship Training," and asked that changes be made contingently upon actions of S.B.C.. 3) That we continue with the *A*ssociation *M*issions *D*evelopment *C*ouncil. 4) Introduced three summer workers - two Sojourners, Marla Alexander and Bonnie Manfredi; and, Wesley Cureton as Migrant Minister. 5) That the Mission Center Budget be incorporated in N.B.A. Budget. 6) That we approve Pastoral Aid for two of our churches. 7) That the N.B.A. participate in "Rural Urban Thrust."

The fifth and last A.C. Meeting of the year met at New Hope Baptist Church in Kinston, October 2, 1989. Reports were heard from each organization and committee. D.O.M., Rev. Bobbie Belcher, introduced three new pastors: Rev. Mark Morris, Snow Hill; Rev. Donald Leach, Black work in Kinston; Rev. Richard (Dick) Westbrook, Love Memorial. 2) Proposed paying off debt of $12,137.50 as goal for upcoming N.B.A. Missions Offering. 3) That the association participate in the "Associational Strategy Planning." Proposals carried.

Rev. Lacy Oliver, Rev. Belcher and Mr. Buck Hill stressed the need for hurricane "Hugo" victims. Mr. Hill stated that "Disaster Relief Van" of North Carolina Baptist Men established a feeding station in Pritchard Memorial Church in Charlotte, North Carolina and on Sunday and Monday, alone, served 6,000 meals.

Announced Rev. M.O. Sears is working with the Baptist State Convention in the area of new church planting/building consultant.

Rev. Bill Haskins made motion that the association change from "Evangelism Committee" to "Evangelism Council" to involve more people at the request of the H.M.B.. Seconded and carried.

Proceedings

FIRST SESSION - MONDAY EVENING

1. The first session of Neuse Baptist Association Annual Meeting was held Monday night, October 23, in Seven Springs Baptist Church with the theme, "We Are Laborers Together with God."

2. A motion was made that those present constitute the 61st session of N.B.A.. Seconded and carried.

3. Rev. Steve Gibson, Associational Music Director, led in singing "Oh, Church of God, Triumphant."

4. Rev. Bill Haskins, pastor of host church, gave a very hearty welcome to everyone present and read scripture and offered the opening prayer.

BUSINESS SESSION

5. Moderator Doug Joyner called the meeting to order and recognized visitors and special guests. Rev. Gerald Richards, Military and Chaplain Ministry Consultant for B.S.C. in Cary, was asked to stand.

6. D.O.M., Bobbie Belcher, reported on (1) The calendar of activities for the following year and made motion that the calendar be accepted as printed. Seconded and carried.

7. Recognized new pastors in association since last Annual Meeting: Rev. Harvey Sharpe, New Life Church; Rev. John Green, Grainger Church; Dr. Aubrey Jones, First Baptist Church, Kinston; Rev. Tom Jones, Cabin Church; Rev. Richard (Dick) Westbrook, Love Memorial Church; Rev. Mark Morris, First Baptist Church, Snow Hill; and Chaplains, Anthony Oakley, Seymour Johnson Base Federal prison unit; David Morton, Eastern Correctional Center, Maury; and Rev. Donald Leach, new Black ministry in east Kinston.

8. Moderator Joyner reported on the summary of Council meetings as printed in the "Book of Reports" and made motion that the report be accepted as printed. Seconded and carried.

9. Moderator asked for other miscellaneous business at which time Jean Kirk, N.B.A. Office Secretary, and Jeanette Walters, C.C.M. Director, called Mr. Russell Ault, N.B.A. Treasurer, to come forward and recognized his birthday. They also asked all who had birthdays during the month to stand while we sang "Happy Birthday."

10. Mr. Joyner read a portion of a letter from Rev. Marcus Taylor, Chaplain to Chowan College, written on behalf of Dr. Jerry F. Jackson, President of Chowan College, thanking the churches of N.B.A. for continued faithfulness in proclaiming the word and their ministry to the needs of the congregation and committees. Commend and congratulate churches for their regular support to cooperative missions through the Cooperative Program. Such support continues to confirm their identity as partners with Southern Baptists everywhere in a world mission task. In absence of our physical presence at your Annual Sessions, we join you as you celebrate the record of the past year and anticipate the opportunity for the year to come to the "grace of our Lord Jesus Christ."

11. Rev. Belcher reminded everyone of Associational Missions Week (this week) and Associational Offering Sunday/S.S. High Attendance Day, October 29.

12. Rev. Steve Gibson led in singing "Tell the Good News."

13. Registration report given at this time by Associational Clerk; 128 present representing 33 churches.

14. Moderator made a motion that the registration report be accepted. Seconded and carried.

15. Message in music was presented by Seven Springs Church choir, "There's Something About That Name."

16. Moderator asked for committee reports. Due to absence of Dr. Leon Smith, Bobbie Belcher, D.O.M., gave the Constitution and Bylaws report to be acted on during "Second Session." Report is printed elsewhere.

17. Evangelism report, Rev. Bill Haskins, (a) stated the committee has been able to encourage churches in several areas of evangelism. (b) Eleven churches have had "Lay Evangelism Schools" with good results, and more are planned as we move toward 1990 "Here's Hope" simultaneous revivals. (c) The "Year of the Laity" has brought new focus on the need to enlist and train our people to be reaching out with the gospel. (d) Several emphases in 1989, the Cliffs of Neuse Ministry was well attended by campers and staff. (e) Super Summer youth meeting at Carowinds was well attended by N.B.A. with two chartered bus loads going in addition to individual church groups. Encouraged all churches to take young people to event in 1990. (f) Urged churches to participate in "Here's Hope Revivals," praying for over 500 baptisms during 1990. (g) Request will be submitted to the Constitution and Bylaws Committee to change "Evangelism Committee" to an Evangelism Council in order to conform to H.M.B. reports. This will help in long-range planning as well as involving more people in special ministries of evangelism. (h) Bill Haskin's son, Jody, will remodel the chapel at the east Kinston area for Black ministry, to be headed by Rev. Donald Leach, as his Eagle Scout project.

18. Baptist Children's Homes of N.C. report given by Rev. Bill Brown stated (1) Like salmon, Baptist Children's Homes struggled upstream to get ahead of the problems that plague America's children and families. (2) Baptist Children's Homes, which began as an orphanage in Thomasville in 1885, operates four group care campuses, eight emergency care homes, a home for unwed mothers, a teen mother/baby home, two behavior change homes for girls, therapeutic camping and a model child development center. Has work in 17 locations across the state, serving more than 1,000 children and families each year. All campuses and facilities welcome involvement by local churches, R.A.'s, G.A.'s, W.M.U.'s and S.S. departments. Baptist support is strong for children and families and we pray it will continue to strengthen as needs grow every day.

19. D.O.M., Rev. Belcher, (1) called attention to Statistical report in "Book of Reports." All reports were not in the office when the report was printed and asked that changes be made to reflect new totals. (2) Stated the association has had a good, exciting year. (3) Shared some of his dreams: (a) an association resource center that can serve our association with a nice conference room for classes and meetings. (b) A 15-passenger van to be used in several ministries throughout the association. (c) Start four "new works" in the next year and that every church will have a new start (i.e. class, group, service, etc.). (d) Start a deaf church in the association. (e) Start a Hispanic mission. (f) Help some of the churches find suitable land to relocate. (g) Start two new works, one in Goldsboro on Wayne Memorial Drive and Patetown road area; and, the other in the Falling Creek area of Kinston. (h) Looking forward to having our summer Bilingual Migrant worker back with us. (4) Need to secure transportation in our association for our Migrant worker, Hispanic work and other type of work as well as Senior Citizens. (5) Rev. Belcher stated there is something magical about members of churches becoming partly involved in hands-on experience. Twenty-one of our churches participate in "hands-on experience." (6) Our main dream is to have all of our 36 churches sign up for "Here's Hope Revival." This could be one of the greatest outreach, soul saving, great awakening events in our country. (7) Hopefully 1990 will be even greater than the past year as we "labor together with God." (8) Stated it is a real pleasure to serve N.B.A. as D.O.M.

20. Associational Missions Development Council report was given by chairman, Rev. Matthew O. Sears, page 13, "Book of Reports."

21. C.C.M. Director report, Jeanette Walters, page 12, "Book of Reports." She stated that more has been done than mentioned in the written report but there is a need for much, much more, including volunteers and money. Jeanette asked everyone to read along with her the last paragraph of her report. Habakkuk 3:19, "The Lord God is my strength, and He will make my feet like hind's feet, and He will make me walk upon mine high places." This challenges us to move forward and upward with the security that God will give us the strength we need.

22. Music report was given by Rev. Steve Gibson. Three major events: (1) Associational Choir Festival at First Church, Kinston. (2) Children's Choir Camp, at Kinston First Church. (3) Associational Choir Workshop, Adamsville Church. An event planned for February 1990 is a Youth Choir Workshop to encourage teenagers to attend the Youth Choir Festival at Wake Forest University, March 23, 1990. Rev. Gibson stated the music ministry continues to grow and blossom under God's providence. Lastly, as long as he is music director, he will be available for service wherever needed in the association, especially in the small churches.

23. Church Training given by Rev. Lynn Peters who quoted some of the last words of Jesus, "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."

Church Training had a name change to "Discipleship Training" this year and there is a lot of work to be done, and there is a need for the right people to serve as the "Associational Discipleship Training Team." The change is moving into a new work in the churches. These changes came about from Mr. Roy Egman, Discipleship Training Director from the Sunday School Board, working in many ways trying to make disciples which is the goal for reaching people for Christ. There will be training in Caraway on November 17-18, 1989, for this purpose.

Trying to get Seminary Extension at Wayne Community College. Hope to have this started by spring quarter. Also beginning a Seminary Extension Center at the Federal Correctional facility at S.J.A.F.B. Due to the fact many inmates do not have the funds for these classes, Rev. Peters asked the churches, groups or individuals interested to provide scholarships so these people can study more about God's word and what it means to be a Christian. A sign-up sheet is provided or call him at Fremont Church. He quoted words of Paul, "Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet, but one thing I do, forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God, in Jesus Christ." This being the goal of "Discipleship Extension."

24. Moderator thanked everyone for the reports presented on behalf of the association and also for the work that has been done and is continuing to be done; for the dedication and perseverance and God's continued blessings as we seek His will while serving the association. He urged everyone to attend the "Second Session" to be held at Spilman Memorial Baptist Church.

25. Mrs. Nancy Wilkie presented the Memorial Service in a beautiful way. She stated "this is a time for changing the whole atmosphere" and asked that each of us remember those who have gone this year to be with our heavenly Father, page 26, "Book of Reports." Names of those departed were presented by Mr. Taylor and Mr. Croom. Mr. Earl Head sang a memorial tribute, "Open the Gates of the Temple."

26. After the memorial service Moderator stated 96 members from 25 churches had gone to be with the Lord.

27. Rev. Steve Gibson led in singing "Shall We Gather at the River."

28. Special message in song, "There Is A Saviour," by Mrs. Peggy Haskins.

29. D.O.M. introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Grover Blackburn, Campus Minister of Campbell University, who came in place of Dr. Mike Cogdill who was ill. Rev. Blackburn brought greetings and thanks from Dr. Cogdill and Campbell University for everything the churches are doing for the university especially their encouraging the young men and women to attend Campbell.

Rev. Blackburn shared his thoughts and feelings on what he had heard during the business session and challenged the people to continue in the work of the association. He asked what was the major issue facing Baptists today or as people of the association. He used Acts 2:32, 36-38, a sermon by Peter who made his point, and got to the heart of the matter; "Genius is the art of learning to live with the major issues of life." What are the major issues of life? Are we dealing in the major issues as Christian people? What are we as Christians communicating to the world, to the major issues of Christianity? He mentioned several issues that people consider the major items but according to the poet who stated, and he repeated again, "Genius is the art of learning to live with the major issues of life." As Christian brothers and sisters, stand on the edge, prepared to share the good news. But what are we communicating to the people? His point is that somehow, someway, some form or fashion, we will proclaim, "Jesus Is Lord." He challenged us to make Jesus Lord of our lives and communicate this to the people and to do it in love.

30. Moderator thanked the host church and its pastor, Rev. Haskins, and his wife, Peggy, for inviting the association for the First Session and the church choir for their special music.

31. Moderator declared this, the First Session of the 61st Annual Meeting, adjourned after the closing prayer.

32. Rev. Mark Morris, pastor of Snow Hill First Baptist Church, led in prayer of thanksgiving for refreshments and the benediction.

SECOND SESSION

33. The Second Session of the 61st Annual Meeting of N.B.A. was called to order by Moderator, Doug Joyner, and held in Spilman Memorial Baptist Church, Kinston, North Carolina, October 24, 1989. It opened with the hymn, "Tell It Out With Gladness."

34. The pastor of the host church, Rev. Dennis Hill, gave a hearty welcome and asked everyone to stay for refreshments following the meeting. Rev. Hill read Ephesians 2:17-19, and led in opening prayer.

35. Moderator asked D.O.M., Rev. Bobbie Belcher, to come forward and welcome and recognize visitors and special guests. He recognized Gerald (Jerry) Richards who was also present for the first session; Larry McClure, Eastern missionary for B.S.C.; Rev. Moses Yu, pastor of Korean ministry at Adamsville Church, and his wife, Grace; and Rev. Donald Leach, who is beginning a new Black ministry in East Kinston.

36. On behalf of the Committee on Order of Business, the Moderator declared the program as printed would be followed with one change.

37. Rev. Belcher presented Rev. Tom Waits a certificate of recognition, Sunday School Standard Award for Achievement in basic Sunday School work of the N.B.A.

38. Reports were given in the following order: (1) Sunday School/ASSISTeam. Rev. Tom Waits, Chairman, recognized ASSISTeam members present and presented them with certificates for outstanding work. He also gave the members an opportunity to share events coming up during the next year. Rev. Waits gave the V.B.S. report at this time and urged all pastors and Ministers of Education to get the message across by placing greater emphasis upon Sunday School in order to grow. V.B.S. is an extension of Sunday School.

39. (2) W.M.U. "Are we on the alert?" was the question the Director, Mrs. Lucy Pittman, asked concerning the W.M.U. Mission education is so important from the Cradle Roll up to adulthood. Mrs. Pittman stated W.M.U. loves to share our love with others because God first loved us. W.M.U. has new goals, new dreams, new visions and new horizons. She recognized the W.M.U. Associational Council members and asked that they stand. She thanked all the churches for their support during the past year and asked everyone to stand as a thank you to all the churches. Mrs. Pittman closed with the question, "What do I hold in my hand for God?"

40. (3) Brotherhood. Mr. Jim Small, Director, (a) extended his thanks and appreciation to Mr. Buck Hill, Mr. M.B. Jenkins and Bobby Heath for giving their time and helping him to do the work of the Brotherhood of N.B.A. (b) One of the N.B.A. churches holds services at Wayne Correctional Center the third Thursday of each month. Souls are being saved and inmates are rededicating their lives at each service. (c) Brotherhood workshop, led by representatives from N.C. Baptist Men, was held at Kennedy Home Church in October with 42 Baptist Men and R.A. leaders in attendance. (d) Brotherhood Council, consisting of Brotherhood Director, Baptist Men's President, Baptist Young Men's Director and R.A. Director, has begun meeting quarterly with the D.O.M. to plan the work of the Brotherhood. (e) Working on recruiting a 20-man team for both the Medical Bus and Disaster Relief Van to be available as needed. (f) The Brotherhood leaders mentioned above stand ready to help in any way they might be needed to start a Brotherhood or assist with programs already started.

42. Special message in music, "Shall We Gather at the River," by Spilman Memorial Chancel Choir.

BUSINESS SESSION

43. Moderator asked for committee reports.

Rev. Johnny Sasser, Chairman of Personnel Committee, (1) reported this committee began as a special committee appointed by the A.C. for the purpose of developing personnel policies dealing with the staff and employees of the association. (2) On June 5, 1989, at the A.C. Meeting, the committee presented a proposal of recommended policies for study and consideration by A.C. members. (3) At the October 1989 meeting these proposals were unanimously adopted by the association. (4) If at anytime this committee would become a permanent standing committee, the task would be to formulate job descriptions for all staff employees.

44. As Chairman of Place and Preacher Committee, Rev. Sasser reported (1) the first session of the Annual Meeting in 1990 would be held October 22, at Calvary Church, Kinston. (2) The second session would be Tuesday, October 23, 1990, at Emmaus Baptist Church, Dudley. (3) Preacher for annual sermon, Rev. Frank Sandy, pastor of Jordans Chapel, and alternate, Rev. Brantley Stevens, pastor of New Hope, Kinston. (4) Members of Place and Preacher Committee: Johnny Sasser, Chm., Braswell Smith and Alfred Wright.

45. Motion was made that the Place and Preacher report be adopted. Seconded and carried.

46. Rev. Elwin Melton presented (1) the Stewardship Committee report as printed on pages 10-11 of the "Book of Reports." The Stewardship Committee members are listed on page 1 of the "Book of Reports." He asked members of the committee to stand. (2) Rev.

Melton referred to the proposed budget for 1990 and stated if we check back over the years we would notice there has been an increase each year in the emphasis on missions and ministries. He also stated the budget is not just money or a list of figures, it represents ministry, missions in N.B.A. (3) Rev. Melton made motion that this proposed budget of 1990 be adopted as printed. Seconded and carried.

47. Nominating Committee report was given by Chairman, Rev. Brantley Stevens, on behalf of the other members, Don Meadows, Linda Sauls, Woodrow Tyndall, Hank Ricks, Roscoe Daniels, Bill Cherry and Richard Gandy. He thanked all the committee members and made a motion that the report listed on pages 1, 2 and 3 of the "Book of Reports" be accepted as printed. Seconded and carried.

48. Dr. Leon Smith read the entire Constitution and Bylaws Committee Report for the second time (having been read on the preceding night by D.O.M. for the first time). Dr. Smith made motion that Articles 1 through 5 be adopted as printed. Seconded and carried.

49. Associational Clerk, Ellen Hawley, presented the registration count, 136 present representing 30 churches.

50. Rev. Lacy Oliver made announcement that Adamsville Church should be commended for receiving the highest church growth award made by the S.B.C. which is the Eagle Award. Rev. Oliver also stated this was a great honor for Neuse Association.

51. Moderator asked Adamsville pastor, Al Wright, to stand and make comments concerning the above report if he so chose. Rev. Wright stated it just takes a lot of hard work and cooperation from a lot of great people. Adamsville had a net growth of 263 in Sunday School. Only 300 churches out of 37,000 have received this award.

52. Scripture and prayer given by Rev. Frank Sandy, pastor of Jordans Chapel, read from I Corinthians 3:5-10.

53. Message in music, Spilman Chancel Choir sang a medley of four songs: "Sweet Hour of Prayer," "I Need Thee Every Hour," "Just As I Am," and "Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus."

54. Moderator introduced the speaker for the evening, Rev. Bobbie Belcher.

55. Beginning his sermon, "We are laborers together with God," Rev. Belcher made several remarks about his work with the association as D.O.M. over these past years. Thanked the people for the opportunity of having had the privilege of serving as great an association as N.B.A. He stated he feels N.B.A. is a good example of the message title. The relationship is with God and also with each other. We have a precious fellowship among our churches. This association is not perfect but he feels it is as good and even better than some of the larger ones. This was the beginning of the many good remarks he made praising the N.B.A. He referred to "we" throughout his message. If we are to be about the great commission we must take seriously the word of God and use it as our guide.

Many of Rev. Belcher's remarks were commitments "we" as members of the churches of N.B.A. should make and step forward to be about the work so badly needed here. We are workers among ourselves, not only with each other but we are also laborers with our Father. We are with God and God is life itself; without Him we have no life, all we have is existence but without Him there is not life. We are His garden and His field. He works in us as we work in our garden. He looks for the fruits of the harvest. Rev. Belcher asked, "Friends, has there been any harvest lately? Has there been any fruit?" and quoted the song, "He's Still Working on Me." God's plan for us is that we work in His kingdom but the effective plan of God is that we work together. God has promised that He will be with us, working in us, producing fruit and making of us what He wants. Rev. Belcher asked what we thought God has in store for N.B.A. Closing remarks of the message were that it does not depend upon God, it depends on us. "Laborers together with God."

This is just a small portion of the message. It would be great if a mini tape of his entire message could be made and inserted into the pages of the annual so everyone who opens the book could have the opportunity to hear.

56. Moderator Joyner thanked Rev. Belcher for a great message.

57. Rev. Tom Waits presented resolutions to be considered. Whereas, the N.B.A. meeting on October 23, 1989, at Seven Springs Baptist Church and Spilman Memorial Baptist Church on October 24, 1989, is hereby resolved that (1) messengers, visitors and guests express themselves to Seven Springs and Spilman Memorial our heartfelt gratitude for their open and warm hospitality, and (2) we wish to express a hearty thanks to the officers and committees of our association and that we especially thank our Moderator, Doug Joyner, our Vice-Moderator, Rev. Lacy Oliver, for their service and leadership of this association during this past year; (3) We wish to express our appreciation to our D.O.M., Rev. Bobbie Belcher, for his leadership in the N.B.A. and for his vision that continues to move us forward in our ministry in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. (4) Therefore, we, the members of this association, do hereby convenant together under the divine leadership of the Holy Spirit to work together, that through our efforts Jesus might be glorified throughout the coming years.

58. Rev. Waits made motion that these resolutions be adopted. Seconded and carried.

59. Appointment of Committees. None.

60. Moderator Joyner spoke briefly his last comments to the association as Moderator. Stated he is very grateful and thankful for the opportunity to have served the association as Moderator for the past two years. He spoke especially to the D.O.M. and Jean Kirk, N.B.A. Secretary, and all other officers and leaders of N.B.A. for all their work and cooperation during these past two years.

61. Moderator asked the following people to come forward to be presented as new officers for the coming year: Moderator, Rev. Lacy Oliver; Vice-Moderator, Rev. Brantley Stevens; Treasurer, Mr. Russell Ault; Assistant Treasurer (absent), Mr. Woody Hudson; Historian, Mrs. Joeann Ault; and, Clerk, Mrs. Ellen Hawley.

62. Moderator turned the gavel over to the incoming moderator, Rev. Lacy Oliver and congratulated him and wished him the very best.

63. On acceptance of the gavel, Rev. Oliver stated we would not be slowing down; that he believes the Bible is the Word of God, and we will proclaim it from the housetop; and, that he will be "driving home" for continued support of the Cooperative Program -- "It is the lifeline of everything we do."

64. In closing, Moderator Oliver asked for the benediction which was offered by Rev. Dennis Murphy, pastor of Deep Run First Baptist Church.

Respectfully presented,
Ellen Hawley, N.B.A. Clerk

Executive Committee
Goldsboro, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

We have reviewed the accompanying Balance Sheet of NEUSE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION as of December 31, 1988, and the related Statement of Support and Revenue, Expenditures, and Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended, in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. All information included in these financial statements is the representation of the Executive Committee.

A review consists principally of inquiries of personnel and analytical procedures applied to financial data. It is substantially less in scope than an examination in accordance with general accepted auditing standards, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Respectfully submitted,
PITTMAN, CASEY, PRICE & CO., P.A.

This represents a .06 percent increase over 1989 or $5,229.00

NOTE: As you can see, the amount received from the Home Mission Board dropped from $12,000 to $11,000 for 1990. This amount will continue to decrease at $1,000 per year until the floor of $8,000 is reached, so additional support must come from the churches each year in order to continue to expand our mission ministry in our association.

Director of Missions Report

As I look back and reflect on the past year, I do so with great appreciation for the accomplishments of the folks of Neuse Baptist Association. We have really had a banner year for volunteers and involvement.

Our Church and Community Ministries Director, Jeanette Walters, has been on board full time since January 1, 1989. She is involved in discovering ministries all over our association. We are expanding our missions endeavors and involving more and more churches and individuals in outreach. We have a new Associational Missions Development Council functioning well. This enables us to expand programs and involve more people. This council will become a permanent council upon vote at this Annual Meeting.,

We have also tried to develop opportunities for our bi-vocational pastors. We have 12 and have had events for them to have fellowship and study opportunities. We had a Bi-

Vocational Ministers Banquet at First Church, Goldsboro and had good attendance. We promote the Bi-Vocational Conference that is held at Caraway each year, and we include all our pastors in the programs of our association.

N.B.A. voted this year to participate in Associational Strategy Planning in 1990 and has elected Doug Joyner as the Steering Committee chairman. It is exciting to look down the road five or 10 years and be able to plan and to set goals to strive for and achieve. I believe Doug will do a good job in this new responsibility.

The Moderator appointed a new Personnel Committee in February. They were given the task to develop Neuse Baptist Association Office Personnel Policies. This was needed because of the additions to the staff. The policies were presented in June and adopted at the October 1989 council meeting. This is a good step forward for the association.

In April I participated in the World Missions Conference in Johnston Association. I spoke at Clydes Chapel and enjoyed getting to know the people and participating in a vital area of work, our most vital, that of missions.

I also participated in the World Missions Conference in the Atlantic Baptist Association. I spoke at Tabernacle Baptist Church in New Bern, where John Thompson is the Minister of Music (formerly in our association).

We have had five churches without pastors for most of the year. This is a reduction from the previous year, but still it is too much. One church has been without leadership for almost a year now. We have trained the Pastor Search Committees of the affected churches and continue to seek to help them.

In August I participated in the National Convocation of Directors of Missions at Ridgecrest. This was an unusual conference. Directors of Missions from all over the world attended. It was a very profitable meeting.

Our financial condition is good. But we are stretched to our limit as we seek to begin a Spanish and a Black ministry, as well as begin a new work started both in Goldsboro and in Kinston. We are looking for sponsoring churches in both places. We are happy to have a retired Black pastor, Donald Leach, who has moved to Kinston to help in beginning a Black work in east Kinston. In order to continue to expand our ministries we need each one of our churches to give a minimum of three percent and to increase toward five percent. It will take five percent to carry on the programs now in place, especially as we look toward planning for a new Associational Resource Center, which is needed badly.

I would like to share some of my dreams with you. The Bible tells us that we should have dreams and visions. We need goals, and we need to let others know about them. My first dream is still a new Associational Resource Center that can serve our association with a nice conference room for classes and meetings. My second dream is a 15-passenger van to be used by the association for so many ministries, as well as our migrant work in the summer, and for use by our summer Hispanic worker. My third dream is that we will start four new works in the next year and that every church will have a new start in their church (new class, group, service, etc.).

It has been an exciting year, and the one on the horizon looks even more so.

Ordination Committee Report

The Neuse Baptist Association Ordination Committee received two (2) requests for examination during this past associational year. The requests were:

1. First Baptist Church, Goldsboro, requested examination for Janet Long.
2. Trinity Baptist Church requested examination for Dave Fishman.

Both candidates were recommended for ordination.

Church and Community Ministries Director Report

What a year of stimulating missions and ministry with the churches of N.B.A. I can only hope we all will continue to move farther down the road in 1990. The mission fields of Neuse Association are so "white for harvest."

An outpouring of 255 Christmas Cheer Boxes for Eastern Correctional Center was gathered from October to December 9, 1988. The witness of this expression of caring goes beyond what you and I will ever know. Men's lives have been changed--how many only the Lord knows, but you can know that God can and does use the placing of His Word into the hands of lost people to change their lives and make a difference.

Sharing the funeral cost for a family in the death of their young baby, providing scarves and hats for the poor and lonely, food assistance to some hungry individuals, clothing those without enough to keep themselves covered and warm, that is what you the mission minded and mission hearted of Neuse Baptist Association have accomplished this year and more!

The first A.M.D.C. met in January of this year and got under way with the programs of ministry with Military, Migrants, Literacy/Language and Prison work. The council's support in the ministry programs has been very exceptional.

In March the first Mission Action Resource Guide was put together and printed. On April 14-15 and 21-22, our Literacy Workshop met with 13 registered. April 22 over 30 men, women and children worked at the Migrant Mission Center in getting it ready for the summer programs.

On April 30 Larry and I were commissioned as Home Missionaries in Atlanta, Georgia.

On May 23 the Military Appreciation Banquet was held with approximately 45 people attending. Dr. E. Leon Smith spoke to the group on the need we have for one another and how we give and should give support to each other in the military and civilian community.

May 26-27 we held our first, of many to come, Laubach Workshops at Eastern Correctional Center in which 15 men were trained as tutors. Our association co-sponsored a Financial Wellness Workshop at E.C.C. in April and Rev. Bill Haskins taught a Seminary Extension course for six weeks beginning in May.

June saw the arrival of another first for N.B.A. Two Sojourners (short term/five weeks) came and worked in our Migrant and Resort ministries. Bonnie Manfredi from Florida and Marla Alexander from Tennessee were both challenged and were faithful laborers while they were here. They shared their testimonies in many of our churches and even now hearing from them shows evidence of how their faith and Christian commitment have deepened. Our 1989 summer also was blessed by Wesley Cureton, our bilingual worker from Texas, who spent June, July and part of August with us. During his stay four persons accepted Christ at the Migrant Center and hundreds of Hispanics were witnessed to through his ministry and many, many churches gave physical support.

In June, I had the opportunity to attend the Home Mission Board's Leadership Training Workshop in Birmingham, Alabama and became certified as a teacher/trainer of Basic Adult Reading and Writing in the Laubach method.

July 7-8, another Literacy Workshop was held at Eastern Correctional with another 15 inmates trained as tutors to teach other inmates.

May to August the garage was renovated by N.B.A. Baptist Men and what a service this has been. The space was desperately needed and many Baptist Women have donated much to the sorting and organizing of clothes, etc. in the garage.

During July and August several Backyard Bible Clubs were sponsored by N.B.A. both on the Air Base and at Tri-County (Migrant) Clinic. Kinston First youth and Baptist Women of Adamsville helped carry out this work. From June to October eight of our churches/church groups have been ministering to migrant groups/families in N.B.A. and this has been an overflowing cup of blessings! The individuals involved are too numerous to mention, but the Lord knows you all and that's even more wonderful that our Lord knows our every deed and word of kindness.

September 16 found us celebrating (at LaGrange Church) Appreciation for Volunteer Work in N.B.A. with 50 people attending. A great time of fellowship was had along with a testimony and slides of migrant work and some other program work in N.B.A.

Habakkuk 3:19 challenges us to move forward and upward with the security that God is and will lead us and give us the strength we need, "God, the Lord, is my strength; He makes my feet like hind's feet, He makes me walk upon my high places." May we continue to move to higher places with the strength of the Lord.

Jeanette Walters, C.C.M. Director

Associational Missions Development Council Report

Previously, the association had a Missions Committee composed of five members whose duties were to recommend the establishment of new missions where needed within the association and to assist the organization of such missions when authorized to do so by the association.

The committee was also charged with the responsibility to study and make recommendations to the Baptist State Mission Board for pastoral aid, purchase of lots, etc. where needed.

The third duty of the committee was to examine churches making application to affiliate with the Neuse Association as to their faith and agreement to cooperate in the work of the association.

In October of 1988, the Neuse Baptist Association Council passed a motion to try a new concept in associational missions work for one year and then evaluate its merit to see if we continue or not. The new plan has been so effective and rewarding that we voted enthusiastically in our June 5 A.C. meeting to adopt the plan on a continuing basis.

The new program is called the Associational Missions Development Council (A.M.D.C.). It operates as a council composed of: D.O.M., Rev. Bobby Belcher; Rev. M.O. Sears, general chairperson; Mrs. Jeanette Walters, C.C.M. Director; a representative of the Brotherhood, W.M.U. (Mission Action Leader), and Sunday School (Outreach Director), and N.A.B.S. (Senior Citizens); and, three persons at large thus composing a council of 13 members.

The Council searches out mission needs within our association and seeks to implement plans to meet those needs. With an enlarged council each component program can receive special attention through its chairperson and special committee. Some of the component programs already in operation are Literacy/Language work, Mentally Retarded/Developmental Disabilities, Military, Migrants, Prison ministry and Baptist Seniors or N.A.B.S.

One of the primary emphases for 1990 will be the beginning of some new work in areas where it is needed. Already the new work with Blacks in Kinston has been started.

With the prayers and continued support of all the churches of the association we can do much more to help meet those needs which are so evident throughout the association.

Church Training and Seminary Extension Report

This is the last time you'll see this report. Why? Because we are changing from Church Training to Discipleship Training. That is the biggest news this year. Since 1989 has been a very transitional year, I don't have a great deal to report as far as actions go, but I do have a number of things to report for the coming year.

First, this year. Many churches still hold to older ideas about Church Training. Many believe it is only for Sunday night, and only with dated curriculum. That is no longer true. Church Training can be anytime, anyplace as long as you have a group who wants to be trained in some aspect of Christian growth. Use your imagination this year and open your mind to LIFE courses, Equipping Centers, Survival Kits, Doctrine Studies, Church Study Courses, PLUS the weekly dated curriculum. There is no limit to what you can do.

Now, next year. In the Discipleship Training area, there is much work to do. I am still searching for the right people to serve on your Associational Discipleship Training Team. I hope to get this area of ministry in place and functioning this year. With the new Lifeguide and PrayerLife courses now available, you may be hearing a lot about churches experiencing a real revival as we move towards "Here's Hope." We all need and are looking forward to March, but what happens after March 1990? We will have more committed Christians needing to grow as well as many new Christians who need help and nurturing. That is the purpose of Discipleship Training. With proper preparation and planning, we can go beyond preaching and enter into the realm of making Disciples.

We have not had good response this year with Seminary Extension, but things are looking up there, too. I have begun working with Wayne Community College and hope to begin offering Seminary Extension classes through the Continuing Education Department soon. We need more teachers who are willing to be certified and teach a course or two to make this work. If this is successful, I hope to begin working with Lenoir Community College, too. We have also begun work on establishing a Seminary Extension satellite at the new Federal Correction Facility on Seymour Johnson A.F.B. We need teachers there, too.

As you can see, while there is not a lot to talk about for this year, work has been going on. I hope you'll be more involved in Discipleship Training and Seminary Extension next year as we reach out to this community through "Here's Hope: Jesus Cares For You," and go beyond what we have done in the past to new and glorious heights for our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Sunday School Report

When Jesus established His church, He gave it a dual mission: (1) the ultimate mission of reaching the entire world with the gospel message; and (2) the immediate mission of winning Jerusalem. Two thousand years later we are still struggling to reach out to our personal Jerusalem.

The Sunday School organization is uniquely equipped to be the outreach arm of the church. Unfortunately, many pastors are not aware of the potential that this organization has for reaching out beyond the walls of the church with the "Good News" of Christ.

During the past year our Associational Sunday School Council, the ASSISTeam, has planned and carried out activities that would help build awareness of the evangelistic emphasis. On November 8, we held a January Bible Study Leadership Training Clinic at LaGrange Baptist Church; on February 4, our team attended the ASSISTeam Training Institute in Cary followed quickly by the Evangelistic Sunday School Conference in Greensboro. We were involved in the State V.B.S. Clinic in Greenville and held two V.B.S. clinics in the association. Two Outreach Bible Study Conferences were held in the association during the year. In addition, members of the team were used as resource persons in two of our churches during the summer.

The team director and outreach director attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest back in May after which there was an ASSISTeam Training and Planning meeting held.

Finally, in September we led a very successful "Pastor/Sunday School Workers' Planning Clinic" at Madison Avenue Church in Goldsboro.

As a team we are committed to excellence in the Sunday Schools of the Neuse Baptist Association. We continue to grasp every opportunity for training that would enable each of the team members to be more effective in their work and we hope that the year 1989-1990 will provide more opportunities for us to support the work of the local church.

Every one of our 36 Baptist churches is urged to set a realistic yet challenging enrollment goal for the year and plan a definite strategy to attain that goal by September 30, 1990.

Respectfully submitted,
Tom Waits, ASSIST Director

Woman's Missionary Union Report

The emphasis for 1988-1989 has been "A Future to Fulfill-Launching Century II." Entering a new century is exciting. New goals, new dreams, new visions and new horizons lie before Woman's Missionary Union as she launches her second century.

We have heard the words spoken over and over again this past year in the watchword: "You have heard; look at all this. And you, will you not declare it? I proclaim you new things from this time. Even hidden things which you have not known." (Isaiah 48:6). The work of the Neuse Baptist Association W.M.U. Council has been aimed at turning the words of the watchword into reality through our schedule of activities and training opportunities.

The W.M.U. Council has met regularly this year to promote and plan the work of the council. We attended state and associational workshops. The state-led regional workshop was held at Adamsville Church in Goldsboro, August 5, 1989. We are a distinguished council, having met the goals required on the achievement guide for the last six years.

The Associational Workshop, led by our council, for all church officers and leaders of N.B.A. was held at Kennedy Home Church in Kinston, September 7, 1989. Ten conferences were held with 81 in attendance and 21 churches represented. There was a "book store" (helpful to the women to get new materials for the coming year) with total sales $231.40.

Mary Knott represented W.M.U. at Ridgecrest Key Leadership Conference in May. In August she led Associational Key Leadership W.M.U. Conference held at First Baptist Church, Kinston, assisted by Associational W.M.U. Director.

The W.M.U. Council recommended that our churches give $10.00 each, by December 1, to help with Christmas presents and other items at the Women's Correctional Center in Raleigh, North Carolina; this being the overall mission action project from the association.

The W.M.U. Council voted to send $100 to Nona Kay Bickerstaff in New York to help with a missions project. Nona Kay is a former W.M.U. staff member of B.S.C. of North Carolina. She is now a C.C.M. Director in New York.

The W.M.U. Council voted to send $50 to II Century Fund in honor of Carolyn Weatherford's marriage (as requested by her in lieu of personal gifts).

The W.M.U. Council voted to pay the registration fee ($40 per person) for four Acteens to attend the National Acteens Convention (N.A.C.) at San Antonio, Texas, July 12-15, 1989. We were proud to have Neuse Association represented by two Acteens and leader from Pikeville Church and two Acteens and leader from Emmaus Church. We are glad Jean Kirk, Acteens Director of N.B.A., asked that this be done.

The council has urged all churches to promote goals for Foreign, Home State Missions, World Hunger and World Day of Prayer.

Churches met in LaGrange Baptist Church for the World Day of Prayer. The program was given by women from the different churches. The Baptist Women's Director, Pat Speight, and Assistant, Mary Higginbotham, and B.Y.W. Director, Betty Elmore, planned the program.

All year the age-level directors have planned and promoted the work of the association and held special events such as prayer retreats, rallies, a sleep over, special mission studies and Bible study. Some girls attended our state camp at Mundo Vista. New organizations have been started in the churches. Acteens of N.B.A. were recognized in "Tarheel Talk" for significant new starts. Lots more work needs to be done to improve mission education. We need dedicated women to give of their time and talent to help out in our weak areas.

A Prayer Retreat was held May 20, 1989, at New Hope Church. Sylvia Wellmon, former Association W.M.U. Director and Foreign Missionary to Antigua, led the retreat. Sylvia now lives in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Our annual prayer breakfast, sponsored by W.M.U. and Brotherhood, was held January 19, 1989, at Tug Boat Annie's Restaurant in Goldsboro. Good breakfast; 135 people attended. Program included devotion by Bob Belcher, D.O.M., and guest speakers, Rick Overman and Mr. and Mrs. Don Pittman. Rev. Overman gave a short missionary message. The Pittman's from Carthage, North Carolina, gave an interesting talk and slide show of their experiences in Ethiopia. The couple had recently served as short-term (one year) volunteers through the Foreign Mission Board in the area of agriculture. Thanks to Buck Hill, Baptist Men's President of N.B.A., for inviting the Pittman's and for paying all their expenses.

Acteens had an associational celebration (rescheduled due to ice storm from February to March 11, 1989) at Rosewood Church with the theme: "Put Your Heart Into Missions." Girls in Action (G.A.'s) had a sleep over at Rivermont Church with the theme: "Give Yourself Away in G.A.'s." Mission Friends had a rally at Trinity Church celebrating the 100th birthday of the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. Baptist Young Women met but had no special program and they met with the Baptist Women for special occasions.

The Annual W.M.U. Spring Meeting was held in Kinston at Calvary Baptist Church. Due to the weather, we had a small crowd, but everything was so well planned by the pastor, Paul Womack, and church W.M.U. Director, Sally Conley, with the help of the host churches. We had a wonderful fellowship and covered dish supper. The program began at seven o'clock with host pastor giving the devotion. Special music was by Elaine Johnson and Irene Allen from Adamsville Church. Vivian Simpson from Buies Creek was our guest speaker. She brought to our attention the watchword of the year and impressed upon us the need to hear, to look, to declare and to proclaim new things, even search for hidden things we had not known. Mrs. Simpson used illustrations from her recent trip and tour of "Lottie Moon's China." Reports were given by W.M.U. Director of N.B.A. A mission offering was taken. Nominating Committee gave their report. Gifts and awards were presented. Centennial churches in the association were recognized. It was noted that a majority of churches had observed and emphasized W.M.U. Centennial, but had failed to send in reports to the state office. Mary Knott led the installation service for officers. Elaine Johnson sang "The Lord's Prayer" as our benediction.

Thanks to the Associational W.M.U. Council.

Thanks to all our churches for your support through prayers, giving and witnessing this year. You have helped with so many projects both promoted by Jeanette Walters and others to help people who are hurting in so many ways in our counties. Continue to serve and ask yourself - "What do I hold in my hand for God?". Think of Moses and David.

May God bless us to always hear His call.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucy Pittman

Brotherhood Report

It is a pleasure to share with you some of the things that are going on within the Brotherhood of the Neuse Baptist Association. This past year, 1988-89, I have visited a number of our churches. At the present time we have 24 of our churches with a Brotherhood program going and a lot of enthusiasm is being shown in the Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador programs. During my visits I found churches involved in mission work by having Baptist Men and R.A.'s ministering in nursing homes and in projects of assisting the elderly and handicapped in yard maintenance and repairs to their homes. One of our churches is holding prison services at Wayne Correctional Center the third Thursday of each month and as a result of this ministry, souls are being saved and inmates are rededicating their lives at each service.

A Brotherhood Workshop, led by representatives from North Carolina Baptist Men, was held at Kennedy Home Church in October 1988 with 42 Baptist Men and R.A. leaders in attendance.

I attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May 1989, and by sharing with other Brotherhood Directors from other associations and getting their input, I received a number of ideas that we have implemented in our association. One of these is the beginning of a Brotherhood Council, consisting of the Brotherhood Director, Baptist Men's President, Baptist Young Men's Director and R.A. Director. This council is meeting quarterly with the Director of Missions to plan the work of the Brotherhood.

I never realized that the Baptist Men of North Carolina had as many projects going on as they do, in our state and overseas. At the present time we are working on recruiting a 20-man team for both the "medical bus" and "disaster relief van." These men will be on stand-by in case of a disaster in our association, and to help with medical needs when it is called to our three-county area.

During the year I attended a Brotherhood Training Conference at Caraway and also the Baptist Men's Board Meeting at Caraway in March 1989. I attended the North Carolina Baptist Men's Convention, January 1989. A number of new ideas was obtained at these meetings. Buck Hill, Baptist Men's President; Bobby Heath, Baptist Young Men's Director; M.B. Jenkins, R.A. Director, and I are available to help you in any way we can to start a Brotherhood or assist you in the program you presently have going. Please, don't hesitate to call on us.

Video tapes and equipment may be checked out from the N.B.A. office to use for your programs. Material is available for you to get for all phases and age levels of Brotherhood work. It may be ordered from the Baptist Book Store (toll free) 1-800-522-2152 and some free materials may be received from North Carolina Baptist Men's state office in Cary by calling 1-800-344-7781.

BAPTIST MEN REPORT

This past year, 1988-89, I assisted the Brotherhood Director in visiting churches within the association and speaking at two of our churches. With the help of some men from the association we remodeled the storage building at the associational office. I worked on the farm at Buies Creek and helped the North Carolina Baptist Men with the annual field day at the Agriculture Farm. I attended the North Carolina Baptist Men Board Meeting in March 1989 at Camp Caraway and at Caswell in September 1989. I attended the North Carolina Baptist Men training session held at Caraway in June 1989. I attended the Agriculture Mission Conference at Caraway in February 1989. I participated in two Lay Renewals during the past year, attended school for Baptist Men specialist training and helped with several workshops. I was invited and spoke at several churches in other associations for Baptist Men's emphasis.

Wherever I go I emphasize that I am from the Neuse Association and Spilman Memorial Church. I wish our association of churches would give me more opportunities to help them with their Brotherhood/Baptist Men's program. I am available to help our churches in any way that I can and may be reached at (919) 523-2962 or 1-800-682-0202.

ROYAL AMBASSADORS REPORT

In the past year the R.A.'s have had several events:

Conclave at Eagles Nest
Leadership Training
Brotherhood Banquet
Car Competition/Missions Fair
R.A./G.A./Acteens/H.S.B.Y.M. Track Meet

All of the above events were a success and would have been impossible without the help of a few men and their wives. These people comprise the associational R.A. Committee. A big thank you to these people for a job well done.

I have attended two state training sessions and have helped the state Brotherhood Department by also teaching three workshops. I have served as a member of the state Royal Ambassador Committee again this year. It has been a pleasure serving the association this year and I look forward to a long tenure in this position.

Respectfully submitted,
Jim Small, Brotherhood Director
Buck Hill, Baptist Men President

Evangelism Report

The Evangelism Committee has been able to encourage our churches in several areas of evangelism. Eleven churches have had Lay Evangelism Schools with very good results, and more are planned as we move toward the 1990 "Here's Hope" simultaneous revivals. The "Year of the Laity" has brought new focus of the need to enlist and train our people to be reaching out with the gospel.

The Cliffs of the Neuse resort ministry on Sunday mornings at 9:00 a.m. was very well attended by campers and staff. This provided an opportunity to give a witness to a number from different states and especially from our area.

Two buses were charted for the Super-Summer Youth meeting in Carowinds in July. Altogether over five buses from our association attended the event which resulted in over 300 professions of faith.

We believe we will have good participation in the "Here's Hope" Revivals and a Steering Committee has been selected to train the steering committees from each church. We are praying for over 500 baptisms during the next year.

A request will be submitted to the Constitution and Bylaws Committee to change the Evangelism Committee to an Evangelism Council in order to conform to Home Mission Board reports. It will also help in long-range planning as well as involving more people in specialty ministries of evangelism.

Finally, plans have been made to begin a Black ministry in the East Kinston area during the next year.

Music Committee Report

The churches of the N.B.A. are diverse and have a wide range of music styles. It is especially exciting to hear the various choirs sing their praise to God.

This past year we held two major events: (1) Associational Choir Festival, and (2) Children's Choir Camp.

The Associational Choir Festival was held October 30, at First Church, Kinston. A total of eight choirs participated and the congregation numbered approximately 500. After a high musical worship experience, an offering was taken to help support Associational Missions. The 1989 Choir Festival is scheduled October 29 at First Baptist Church, Goldsboro.

The Second Annual Children's Choir Camp was held July 17-20, at First Church, Kinston. The camp featured eighty plus children who shared their music in a closing worship service. The camp was associational and ecumenical, and leaders came from Neuse Baptist, First Baptist, Kinston, and Queen Street United Methodist, Kinston. Next year's dates are July 23-26, 1990.

The music ministry continues to grow and blossom under God's providence. Next year we are adding a youth choir workshop to encourage teenagers to attend the Youth Choir Festival at Wake Forest University, March 23, 1990.

Finally, I am your music minister; PLEASE call me if I can be of any service whatsoever, especially in small churches. The State Music Department has "Small Church Music Schools" adapted to each church's needs. Please see me for further information.

Respectfully submitted,
Steve R. Gibson

Constitution and Bylaws Committee Report

Upon recommendation of the Associational Council and in compliance with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Association, the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws presents the following amendments in the form of changes and additions:

ITEM NO. 1

(1) To add "Committee on Scholarships" to Constitution Article IX, COMMITTEES, Section 2, Q.

(2) To add the following to Bylaws Article II, Composition and Duties of Committees, Section 17, COMMITTEE ON SCHOLARSHIPS shall be composed of three members, one of whom shall be the Director of Missions. The remaining two members shall be nominated by the Association Nominating Committee and be elected annually with other associational leaders. Serving as ex officio members will be the Executive Director of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation and Russell and Joeann Ault, or their direct descendants, so long as they desire to serve in such capacity. The chairperson shall be elected from the two at-large members of the committee.

The committee shall be diligent in fulfilling requirements of the guidelines established for the Russell and Joeann Ault Scholarship Trust, which includes the soliciting of prospective recipients.

ITEM NO. 2

(1) To add "Committee on Personnel" to Constitution Article IX, COMMITTEES, Section 2, R.

(2) To add the following to Bylaws Article II, Composition and Duties of Committees, Section 18, COMMITTEE ON PERSONNEL shall be composed of three members plus the Director of Missions, Moderator and Treasurer. The task of this committee is to implement the personnel policies of the Association; to recommend changes in these policies when needed; to establish job descriptions for all staff positions; to review staff salary structure annually and make recommendations to the Stewardship Committee prior to the adoption of the annual Associational Budget. This committee also should serve in helping foster good staff relations. When vacancies occur this committee will function as a search committee in consultation with appropriate committees of the Association. They will, when ready, present a staff person to the Association for employment.

(1) To add "Associational Missions Development Council" to Constitution Article IX, COMMITTEES, Section 2, S.

(2) To add the following to Bylaws Article II, Composition and Duties of Committees, Section 19, ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL shall be composed of three at-large members, plus the Church and Community Ministries Director; the Chairperson of all component programs; a representative of the Brotherhood (Mission Action Leader); Woman's Missionary Union (Mission Action Leader); and Sunday School (Outreach Leader). The chairperson shall be elected from the at-large members.

The council shall have component programs (i.e. Migrant, Prisons, Language, Mentally Handicapped, Military, etc.) as the Association may from time to time deem necessary to carry out the work of the Associational Missions Development Council. If from time to time the need arises for a component program, the Associational Missions Development Council shall have authority to establish such component program and appoint a chairperson as needed until the next council meeting of the Association at which time said program shall be presented for approval.

The at-large members of the Associational Missions Development Council shall be nominated by the Associational Nominating Committee and elected annually by the Association when it elects its other program leaders.

Ex officio members of the Associational Missions Development Council include the Director of Missions, Moderator, and other associational staff members with related assignments.

Associational Missions Development Council has five missions performance tasks: They are to (1) call churches to be on mission; (2) provide resources and services to churches and leaders; (3) train, develop and encourage church and associational workers; (4) provide opportunities for working together in missions, ministry, growth and evangelism; (5) establish and maintain appropriate communications and relationships with the community and the denomination.

ITEM NO. 4

(1) To delete Section 1, Constitution Article VIII, ADMINISTRATION, and substitute the following: Section 1. The Director of Missions shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the Association and denomination. When it becomes necessary to fill the office of Director of Missions, the Nominating Committee shall name a special committee of five members for the approval of the Associational Council, whose purpose will be to fill this vacancy.

This committee shall bring one person at a time before the Associational Council for consideration, and no nomination shall be made except that of the special committee. Election shall be made by ballot, with an affirmative vote of three-fourths vote of those present and voting necessary for a call. Should the one recommended by the committee fail to receive three-fourths vote, the committee will be instructed to seek out another nominee for the office of Director of Missions.

ITEM NO. 5

(1) Constitution Article IX, COMMITTEES, Section 2. DELETE the words "The Camp Committee" in the fourth line. DELETE the words "Committee on Missions" in H. and substitute the words "Committee on Church Extension." DELETE "K. Committee on Camp Activities," and re-align this section.

(2) In Bylaws Article II, Composition and Duties of Committees, make the following changes: Section 8 DELETE "COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS" and substitute "COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION." DELETE the word "Missions" on line 6 and substitute "Church Extension." DELETE the word "Missions" on line 8 and substitute "Church Extension." Add the word "New" on line 9 before the word "Church." DELETE "Section 11, THE COMMITTEE ON CAMP ACTIVITIES," entirely. Renumber the sections of Article II.

Constitution

Neuse Baptist Association

ARTICLE I. NAME

This body shall be known as the Neuse Baptist Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association shall be to devise, recommend and promote measures of increasing the harmony and spiritual power of the cooperating churches, to assist in developing and directing their energies, resources and gifts in advancing the Redeemer's Kingdom, and to cooperate with the Baptist Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in all religious, educational, missions, Sunday School, Church Training, Brotherhood, Women's Missionary Union and other work fostered by the said convention.

The Neuse Baptist Association is a non-profit organization and no profit shall inure to any individual connected with the organization except in consideration for services rendered. In the event of dissolution of the Association, all assets would be conveyed to the churches of the Neuse Baptist Association.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Membership in the body shall be composed of all pastors and duly elected messengers of the cooperating churches.

SECTION 2. Each church shall be represented, at the annual meeting of the Association and at any special meeting during the year, by messengers who shall be duly certified, in the following ratio: Each church with a membership of not more than one hundred members (100) shall be entitled to five (5) messengers. Churches having more than one hundred (100) members shall be entitled to an additional messenger for every additional one hundred (100) members or a major fraction thereof, providing that no church shall have more than twelve (12) messengers.

SECTION 3. New churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association must make written application to the Missions Committee not later than one month prior to the last meeting of the Associational Council prior to the annual meeting of the Association, giving evidence of their faith and order, and their agreement to cooperate in the general program of the Association, the Baptist Convention of North Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Convention. The Missions Committee shall study applications and make recommendations to the Associational Council regarding same, and in turn, the Associational Council shall make its recommendations to the annual meeting of the Association for its action.

SECTION 4. All new missions and new churches should be sponsored by a local church or churches.

SECTION 5. The Association shall have power, upon given written notice of nine (9) months and by two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of messengers present and voting, to withdraw fellowship from any church that willfully departs from orthodox principles of the Christian religion as taught in the Southern Baptist churches or that fails to represent itself either by messenger or by letter at the annual session of the Association without sufficient reason or that fails to support causes fostered by the denomination at large and of this association in particular or that ceases to be missionary in practice.

SECTION 6. Any church may decline to send messengers to the Association at its pleasure. Whenever this constitutes a withdrawal of fellowship on the part of the church, the Association shall not as a body, or through a representative or representatives, seek to restrain by coercion or by law the withdrawal action of the church.

ARTICLE IV. MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The Association shall convene annually on the fourth Monday and Tuesday nights in October and may meet with different churches on the two (2) successive days.

SECTION 2. The time of the annual meetings may be changed, or special meetings called, by the Associational Council upon notice to the cooperating churches.

ARTICLE V. FISCAL YEAR

This fiscal year of the Association shall begin on January first (1st) and end on December thirty-first (31st) of each year.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The officers of the Association shall be a Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Historian, the Trustees, the Associational Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, and such others as may be authorized by the Association.

SECTION 2. All officers shall be members of churches affiliated with the Association.

SECTION 3. Nominations for Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, and Brotherhood Director shall be presented to the Associational Council at its spring meeting for approval. These nominees shall then serve as "Officers Elect" until the annual meeting of the Association, at which time they shall be considered for election by the Association. Nominees for all other officers shall be presented at the annual meeting. Any officer may be elected to succeed himself, except the Moderator, who may not serve more than two (2) years in succession. Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Associational Council.

ARTICLE VII. THE ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Associational Council shall consist of each Director of Missions, the immediate Past-Moderator, the representatives of the Denominational agencies, and two (2) lay members from each cooperative church, to be elected by the church. The names of the lay members shall be duly certified by notifying the Associational Clerk.

SECTION 2. The Officers of the Association shall serve as the Officers of the Council.

SECTION 3. The Associational Council shall act for the Association in the interim between annual sessions. It shall carry out the policies and will of the Association, and shall make reports to the Association at its annual meeting. The Associational Council also has the power to fill vacancies among the Officers and Committees of the Association that may occur during the year.

SECTION 4. Twenty (20) members of the Associational Council will constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII. ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1. The Director of Missions shall be charged with the responsibility of the promotion of the whole program of the Association and denomination. When it becomes necessary to fill the office of Director of Missions, the Nominating Committee shall name a specified committee of five members for the approval of the Associational Council, whose purpose will be to fill this vacancy.

This committee shall bring one person at a time before the Associational Council for consideration, and no nomination shall be made except that of the special committee. Election shall be made by ballot, with an affirmative vote of three-fourths vote of those present and voting necessary for a call. Should the one recommended by the committee fail to receive three-fourths vote, the committee will be instructed to seek out another nominee for the office of Director of Missions.

ARTICLE IX. COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. That the Nominating Committee has the responsibility to offer nominations to the annual meeting for members and chairmen of all Standing Committees herein provided except those already named by the Constitution.

SECTION 2. The Association shall have the Standing Committees listed below, along with other committees authorized by the Association. These committees shall begin their duties at the close of the annual session, and shall make reports of their work to the Associational Council. Members of the committee shall be selected from the membership of those churches cooperating with the Association and are subject to re-election provided, that in no case, any person shall serve on the same committee longer than three (3) years in succession with the exception of the Music Committee and the Senior Citizens Committee. The Moderator and Director of Missions shall be considered ex officio members of all Standing Committees.

4. He shall submit a report of his work to the Associational Council at its meetings, and to the Association at its annual meeting.
5. A notice of thirty (30) days shall be given by the Director of Missions or the Association before employment is terminated.

ARTICLE II - COMPOSITION AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. THE COMMITTEE ON ORDER OF BUSINESS, consisting of five (5) members, shall prepare the program for the annual sessions. This suggested program shall be presented to the Association at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting for action. The Officers of the Association and the President of the Ministers' Conference are Ex Officio members. The Moderator shall serve as Chairman.

SECTION 2. THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS shall be composed of seven (7) members whose duties shall be to present nominations for the "Officers Elect:" to the spring meeting of the Associational Council, and to the Association for all officers and committees herein, or by the Association. They shall present nominations to the Association for the representatives of the various agencies of the State Convention. They shall also present nominations to the Associational Council to fill any vacancy which may occur during the year.

SECTION 3. THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM shall be composed of five (5) members who shall cooperate with the State Chairman of Evangelism in the promotion of approved evangelistic efforts within the Association. It shall encourage evangelism in the churches, especially where the need is apparent, and shall help provide evangelistic services in the un-churched areas within the boundaries of the Association.

SECTION 4. THE COMMITTEE ON ORDINATION shall be composed of three (3) members who shall act in an advisory capacity for churches. The committee shall assist any church which requests its services in the examination of candidates for the Christian ministry. It shall help arrange, where necessary, proper services of ordination. Churches are requested to use this committee to examine candidates only after their call to some specific work. Further, churches are requested to refrain from announcing the date of ordination until after the candidate has received approval by this committee.

SECTION 5. THE COMMITTEE ON PLACE AND PREACHER shall be composed of three (3) members, whose duty it shall be to receive or solicit invitations for the place of meeting of the annual session for the following year, and to recommend to the Association in annual session, a place or places of meeting, along with a preacher and alternate for the sermon for the following year.

SECTION 6. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS shall be composed of three (3) members and shall review all resolutions referred to it by the Association, the Associational Council, or the Planning Committee, and report suitable resolutions at the annual meeting.

SECTION 7. THE COMMITTEE ON STEWARDSHIP shall be composed of eight (8) members - one from each of the counties of Duplin, Green, Lenoir, and Wayne, and one at large, plus the Moderator, Treasurer and Director of Missions. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The committee shall hear and give consideration to requests of the Associational Council and other leaders in the Associational work, and these requests are to be submitted not later than July 1st of each year. The committee shall: offer assistance to the churches in developing an understanding of the commitment to the Biblical concepts of individual and corporate stewardship; promote the challenges and opportunities of the Association for which stewardship resources are needed; increase world missions understanding by promoting the Cooperative Program, the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions and Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions, the Homes and Hospital Offering, State Missions Offering and the Neuse Baptist Association Mission Offering; develop and promote a budget to accomplish the ministries of the Association; administer an accounting system that assures sound procedures for collecting, safeguarding, and disbursing funds; make a financial report to the Associational Council; and have a professional audit made of the Treasurer's books and make a report to the Association in its annual meeting.

SECTION 8. THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION shall be composed of five (5) members whose duties it shall be to ascertain the need of new churches within the boundaries of the Association; to recommend to the Associational Council the location of sites and the purchasing of lots for such churches and to assist the organization of such churches as might be authorized. Churches contemplating making debts on lots, buildings, improvements and/or asking for Pastor's aid, must have the recommendation of the Church Extension Committee and approval of the Associational Council if they expect to apply to the Baptist State Mission Board for aid in paying for the same. It shall be the duty of the Church Extension Committee to study the applications of new churches seeking to seat messengers in the Association as to evidence of their faith and order, and their agreement to cooperate in the general program of the Association, the Baptist State Convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention.

SECTION 9. THE COMMITTEE ON MUSIC shall be composed of three (3) members who shall cooperate with the Music Department of the State Convention and shall assist in any music program approved by the Association. The Chairman shall also serve as Associational Music Director.

SECTION 10. THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN LIFE shall be composed of three (3) members who shall work with local and State Officials in every phase of promoting civic righteousness.

SECTION 11. THE COMMITTEE ON CAMP ACTIVITIES shall be composed of three (3) members. The Chairman shall serve as Camp Director. The duties of the committee shall be to plan and execute the summer camp.

SECTION 11. THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS shall be composed of three (3) members who shall receive all proposed changes thereto and, upon study of this or other observations, making recommendations to the Association on all Constitution and Bylaw changes.

SECTION 12. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS consisting of three (3) members shall plan for our beloved dead a memorial service to be conducted during the annual session of the Association.

SECTION 13. THE COMMITTEE ON SENIOR CITIZENS shall consist of five (5) members and shall plan a program of ministry for Senior Citizens on the Associational level.

SECTION 14. THE COMMITTEE ON PASTOR/CHURCH RELATIONS shall be composed of five (5) members, with one (1) retired minister, two (2) active ministers, and two (2) laypersons and the Director of Missions serving as ex officio member. The members of this committee shall be elected annually by the Associational Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Director of Missions. A vacancy shall be filled by the Associational Executive Committee upon the recommendation of the Director of Missions. It shall meet as needed. The officers shall consist of a chairman. The principal function of this committee shall be to promote better relations between churches and their pastors, and advise and consult with pastors and/or church members upon their request. The committee shall also seek ways of improving communications between congregations and their ministers and help member churches find ways of easing tensions and keeping open lines of communication.

SECTION 15. THE COMMITTEE ON PROPERTIES AND EQUIPMENT shall be composed of six (6) members. The officers shall consist of a chairman and a secretary. It shall: oversee the upkeep and needs of the Associational building(s) and ground(s); periodically inspect and inventory the Associational properties and equipment; make recommendations regarding improvements, updating, maintenance, and adequate insurance coverage; develop and recommend a program of upkeep and preventive maintenance; develop and recommend policies and procedures for using Associational facilities and equipment; develop job descriptions and recommend contracting for maintenance and upkeep personnel; request and administer a maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget; and report to the Associational Council and at the Association's annual meeting.

SECTION 16. THE ASSOCIATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE shall be composed of the Associational Officers, the Department Directors, the Committee Chairmen, and the Director of Missions who will serve as chairman. This committee will assist the Director of Missions in planning, coordinating and implementing the program of the Association. They will meet on a quarterly basis or as needed.

SECTION 17. COMMITTEE ON SCHOLARSHIPS shall be composed of three (3) members, one of whom shall be the Director of Missions. The remaining two members shall be nominated by the Association Nominating Committee and be elected annually with other associational leaders. Serving as ex officio members will be the Executive Director of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation and Russell and Joeann Ault, or their direct descendants, so long as they desire to serve in such capacity. The chairperson shall be elected from the two-at-large members of the committee.

The committee shall be diligent in fulfilling requirements of the guidelines established for the Russell and Joeann Ault Scholarship Trust, which includes the soliciting of prospective recipients.

SECTION 18. COMMITTEE ON PERSONNEL shall be composed of three members plus the Director of Missions, Moderator, and Treasurer. The task of this committee is to implement the personnel policies of the Association; to recommend changes in these policies when needed; to establish job descriptions for all staff positions; to review staff salary structure annually and make recommendations to the Stewardship Committee prior to the adoption of the annual Associational Budget. This committee also should serve in helping foster good staff relations. When vacancies occur this committee will function as a search committee in consultation with appropriate committees of the Association. They will, when ready, present a staff person to the Association for employment.

SECTION 19. ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL shall be composed of three at-large members, plus the Church and Community Ministries Director; the chairperson of all component programs; a representative of the Brotherhood (Mission Action Leader); Woman's Missionary Union (Mission Action Leader); and Sunday School (Outreach Leader). The chairperson shall be elected from the at-large members.

The council shall have component programs (i.e. Migrant, Prisons, Language, Mentally Handicapped, Military, etc.) as the Association may from time to time deem necessary to carry out the work of the Associational Missions Development Council. If from time to time the need arises for a component program, the Associational Missions Development Council shall have authority to establish such component program and appoint a chairperson as needed until the next council meeting of the Association at which time said program shall be presented for approval.

The at-large members of the Associational Missions Development Council shall be nominated by the Associational Nominating Committee and elected annually by the Association when it elects its other program leaders.

Ex officio members of the Associational Missions Development Council include the Director of Missions, Moderator, and other Associational staff members with related assignments.

Associational Missions Development Council has five missions performance tasks: They are to (1) call churches to be on mission; (2) provide resources and services to churches and leaders; (3) train, develop and encourage church and Associational workers; (4) provide opportunities for working together in missions, ministry, growth and evangelism; (5) establish and maintain appropriate communications and relationships with the community and the denomination.

ARTICLE III - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The officers of the Council shall be the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, and the Clerk of the Association.

SECTION 2. The Associational Council shall hold an organizational meeting within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting, and shall set up the following subcommittees, and any other deemed necessary for the proper handling of Associational business between the annual sessions:

THE CALENDAR COMMITTEE: This committee shall be composed of the officers of the Association, the President of the Ministers' Conference, and the Director of Missions. (It shall be the duty of this Committee to plan and recommend to the Associational Council at the annual session of the Association, a Calendar of Activities for the coming year. The Vice-Moderator shall serve as chairman.)

SECTION 3. The Council shall meet every other month (except July and August). The first meeting shall be held within sixty (60) days after the annual meeting. Time and places of these meetings shall be determined by the Council.

SECTION 4. The Council shall submit to the Association in annual session a full and complete Budget, Calendar of Activities, and a full and complete report of its work.

ARTICLE IV - RULES OF ORDER

The following rules shall govern deliberations in the meeting of the Association and the Associational Council.

SECTION 1. The official transaction of business in all regular meetings of the Association and the Associational Council shall be by the affirmative majority vote of the members present and voting, except in matters relating to the Constitution, the withdrawing of fellowship from any cooperating church, and the seating of messengers from those churches desiring to cooperate with the Association. In called meetings of the Associational Council, a number equal to the majority of the membership of the Associational Council and representing a majority of the cooperating churches shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

SECTION 2. A messenger wishing to speak shall rise and address the presiding officer. He shall confine himself to the question under consideration and shall avoid all personalities. No messenger shall speak more than twice on the same subject without special permission.

SECTION 3. All motions seconded shall be definitely stated by the presiding officer or at his request, read by the clerk before the vote is taken.

SECTION 4. When a question is under consideration, no other motion or proposition shall be received except a motion to adjourn, lay on the table, to amend, to commit, to postpone, to a definite time. When there are several motions, they shall have preference in the order in which they come.

SECTION 5. The general business of the Association shall be recommended by the Committee on Order of Business at the beginning of the first session of the annual meeting of the Association. When adopted this report shall become the order of business for the members and cannot be changed except by the vote of the Association.

SECTION 6. All questions of order not herein provided for shall be decided by Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE V - ADOPTION OF BYLAWS

SECTION 1. These Bylaws shall take effect immediately upon their adoption, and shall supersede any and all Bylaws previously adopted.

SECTION 2. These Bylaws may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association provided the amendment has been presented in writing to the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws no later than September 1, and presented to the October meeting of the Associational Council. Passage shall be by majority vote of the messengers present and voting.

Associational Council Report

The first Association Council Meeting was held at Grainger Baptist Church on December 4, 1989. Pastor John Green gave the devotion and opening prayer. Organization and committee reports were given. 1) Rev. Elwin Melton recommended an increase in Bobbie Belcher's insurance from $5,232 as stated in budget to $6,119. 2) Rev. Tom Waits stated the NBA ASSISTeam has been recognized as a "Standard" organization, 1 of 15 in North Carolina. 3) Rev. M.O. Sears reported the beginning of a "Black" ministry in east Kinston.

The second of five Association Council meetings was held in Mount Nelson Baptist Church on February 12, 1990. Organization and committee reports were given. Bobbie Belcher, DOM, 1) recognized and presented Mr. Walter H. Murray, Mrs. Catherine Ham and Mr. Jesse Croom a plaque in recognition of over 50 years service to Neuse Association. 2) Presented Rev. Dick Westbrook with a Seminary Extension Diploma for completing coarse in Associational Leadership. 3) Made motion that NBA have a World Missions Conference in 1995. 4) Recognized Rev. Hal Bilbo of Burgaw, North Carolina, a "Church Growth Multiplier." 5) Recognized Mr. John Sally who works with the "Bus Ministry" sponsored by North Carolina Baptist Men. The brand new "medical van," which cost $140,000, was parked outside the church for all to tour, firsthand. 6) Jeanette Walters made motion that Dickie Gunther be elected as Prison Ministry Chairman. 7) Rev. Bill Brown made request for $4,000 to help with Hispanic work. 8) Rev. Bill Haskins requested all churches give $1 per Sunday School member for "Here's Hope Crusade" publicity. All requests and motions carried. Thanks were expressed to the many churches who had helped the "Hurricane Hugo" victims in Manning, South Carolina and North Carolina.

Neuse Association held its third council meeting in Fremont Baptist Church on April 2, 1990. Organization and committee chairpersons gave reports. 1) Jeanette Walters stated two mission teams coming to work in NBA this summer from Georgia. 2) Our first "Great Day In May" rally for mentally retarded will be held at Kinston First Church on May 17, 1990. 3) Rev. Tom Waits and DOM received an award as recognition for their contribution to the achievement of the "James W. Chatham Award" for Associational Sunday School team. 4) DOM made motion that the Steering Committee for Associational Strategy Planning be composed of Don Meadows, Rev. Dick Westbrook, Rev. Harold Burton, Warren Tilghman and Dick Correll, Rev. Harvey Sharpe, Rev. Bill Brown and Doug Joyner. 5) Rev. Brantley Stevens made motion that the following report be adopted: a. Sunday School, Tom Waits; b. Discipleship Training, Lynn Peters; c. WMU, Mary Smith; d. Baptist Men President, Bobby Walls; e. Clerk, Pat Speight; and Assistant Clerk, Jean Kirk. 6) Robert Garrett of Spilman Memorial Church was examined for ordination. 7) Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Parker were recognized for their contribution to the Baptist Foundation.

The fourth Associational Council Meeting was held at Immanuel Baptist Church in Kinston, June 4, with an outdoor picnic catered by Buddy's Barbecue of Grifton. During reports by organization and committee chairmen, the DOM — 1) Recognized Wesley Cureton, summer Migrant Missions Worker, Texan and seminary student back for second term in NBA. 2) Introduced Stan Cabell as new pastor of Neuse Church and George Lajueness as "church planter" for 10 week-period in NBA. 3. Rev. Brantley Stevens made motion that the association accept M.B. Jenkins, Brotherhod Director. 4. Rev. Elwin Melton made motion to increase DOM's insurance by $91.00 per month. 5. Rev. Lynn Peters resigned as Discipleship Training Director due to accepting pastorate in South Carolina. 6. Clerk, Ellen Hawley, offered resignation. All requests and motions carried.

The last regular Associational Council meetings of the year was held at Seven Springs Baptist Church on October 1, 1990. Organization and committee reports were given. Bobbie Belcher, DOM, showed a copy of the completed summary of the Associational Strategy Planning Committee report and announced that the report would be presented at the Annual Meeting on October 22. He announced that we would publish a clerk's "honor roll" of those who met the NBA Office deadline for receiving the Uniform Church Letters. All were invited to the dedication of the Hispanic Mission Building at LaGrange on Sunday, October 14, 1990.

It was noted that "prayer guides" for Associational Emphasis Week were available for the churches to use, and it was suggested that each of our churches take a special offering for associational missions on October 28. The offering goal is $4,000 which will be used to pay off the mortgage on office/property.

M.O. Sears, Director of Associational Missions Development Council asked for approval of component program chairpersons as follows: John Green, to chair new "Black Church Relations" program; JoAnn Neal, Mentally Retarded; Dickie Gunther, Prison Ministry; Harvey Sharpe, Military Ministry; Ann White, Literacy Language.

Proceedings

Neuse Baptist 62nd Association Annual Meeting

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1990

1. The first session of the Neuse Baptist Associational Annual Meeting was held Monday night at 7 p.m. at Calvary Baptist Church (K). The meeting was opened with the singing of "To Worship, Work and Witness." Rev. Paul Womack, pastor of Calvary, read the scripture and called on Rev. Bill Brown, his former pastor, to offer the prayer.

2. Rev. Womack welcomed everyone and gave them directions around the church.

3. Lacy Oliver, Moderator, asked if anyone objected to the program. It was accepted as printed.

4. The Clerk, Pat Speight, made a motion that the messengers be accepted as registered —and those to be registered in the future. It was seconded and passed.

5. Rev. Bobbie Belcher, DOM, made a motion that the calendar for the Neuse Association on page 24 of the Book of Reports be accepted with only one change. The Associational Council meeting on April 8 was changed to Kinston First Baptist, and the Council Meeting on October 7 was changed to Spilman Church. This was the calendar for 1991 and will be handed out later. A motion was made, seconded, and passed to accept this calendar.

6. Rev. Belcher introduced the new pastors to our association as follows: Stan Cabell, Neuse; David Walker, Mt. Nelson; Isaiah Mejia, Spanish Mission; Gary Bradshaw, Pikeville; and Sam Jones, Pink Hill.

7. Registration reported at this meeting was 134 delegates from 28 churches.

8. The Moderator said that the Clerk would like to have motions made in writing so that her minutes might be more accurate. She made a motion that the minutes for the Council Meeting on page 4 and 5 be accepted as printed. This was so ordered.

9. Doug Joyner, Chairman of the Associational Strategy Planning presented the goals for the next five years. Each goal was explained by Aubrey Jones #1, Bess Hooks #2, Margaret Muegge #3, and M.B. Jenkins #4. The goals were accepted, after a second.

10. After the objectives were adopted by the group, Mr. Belcher encouraged the people to put feet under them—not just vote for them and let them die. He stressed that the committee had worked hard on these objectives, and it was the direction for the association in the years to come. With the encouragement from Lacy Oliver, the group was encouraged to take up a generous associational offering that could finish paying for the present office building—about $4,000.00.

11. There was discussion on the "need for a new associational resource center." A suggestion was made that the committee come back with some kind of recommendation about this item in April 1991. It seemed to be the consensus of those present that there was a real need for more space at the associational office. The Moderator asked all to stand who would support the Objectives for the coming five years. It was unanimous.

12. The congregation stood and sang "Rescue The Perishing." Then we heard a Patriotic Medley from the choir of Calvary Church (K). Rev. Thomas Jones was asked to pray for the world situation and especially our military.

REPORTS

13. EVANGELISM COMMITTEE - Rev. Bill Haskins called attention to page 17 of the Book of Reports. He mentioned the worth of pre-planning as some of the churches had done in the past year, and the work at the Cliffs of the Neuse.

14. DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS - Rev. Bobbie Belcher said his report was on page 8 of the Book of Reports. He mentioned "hand outs" that he had available, that we were facing our largest budget ever for the coming year, better support from all churches, the "Here's Hope" revivals, and the coming of Isaiah Mejia to the Spanish Mission. He said that we had so many institutions in this area—giving us so many more opportunities to minister.

15. His "dream session" included (1) the starting of a new church in the Goldsboro area (2) and the Kinston area (3) and the need for a "resource center" at the Associational Office. He stressed the need for a Seminary Extension person, new equipment for printing, and some type of new transportation for the association.

At the end of his "dream session," he praised the Church Clerks for their prompt and good work in getting their letters in on time. He gave out certificates to those Clerks who were present—or to a representative from that particular church.

16. ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS DEVELOMENT COUNCIL by Rev. M.O. Sears on page 12 in the Book of Reports.

17. CHURCH AND COMMUNITY DIRECTOR - Jeannette Walters said her report was on page 11 in the Book of Reports. The gist of her talk was that we share the gospel "so the lost may hear." She urged the churches to adopt a military family—not just think about it.

18. MUSIC COMMITTEE report was given by Steve Gibson. The report was on page 17 of the Book of Reports. He mentioned the Choir Festival that was coming up on the following Sunday night at Spilman Church. He also mentioned the choir workshop that was held at New Hope in September. The leader of this was Charles Storey of the BSC.

19. MEMORIAL SERVICE was conducted by McLean Taylor and Mr. M.O. Sears who stood in for Nancy Wilkie. There were 93 deaths from 30 churches reported on page 22 in the Book of Reports.

20. The group stood and sang "We've A Story to Tell" and then the choir from Calvary sang "Jesus Opened Up the Way."

21. The speaker was then introduced by Mr. Belcher. He was Don Kammerdiener, Executive Vice President of the FMB from Richmond, Virginia. His sermon was very uplifting because he reported on some of the advances we have made across the world as Baptist.

22. The meeting was then adjourned with refreshments and fellowship in the Recreation Room of the church—Calvary (K).

SECOND SESSION

23. The second meeting of the association was called to order at 7 p.m. at Emmaus Church, Dudley, North Carolina, with the singing of "I Love to Tell the Story." Rev. Johnny Sasser, pastor of Emmaus, read scripture from Luke 24 and talked about the "Road to Emmaus." He then welcomed the group and gave directions to the bathrooms and refreshment area after the meeting.

24. Registration report was 157 present representing 30 churches.

25. Lacy Oliver, Moderator, called for the three people on the program to come forward. They were Tom Waits, Mary Smith, and M.B. Jenkins. Since Mr. Waits was sick, his wife stood in for him.

REPORTS

26. SUNDAY SCHOOL/ASSIST TEAM report by Mrs. Waits did not get printed in the Book of Reports because of the emergency operation of Mr. Waits. A Sunday School Training School was announced for 1991. It will be held at First Baptist Church on January 28 and 29.

27. WOMEN'S MISSIONARY UNION report by Mary Smith is on page 18 of the Book of Reports. Mrs. Smith reported that the theme for the women had been "Reach, Teach, Touch" and she read from Matthew 25:40. She also announced the annual Prayer Breakfast to be held on January 12, 1991. She mentioned other highlights of the year that included the Annual Prayer Breakfast that was held on January 13; the GA Overnight meeting on February 16-17 at Rivermont; the special emphasis on the WMU which was "Acteens"; the Bylaws of Article VI, Section 5. Mary also mentioned that the new WMU officers for the coming year were installed by Lucy Pittman at the annual meeting at Madison Church.

28. BROTHERHOOD report was given by M.B. Jenkins for Jim Small, Brotherhood Director. The report is on page 15 and 16 of the Book of Reports. He urged every church to organize their men and boys and to use their available resources—the help of the ladies. He mentioned the Brotherhood Survey forms.

Jerry Richards was introduced to the group as a convention person. He is a retired chaplain.

29. Alton Quinn spoke for the Children's Homes. he is the Director of Kennedy Home and spoke of the changes that have come about in the child care program. He stressed that we must provide strong and sincere help to these children. He invited the people to visit the homes, and reminded them of the 18 months that the homes would be without offerings from the churches. Lacy Oliver urged the churches to take up a voluntary offering at Thanksgiving time for work at the homes.

30. The Moderator stopped the meeting for a short time and had the congregatioin to "hug" each other and greet each other.

31. Mr. Belcher reminded the group to pick up the handouts he had available, to look at the pictures that appeared in the Biblical Recorder, and also gave out certificates to those church Clerks who got their letter in by the deadline of October 10.

32. Mr. Johnny Sasser introduced his daughter, Brenda, who has been deaf since birth, and two other girlfriends who performed "sign language" singing. They were assisted by Ms. Nora Sasser and her son. The songs they did were dedicated to Gloria Bradshaw who has been instrumental in transporting Brenda to East Carolina. They ended the medley with "How Great Thou Art."

33. The message in music was then brought by the choir from Emmaus Church. They sang "God's Unchanging Hands."

BUSINESS SESSION:

34. DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING Director Roger Carlson reported on plans to try to educate the churches on what discipleship training is, what is a Christian, what Baptist believe, etc. He said there would be classes in the future to help educate our members on these items.

35. STEWARDSHIP Committee Chairman, Bill Brown, reported on the overall budget on pages 8-9 in the Book of Reports. The budget had an increase of $6,583.00 because of increased price on everything, and also because the association is doing more. A motion was made and seconded to accept this budget. One correction on Office Operations was made—the total should be $31,195.00 instead of $30,950.00. The budget was accepted.

36. Brantley Stevens of the Nominating Committee called the group's attention to pages 1, 2, and 3 of the Book of Reports and told the people they only needed to vote on the names that were underlined. This motion was seconded and passed.

37. The Place and Preacher Committee was represented by Joe Tyndall. He stood in for Braswell Smith. He said that the 1991 NBA Annual Meetings would be held on October 28, 1991, at Kinston First Baptist, and on October 29, 1991, at Rosewood. The sermon will be preached by Brantley Stevens, with Leon Smith serving as the alternate.

38. Mr. Belcher reviewed the sermon preached by Rev. Don Kammerdiener of the Foreign Mission Board on the previous night at Calvary Church. He stated that it was one of the most positive sermons he had heard in a long time.

39. He called the group's attention to pages 30 to 34 which included the five-year plan that has been submitted by the NBA Strategy Planning Committee. He called this the ROAD MAP for the association for the next five years, and stressed that we would not just put it on the shelf, but intended to follow up on it.

40. Mr. Belcher gave two standard Sunday School certificates to Sandy Bottoms and Adamsville Churches. Adamsville Church was recognized for its work in the youth area and is in the top ten churches in the SBC in this state in 1989.

41. A Declaration of Commitment for the "Witnessing/Giving" campaign was signed by Mr. Belcher, Brantley Stevens, Harold Burton, and Vernon Braswell. Each church was urged to involve their members in the Witnessing/Giving campaign.

42. The Moderator, Lacy Oliver, stated that he had previously asked 100 families to give $100 each year for 10 years to the Baptist Foundation. He stated how we need the help of each other. He also stressed that it was important that each of us stick to the word of God.

43. The Jordan Chapel Choir sang "The Wonder of it All" and "Jesus is Coming Again."

44. The sermon was preached by Frank Sandy who read the scripture from Romans 5. Mr. Sandy is a product of this association having been ordained eight years earlier. He said that this association is "worth working for." He talked about the HOPE that we have in Jesus and stressed that we should want to "give it away." He urged us to have an attitude of "we are not going to miss any opportunity to share the Gospel." Don't let anything stop us from sharing Christ.

45. After the inspirational sermon, Lacy Oliver had all of the pastors present to come up front and tell their names and what churches they pastored.

46. Harold Burton stood up to say a word of appreciation to the "Baptist Family" who had helped him financially in the past. He was representing the Resolutions Committee and made a motion to thank the host churches. This was seconded and passed.

47. A motion was made to accept Brantley Stevens as the new Moderator and Tom Waits as Chairman of the Constitution and Bylaws Committee. These motions were seconded and passed.

48. Lacy Oliver introduced Brantley Stevens as the new Moderator and Aubrey Jones as the alternate Moderator. After that Brantley Stevens stated he would do his best of the job. He also introduced the new Clerk of the association, Pat Speight.

49. The meeting was adjourned and then refreshments were enjoyed by those present.

Respectfully submitted,
Pat Speight, NBA Clerk

Executive Committee
Goldsboro, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

We have reviewed the accompanying Balance Sheet of NEUSE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION as of December 31, 1989, and the related Statement of Support and Revenue, Expenditures, and Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended, in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. All information included in these financial statements is the representation of the Executive Committee.

A review consists principally of inquiries of personnel and analytical procedures applied to financial data. It is substantially less in scope than an examination in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modification that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Respectfully submitted,
PITTMAN, CASEY, PRICE & CO., P.A.

NOTE: This represents a .07 percent increase over 1990 or $6,583. We are on the sliding scale from the Home Mission Board and will receive $1,000 less in 1991. This means that the association must give more support in 1991. You have done a great job in the past and with the mission opportunities continuing to increase in NBA, it will require more financial support in the future. The Association has suggested that our churches set a goal of five percent of undesignated offerings for Associational Missions. Will you help 'catch' the vision.

Director of Missions Report

This past year has been a very busy one and a fruitful one for the kingdom of God. I will try and share some of the events that took place in Neuse Baptist Association.

(1) The "Here's Hope" revivals were being planned in the early part of the year. And from all reports, it was a very successful program in the churches. Most of our churches participated.

(2) The coming of Isaiah Mejia to serve as the Hispanic pastor of a new mission sponsored by the association and LaGrange Church. This was a good time and marked the beginning of the work with the permanent Hispanic folks in the association. This occurred in June and Isaiah hit the ground running.

(3) We had Wesley Cureton with us as our Summer Bilingual Worker to work with the migrants again, and we were happy about that. He did a good job all summer long.

(4) We continued to work on the East Kinston Mission building, hoping to help Pastor Donald Leach to open the building by the end of October. Don has been working in the community during the renovation time. A number of churches has been helping with the work on the building.

(5) Held the dedication of the new Hispanic Baptist Mission in LaGrange on October 14, 1990, with Gene Puckett, Editor of the Biblical Recorder as speaker.

(6) Had the privilege of training some six pastor search committees. We have had a lot of turnover among pastors in the churches this year.

(7) Beginning in May 1990, we had 46 people from all over the association participate in Associational Strategy Planning. We had seven task groups to gather information and demographics and then at a retreat August 24-25 at Caswell Assembly, put together some objectives, goals and action plans for our association for the next five years. This is an exciting time for NBA.

(8) I have had the opportunity to work with two Southern Baptist military chaplains on SJAFB, and the Southern Baptist Chaplains of the Federal Prison Camp on base and at Wayne Memorial Hospital. We are fortunate to have these men serving in our area.

The statistics below will give some idea of just how busy I have been. And I look forward to an even more fruitful year for the churches of NBA and for the Lord. We make a good team, as we work together.

Sermons preached	46
Teaching events	11
Conferences held	162

Church and Community Ministries Director Report

What a great year in the Lord we've had in Neuse Association. "So the lost may hear" was the 1990 theme of our Home Mission Study, and with that in mind let me share a partial listing of the many ways Christ has been shared with people in and around this association.

Again, Christmas Cheer Boxes for inmates at Eastern Correction were collected and distributed. Upon receiving one such box an inmate wrote, "until today, I was sure no one cared" about me. . .as he continues in his thank you note he adds "God bless you all." Placing this cheer box in the hands of just one inmate gave hope and I believe it gave that same hope and conveyed the love of Christ to many others as well.

Four persons were trained in ESL work in how to use the Gospel of Mark as a text for teaching English. This tool has proven to be most useful in sharing Christ and telling the lost about Him as well as learning a new language.

Again, through language in March, Ann White and I trained 15 inmates at Eastern Correction as tutors, so they might help others.

In April I went to Atlanta for a week of PACT training. During this week I received 40 hours of training on assisting churches in transitional communities (*P*roject *A*ssistance for *C*hurches in *T*ransition) and other related areas of needs assessment and analysis.

May brought on our first annual "Great Day In May" rally for mentally retarded persons. About 179 attended and enjoyed a great day of fun, food, fellowship and other activities.

The summer schedule involved Wesley Cureton, bilingual student worker from Texas, coming again to work in Migrant Ministry. Also, I had my first mission team to work with. The group was from First Baptist, Valdosta, Georgia. They were 40 strong and were very dedicated to the task of ministry during the week of June 17-22, 1990.

June 1, 1990, we received answers to many prayers with the coming of Isaiah Mejia and family as Hispanic pastor of our new work in LaGrange. With his coming we have been able to go a step further into the Hispanic community for Christ. On July 15, 1990, the first Hispanic service was held in LaGrange Baptist Church with 34 attending that service. This ministry bridges not only the migrant and permanent Hispanic ministries but also the work of many Anglo churches in our association.

History was made again on the 15th of July when Glen Raven Baptist Church transported about 25 men from Tull Hill Migrant Club to their church for a bilingual worship service on Sunday morning. After the service they had dinner on the grounds for the entire group. The entire church has totally committed itself to this camp and this ministry for the last two years.

A second mission team of 26 served with us July 29 - August 3, and they were from Second Baptist, College Park, Georgia. This group conducted eight Backyard Bible Clubs on Seymour Johnson Air Base and during this week of ministry five professions of faith were made as the team shared Jesus Christ with over 120 children. They shared their faith and witness through music at Dobbs School in Kinston and with door to door visitation and canvassing in the Trinity Baptist Church area.

September 15 was the time of our third annual Volunteer Appreciation Supper and 47 attended this event held at Spilman Baptist Church. A certificate of recognition was presented to Glen Raven Baptist Church for all there work in Migrant Ministry, also testimonies from various ones in attendance were a part of the program. A slide presentation of our various mission ministries set to the song, "Love In Any Language" concluded the evening.

Many people have been involved in so many other ministries throughout the year across the association that time nor space will allow me to mention them all. But it is certain that we here in NBA are sharing Christ with the LOST, SO THEY MAY HEAR. May we continue in being found faithful to this end.

Jeanette Walters

Associational Missions Development Council Report

Under the new "Missions Council" plan rather than the old "committee" plan, associational missions has everyone excited about the noted progress we are making. With the leadership of our DOM, Bobbie Belcher; our Church and Community Ministries Director, Jeanette Walters; and, our component programs: more churches and more individuals are involved in doing missions than ever before. The real incentive for doing missions is getting personally involved.

In our various A.M.D.C. meetings we have shared some of our accomplishments and have given praise to God for your cooperation that has made them possible. We have also sought to identify new needs and make plans to help meet them.

We rejoice in the progress being made in our Hispanic work at LaGrange under the pastoral leadership of Rev. Isaiah Mejia; also, the progress of our Black work in east Kinston, under the leadership of Rev. Donald Leach. Rev. John Green is the chairman of our newest program, Black Church Relations.

Committee Chairmen reports are also in this "Book of Reports" with accounts of the many services being provided through the A.M.D.C. We personally thank you for your Christian response to the various needs of our community. We also thank God for the privilege of living in a loving, caring association.

As our association continues to grow in its ministries and outreach services it is becoming more and more important that we give special attention to adequate administrative facilities. Our present office quarters served us well when our program was limited. However, now that we have developed a more involved program of work and services they are woefully inadequate. Let's make this need a matter of special prayer and concern.

A.M.D.C. COMPONENT PROGRAMS

Mentally Retarded Ministry Report

The work of the Mentally Retarded/Developmental Disabilities Committee was culminated in the first "Great Day in May" rally held May 17, 1990, at Kinston First Baptist Church. The program consisted of clowns, a puppet skit by Kinston First youth, a skit by ventriloquist, Rev. Bill Vorhees of New Bern and singing.

The committee plans for this to be an annual event and build other programs of ministry for individuals and churches to become involved with.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeanette Walters, Acting Chairman

Prison Ministry Report

The Neuse Baptist Association again provided 255 Christmas Cheer Boxes to Eastern Correction Center, Maury, in December 1989. This project has involved 26 of our churches in this effort along with the partnership of South Roanoke Association for the past two years. We are continuing this project for 1990 and hope to for many more years. We have some churches/individuals providing programs of music and bible study in the Federal Prison, Wayne Correction and Dobbs School during the year as well.

Dickie Gunther, Chairman

Migrant Ministry Report

They keep coming! Migrants, Seasonal Farm Workers, people seeking to upgrade their living conditions, seeking a better life! And the Neuse Baptist Association, through its migrant ministry program, offers them the Abundant Life in Jesus.

Wesley Cureton came back this past summer as our Migrant Minister. This was a help. He knew the camp locations and many of the people. He helped introduce Isaiah Mejia, the Hispanic pastor of LaGrange, in the area. Now the First Hispanic Baptist Church of LaGrange is off to a good start.

Much of our efforts in the future, no doubt, will be directed toward supporting the church in LaGrange. We do encourage your prayer support for this ministry.

Thank you, Neuse Baptist folks, for your support in the ministry to the migrants, seasonal farm workers and Hispanics who have come to our area.

Bill Brown, Chairman

Military Ministry Report

The Military Ministry Committee has been at work in various areas during the past year. Our goal has been to promote cooperation and understanding between the local Southern Baptist Churches and the Air Force Chaplains that work and minister to the Air Force personnel aboard Seymour Johnson Air Force Base. We have sought to encourage a spirit of openness and acceptance as we have attempted to identify ministry opportunities that will meet the needs of our local military population. From July 30 to August 3, 1990, eight Backyard Bible Clubs were jointly sponsored by the Neuse Baptist Association and the Base Chapel. A youth mission team from Second Baptist Church of College Park, Georgia, conducted the Bible Clubs and were assisted by young people from the Base Chapel and New Life Baptist Church. These clubs were hosted by families that attend the Base Chapel and several local Southern Baptist Churches. Over 100 young people were reached through these clubs and five professions of faith were recorded.

We ask you to pray for military men and women deployed to the Middle East and especially their families who wait for their return. If any church desires to learn how you might better minister to our military population, please contact Jeanette Walters or myself for assistance.

Literacy/Language Report

On January 6 of this year several from our association attended a language workshop on English Lessons from the Book of Mark at Goldsboro First led by the author, Mrs. Glenda Reece of Raleigh, North Carolina.

January 20 and 27, I led an English as Second Lanugage (ESL) Workshop at LaGrange Baptist Church with eight participants. This workshop was and has been the tool for some to begin ESL classes in their churches particularly Adamsville with the Korean work and LaGrange with the Hispanic work.

A Basic Literacy Workshop was held at Eastern Correction with 12 new tutors being trained in Laubach. This workshop was held in March.

In May I conducted an ESL workshop at First Baptist Wilson, through coordinaton with the CCM Directors of Neuse and South Roanoke Association. Also during the year I have conducted literacy workshops for Johnston Technical College and New River Association.

In October of 1989 Lillian Tyndall, Jeanette Walters and I attended the Annual Literacy Retreat at Caraway, and I will be attending this retreat and training again October 26 and 27, 1990.

Sunday School/ASSISTeam Report

This last year of "Challenge 10/90" has been a busy time for those of us involved in Sunday School work. In preparation for the "People Search/Scripture Distribution Sunday" last October our ASSISTeam led the participating churches in training their workers.

During January the Association Sunday School Training School featured the "Understanding" series in a two-night study held at Rosewood Baptist Church. Sixty-one people representing 12 churches received study course credit for this.

Other training activities during the year included two Associational Vacation Bible School Clinics. These provided training and encouragement for the leaders and teachers from each of our churches.

In August our association hosted an "Outreach Bible Study Awareness Luncheon" for the eastern region of our state and then on September 11 we held a "Pastor/Sunday School Workers' Planning Clinic" at Trinity Baptist Church.

As a part of the preparation and promotion for "The Final Four Sunday School Growth Emphasis" the churches of the Neuse Baptist Association were invited to a "Final Four Rally" held on May 1 at Kennedy Home Baptist Church. The inspirational speaker was Dr. David G. Moore from Wilmington, North Carolina.

Our Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team has led the Neuse Association to reach "Standard" in its development for the second straight year. Our goal and our overall plans are to make every church aware of the role that Sunday School plays in the outreach ministry of the church.

One of our churches has been asked to participate in "Great Commission Breakthrough Pilot '91." Sandy Bottom Baptist Church will be one of 25 churches in North Carolina to be involved in a pilot program for this new Outreach/Growth church event to take place during 1991.

Woman's Missionary Union Report

In His Name...Reach, Teach, Touch. "And the king shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Matt. 25:40. This was the WMU emphasis and watchword for 1989-90. The logo was three hearts entwined. The first word REACH — reach people for Christ; reach church members not involved in mission organizations. The second word TEACH — teach WMU members to see needs around them; change negative attitudes about missions; provide stimuli for motivating people to be involved in missions. The third word TOUCH — touch challenges WMU members to touch people in need; those victims of social or moral problems.

This has been a transitional year for Neuse Association WMU as Mrs. Lucy Pittman, who had been WMU Director for a number of years, gave up this position due to prolonged illness of her husband. At the March Associational Council meeting I was selected WMU director for 1990-91. At the WMU Annual Spring Meeting, April 19, 1990, I was installed by Mrs. Pittman as WMU Director along with all WMU Council members. One notable in the associational WMU Bylaws is that all officers assume their duties as soon as elected.

The WMU Council met regularly to plan and promote the work of the WMU. Each age-level director has worked and planned with directors/leaders in the local churches as they had opportunity or were called upon. The WMU Council has urged and encouraged all churches to promote the programs and goals for Foreign, Home and State missions; World Day of Prayer and World Hunger.

During the year all age-level directors have planned and promoted the work of the association. Many special events were sponsored by these leaders.

Under the leadership of Pat Speight, Spilman Memorial Church hosted several churches for a program on the Baptist World Alliance. The Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer, November 6, 1989, was to be observed in each church.

On January 13 the Annual Prayer Breakfast, sponsored by the WMU and Brotherhood, was held at Kings Restaurant in Kinston. Jean Kirk led in the "call to prayer." Tracy and Michele Turner provided special music. Rick Overman, local evangelist, brought the inspirational message. This event was well attended and I encourage more of you to plan to enjoy the fellowship and outstanding programs and become involved.

On February 16-17, 72 GAs representing seven churches attended a "GA Overnight" hosted by Rivermont Church. The annual associational "Track Meet" sponsored by the Brotherhood for RAs, GAs and Acteens was held at Lenoir High School in Kinston on April 21, 1990. The young people really turned out for this event.

On April 19, WMU Annual Spring Meeting was held at Adamsville Baptist Church and co-hosted by Snow Hill First, Fremont, Davis Grove, Mount Nelson and Spilman Memorial. The delicious covered dish dinner, served in the fellowship hall where all flowers and everything was in purple and white, was enjoyed by over 100 attending. The meeting was called to order in the sanctuary by Lucy Pittman. The welcome was given by Pat Kissinger, Adamsville WMU Director, Mark Morris, pastor at Snow Hill First, led in devotion and prayer. The Adamsville Church Choir sang "The King Is Coming." Joeann Ault, soloist, sang a hymn medley. The missionary message was brought by Toni Romine, Language Ministries Director, New River Association. Her testimony/message was very inspirational. She displayed items from her country, Japan.

A special emphasis in WMU this year was "Acteens, This Is Your Year." Acteens had a prominent part on the program. They were ushers and took up the special mission offering which was donated to the new Black Mission in East Kinston. Acteens Director, Jean Kirk, recognized Acteens and leaders present and challenged women in the churches to make time to prepare and lead an Acteens Organization in each church. She introduced Emmaus Acteens who presented a song in sign language. Mrs, Kirk then accompanied Joeann Ault as she sang the Acteens song, "This Is Our Year," while Acteens stood together in a group.

Mrs. Pittman presided at the business session recognizing the host churches; presented Achievement Guide Awards to Pikeville First and Rosewood First; Attendance Banner was presented to Adamsville. Mary Knott, representative from NBA at the State WMU Annual Convention, gave highlights of this meeting. Nancy Wilkie, chairperson of the Bylaws Committee, presented the following recommendations for change in Bylaws:

1. ARTICLE VI. Add SECTION 5 to read: The WMU Director may serve no more than five consecutive years. The age-level directors, assistant director, secretary, treasurer, and mission action director may serve no more than three consecutive years. No office shall be eligible for re-election until lapse of one year.
2. ARTICLE X paragraph one: change $350.00 to read $400.00 or whatever amount the association approves.

   ARTICLE X paragraph two amended to read: The evening meal served at the WMU Annual Spring Meeting shall be served at the discretion of the host churches.

Both of these recommendations were approved by the body.

Association WMU officers were installed and commissioned by Lucy Pittman. Bobbie Belcher, DOM, gave the benediction and the group left the sanctuary singing "Take the Name of Jesus with You." The altar flowers were placed and given to Lucy, in her honor.

On May 7-8 I attended Association Key Leadership Training at Caswell. Sally Rogers and I represented our association at Ridgecrest for WMU Week, June 23-29. All WMU officers of NBA attended the state-led "Leadership Conference" at Caraway Conference Center in August 1990.

The annual Associational WMU Leadership Workshop for all church officers and leaders was held at Madison Avenue Baptist on September 13. Ten separate workshops were held for the 76 in attendance, representing 23 of our 36 churches. There were items for sale from the Baptist Book Store.

The WMU Council recommends again this year that each church donate $10.00 by December 1 to help purchase gifts for the Women's Correctional Center in Raleigh. This is an overall mission action project of the associational WMU.

I, along with Lucy, express my thanks and gratitude to the 1989-90 WMU Council; to all the churches for their participation and support of all the mission projects, the special weeks of prayer, giving, witnessing, praying — REACHING, TEACHING, TOUCHING. Jesus said, "Ye have done it unto me."

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Smith, Director

Ordination Committee Report

The Neuse Baptist Association Ordination Committee received two requests for examination during this past associational year. The requests were:

1. Pikeville First Baptist requested examination for Gary Bradshaw.
2. LaGrange First Baptist requested examination for Isaiah Mejia.

Both candidates were recommended for ordination.

Brotherhood Report

It has been a pleasure for me to have been your Brotherhood Director for the past six years and I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to Buck Hill and M.B. Jenkins for the support they have given me in carrying on the work of the Brotherhood within the Neuse Baptist Association. With their help and prayers we have been able to visit a number of our churches that had a Brotherhood program going and a lot of enthusiasm is being shown in the Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador programs. During our visits we have found churches involved in mission work by having Baptist Men and RA boys ministering to nursing homes and helping in projects of assisting the elderly and handicapped in yard maintenance and repairs to their homes. Baptist men are holding prison services at Wayne Correctional Center in Goldsboro and as a result of this ministry souls are being saved and inmates are rededicating their lives at each service. A Brotherhood Workshop, led by representatives from North Carolina Baptist men was held at Kennedy Home Church in October 1989 with 36 Baptist Men and RA leaders in attendance. I attended a Brotherhood Training Program at Caraway and received a number of new ideas on different programs that can be implemented in our association. At the present time we have 13 churches within the association without a Brotherhood program and it is my prayer that the Brotherhood leaders of the association will be able to start a Baptist Men and RA program in these churches in the near future.

Baptist Men Report

This year, 1989-1990, I assisted the Brotherhood Director, in visiting churches within the association and speaking at two of the churches. I assisted one of our churches in helping them to get a set of materials for starting a Brotherhood program. I assisted the North Carolina Baptist Men working on the farm at Buies Creek and helped put on a barbecue for the Baptist Men at Buies Creek in July 1990. I attended two Baptist Men's Board Meetings and served on the Steering Committee for the National Fellowship Agriculture Missions. I was invited and spoke at several churches in other associations for Baptist Men's Day emphasis. Wherever I went I emphasized that I was from the Neuse Baptist Association. It has been a spiritual blessing to me to serve as the Baptist Men's President for the association and I am still available to help our churches in any way that I can and may be reached at 1-800-682-0202.

Royal Ambassadors Report

In September of last year we had the Annual Conclave at Eagle's Nest Camp near Mount Olive, North Carolina. The conclave included movies, mission speaker, swimming and other events. Attendance was good and everyone had a great time.

October is the month for our Associational Brotherhood Training. It was again held at Kennedy Home beginning with dinner. The conference was led by state leaders and Brotherhood specialists. Conferences included: Lads and Crusaders, Pioneers, High School Baptist Young Men and Baptist Men.

In January the Annual Brotherhood Banquet was held at Spilman Memorial Church in Kinston. The attendance was good, about 70, and so was the speaker. The meal was prepared by the RA Committee with help from Buck Hill, NBA Baptist Men's President.

In February we had the Car Competition/Missions Fair at Kennedy Home Gym. The attendance was down a little from last year due to a mix-up on the date. However, the event was well attended and the winners went on to the state congress.

The Associational RA/GA/Acteens/HSBYM Track Meet was held at South Lenoir High School in Deep Run. There were about 100 persons in the competition which included field and running events.

Historian Report

The 1989-90 associational year was one of exciting missions developments.

The First Hispanic Baptist Mission LaGrange dedicated its newly renovated building on October 14, 1990. There were over 150 people present from across our association and beyond. Mr. R.G. Puckett, editor of the Biblical Recorder, was guest speaker. The program was in English and Spanish and filled with inspirational testimonies, singing and many were recognized for their work and gifts to the renovation project.

The Eastside Mission building in Kinston has been under renovation this year lead by Don Leach and many volunteers from Kinston area churches. This mission and ministry is vital and growing in a much needed area of our association.

Two churches in NBA celebrated significant anniversaries this year. Emmaus celebrated its 100th anniversary and Union celebrated its 175th anniversary!

It was encouraging to learn that individual churches made history with building and renovation programs, additions to church staff and a number of ordinations and licensings of those answering the Lord's call to the ministry.

For those of you who may not know, any church can get its history put on microfilm, if you contact the North Carolina Baptist Historical Collection, Wake Forest University, P.O. Box 7777, Winston-Salem, NC 27109. This service is offered free of charge.

Music Committee Report

The churches of the NBA are diverse and have a wide range of musical styles. Whatever the style, we all sing to God's glory.

This past year we had four major events: (1) Associational Choir Festival, (2) Youth Choir Workshop, (3) Children's Choir Camp and (4) Adult Choir Clinic.

The Associational Choir Festival was held October 29, 1989, at First Church Goldsboro. A total of nine churches participated with attendance of approximately 400. In addition to worshipping through music, an offering was taken to support Associational Missions.

The Youth Choir Workshop was held at Madison Avenue Church, Goldsboro. Thirty-five teenagers along with four adult workers learned music for the State Youth Choir Festival.

The Third Annual Children's Choir Camp was held July 16-19, Kinston. Over 80 children and 25 workers provided the children with a week of learning experiences. Rev. Gerald Robinson of Martinsville, Virginia, served as guest clinitian.

The Adult Choir Clinic was held September 11, New Hope Baptist Church, Kinston. Sixty-seven people from the NBA sang and learned new music led by Charles Storey, BSC. This event was a good informational as well as educational event.

In addition to these events, we are planning a handbell workshop for next year.

The music ministry continues to blossom and grow under God's providence. May each of us always sing for the glory of God! Thank you for allowing me to serve as your Music Minister.

Respectfully submitted,
Steven Gibson

Evangelism Report

The past year has been good in several areas of evangelism. The "Here's Hope" crusades were exciting. Some pastors stated that their churches were better prepared than ever for a revival and the attendance was better than usual. We trust the training ideas will be used in future revivals.

The Cliffs of the Neuse Ministry continued this year with more churches participating with a greater number of staff members of the State Park attending each week.

The "Super Summer at Carowinds" was great with good representation from our association.

The Black Church Ministry in east Kinston is about ready to open, and we pray for great things to happen there under the direction of Rev. Donald Leach. Jody Haskins, a Boy Scout from Seven Springs Church, took as his Eagle Scout Project some of the renovation as well as having a number of churches contributing monies and labor.

A request was presented to the Constitution and Bylaws Committee last year at our Annual Meeting to change the Evangelism Committee to a "council" status to conform to Home Mission Board Reports and help in the long range planning of Evangelism.
